SUMMARY.

Great crowds welcomed Marshal Foch, M. Clemenceau, Signor Orlando, and Baron Sonnino at Charing Cross Station.

The route to the French Embassy and Hyde Park was lined with troops and cheering crowds.

The primary object of the visit of M. Clemenceau to London is to consider the question of dealing with the ex-Kaiser.

Herr Ebert admits that the Independent Socialists are conspiring to overthrow the German Government.

Administrative confusion reigns in Berlin. The Press accuses the Government of having squandered 800,000,000 marks in three weeks.

Herr Scheidemann declares that the danger of the disruption of the Empire is increasing daily.

The Soviet executive has resolved to welcome the Russian Bolshevist delegation to the Soviets' Congress in Berlin.

Strikes have broken out in Berlin in favour of the socialisation of industry.

Germany has handed over to the Allies £12,000,000, which she filched from Belgium, Russia, and Roumania.

The German Government has forbidden the ex-Kaiser and the ex-Kaiserin to return to Berlin.

A widespread plot, headed by von Mackensen, to restore the ex-Kaiser is reported to have been discovered in Germany.

Many arrests were made in Berlin. The pan-Germans, bureaucrats, and officers' corps are implicated.

The ex-Kaiser blames Bethmann von Hollweg and von Jagow for the war policy.

The soldiers bitterly denounce the ex-Kaiser's flight.

The British Attorney-General, in an address at Bournemouth, said the Government was determined to expel every German.

Eight more submarines have surrendered to Admiral Tyrwhitt. Germany lost 200 submarines prior to the armistice.

The advanced troops of the British Second Army have crossed the German frontier and proceeded to the Rhine.

Forty British divisions are ready to enter Germany. The Third American Army has crossed the German frontier.

A Belgian cavalry brigade entered Aix-la-Chapelle at the request of the German authorities.

The Belgian Royal family entered Liege at the head of the troops which defended the town in 1914.

A Belgrade telegram announces the creation of a new Southern Slav State.

Delegates from all South Slav territories hitherto ruled by Austria-Hungary proclaimed their union with Servia and Montenegro.

Reports have reached New York that the Montenegrin Skuptschina has deposed King Nicholas.

The railway engineers in England threaten an early strike for eight hours.

The cotton spinners have given notice of a strike for increased wages.

President Wilson, in his message to Congress, referred to the part taken by the United States in the war, and to the fighting qualities of her troops.

"I am proud to be a fellow countryman," he said, "of men of such stuff and valour."

Four more cases of influenza occurred at the Quarantine Station yesterday. Nursing Sister Annie Egan has died.

At a public meeting in the Town Hall, the removal of the quarantine station from its present position was demanded.

A resolution was carried declaring that it was a menace to public health.

A deputation was appointed to wait upon the Commonwealth authorities to have it removed as soon as possible.

The Minister for Health says the opportunities afforded for inoculation have not been availed of by the public to the extent expected.

In view of the danger which may at any moment become imminent, the Minister advises citizens to undergo inoculation without delay.

The Premier and members of the Ministry, as well as many members of Parliament, were inoculated yesterday.

Inoculation, the Minister points out, is absolutely harmless, and results in merely a mild form of discomfort.

In the Legislative Assembly yesterday Mr. Fuller introduced the Parliamentary Elections Bill to provide for the system of proportional representation.

Further consideration was given in committee to the contentious clauses of the Local Government Bill.

Mr. Holman stated that the Government was perfectly satisfied that no injustice had been done by Mr. Allard in his report on the Public Service Board.

"We are satisfied," he remarked, "that there is nothing to gain by further inquiry."

The Government intends to introduce a small measure to give effect to the Royal Commissioner's recommendations.

The Government has protested to the Federal Government against the tax on school children attending classes for swimming.

Mr. Bavin suggested in the Assembly that an opportunity should be afforded to discuss the claim for a war indemnity.

The Premier said he did not favour any course that might embarrass the Imperial Government in the matter.

The Treasurer states that the railway and tramway fares were not affected by the buoyancy of the revenue in other directions.

A bush fire burnt fiercely at Wentworth Falls yesterday, several houses being threatened. The cemetery was partly burnt.

A destructive fire broke out on Sunday evening in the Jerilderie district. Great losses of stock are reported.

Ernest E. Judd was placed on trial yesterday on separate counts of having in May last made statements likely to prejudice recruiting.

The opening of the Coastal Farmers' Co-operative Society's new premises was celebrated yesterday by a luncheon.

The main theme of the speeches was the success of the society and the value of co-operation to the producer and the consumer.

Mr. Fuller, referring to the proposed meat scheme, spoke of the success achieved in the dairying industry by co-operation.

Mr. John Bates, who served in the Crimean War, died at Lidcombe yesterday, aged 83 years.

Eight more cases of influenza have occurred among the crew of the Makura in quarantine at Auckland.

Reports from all parts of New Zealand indicate a rapid abatement of the influenza epidemic.

The position in Auckland is becoming normal, and the embargo on hotels and picture theatres will shortly be lifted.

There has been a very heavy mortality among the Maori population in the Dominion.

The epidemic continues to be very severe at Samoa. In Upolu 1000 deaths have taken place.

The Liquor Bill in the New Zealand House provides for taking a special licensing poll in April on national prohibition.

General Pau and the other members of the French Mission have returned to Melbourne from their tour in Western Australia.

A mass meeting of citizens and traders protested against the retrospective nature of the amendments to the War-time Profits Act.

A farewell luncheon was tendered by the Millions Club yesterday to Mr. Louis C. M. Reed, of Chicago.

A fair turnover was effected in investment stocks on the Stock Exchange yesterday, and firm prices ruled.

The feature of the dealings was a sharp advance in Burns, Philp.

The Christmas trade in groceries, although brisk, is not nearly as good as last year. All classes of dried fruit were scarce yesterday.

Eggs were scarce in Sussex-street. Bacon sold freely at full prices. There was a strong demand for eggs.

All classes of forage and grain continued to command high rates. Good prices were secured for high-grade fruit.

Forecast.—Cloudy, with some scattered showers, in the coastal districts and the south-east corner, also in the extreme north-west with thunder; otherwise fine and cool.

FARMER'S,
SYDNEY,
1840-1918,
Seventy-eight Years.

THE HOUSE OF DISTINCTION.

ON FRIDAY AGAIN—
FARMER'S SPECIAL THEATRE DINNER,
6.30 to 8.30 o'clock, Table d'Hote, 4/6.

The perfect service of Farmer's Theatre Dinner and the thorough enjoyment derived, make it a particularly suitable function to precede Theatre or Concert. Tables or Seats, if desired, can be reserved by 'phoning the Restaurant Manager, City Eleven Thousand.

No wonder they are happy and joyous, carefree and gladsome, the children thronging our establishment this week, for

THIS IS "CHILDREN'S TIME" AT FARMER'S
THIS IS "CHILDREN'S TIME" AT FARMER'S

"Glad in the freedom of school let out" takes on a new adaptation this week, for our many, many little visitors of Monday and yesterday were "glad in the pleasure of Children's Time at Farmer's," and you and every other boy and girl up to 15 years who comes along this week, are also going to have the gayest, happiest time imaginable. Please note that children in arms are not admitted.

FIRST OF ALL THERE IS

with ten charming little tots being entertained at an informal party by none other than Mlle. d'Alroy, who takes the part of Aunty Cis. The "Party" can be viewed by all good little boys and girls and their parents, too, for children must be accompanied by adults, and adults by children. The "Party" starts at 4.15 o'clock to-day in the Display Theatre, First Floor, also to-morrow and Friday, and on Saturday morning, at 11 o'clock. Obtain your admission tickets beforehand, if you please, in the Toy Department, First Floor, George-street.

WHAT A SURPRISE,
AND AN ENJOYABLE ONE, TOO,
WHEN YOU MEET FATHER CHRISTMAS

—and how lucky and happy you will be, too, if you get one of the lovely big balloons he gives away at the Party each day. Oh! and the wonderful display of Toys. And the Children's Barber Shop. And a score or more of attractions for young and old this week at Farmer's. It would take more than this small space to tell of them all, so if you would turn to our column on the Dress, Fashion Page of this issue, everything is there before you in detail.

YOUTHFUL MILLINERY
FOR "SMART LITTLE LADIES."

If one is a girl and does not dress nowadays in up-to-the-minute girlish styles, one feels that retribution is sure to follow in the form of disdain from one's schoolmates, or something equally dreadful. All the smartest little girls take the greatest pride in their Hats, above all, and on these charming examples will share much admiration during the next day or two.

SMALL DROOP SHAPE FOR CHILD, ridged crown, with fancy pleated band and bow in front, of Sky Blue ribbon, caught at back with loops. The brim is covered with rows of Val. Lace and is edged with silk to match the trimmings. PRICE .. 16/11

CHILD'S USEFUL HAT, of pedal straw, with shallow ridged crown, over half of which are swathings of Shell Pink Satin Ribbon, caught together with rosette with full frayed ends. The brim is drooped and edged rows of Val. Lace. PRICE.... 19/11

VERY PRETTY HAT for a girl of 10 to 14, with crown and brim of fancy lace straw, edged and underlined with Rose-coloured Aerophane and swathed with similar silk faille ribbon, finished at side with a large flat bow. PRICE 22/6

Millinery Salon, Third Floor, Pitt-street.

MERCERY AND HATS FOR BOYS.
(All now obtainable in "The Little Man's Domain," Fourth Floor.)

The opening of "The Little Man's Domain" is one of the outstanding events of the week, coinciding with "Children's Time," and, therefore, receiving special prominence.

YOUTHS' FUR FELT HATS, to be worn with round or Alpine crowns, Black or self coloured bands, grease-proof leathers. Colours are Slate, Steel, and Grey. Sizes, 6½ to 7. PRICE 12/6, 13/6, 14/6

BOYS' ZEPHYR GOLF SHIRTS, made with yoke backs, linen neckbands and double cuffs, very neat designs. Sizes 11½ to 14½. PRICES 4/6, 5/6

Boys' Outfitting Section, Fourth Floor, Pitt-st.

RESUMPTION OF WORLD SERVICES.

BURNS, PHILP, and CO., LTD., are now prepared to receive the names of intending passengers to all parts of the World. The principal Steamship Lines are reconstructing their services, and in most cases priority will be given to passengers who, with foresight, pre-arrange their accommodation. The War interfered with many intending travellers, so that because of the immense numbers who desire to travel, every care should be taken to secure comfort, economy, and expedition by booking well in advance. We are now booking for ENGLAND and the CONTINENT, NORTH AMERICA, CHINA, INDIA, AFRICA, JAPAN, SINGAPORE, JAVA, SOUTH AMERICA, and ELSEWHERE. Intending passengers are invited to write or call upon us for fullest particulars of Fares, Sailing Dates, Routes, to any part of the World, Passport arrangements, Remittances, Letters of Credit, and all other necessary details. Call or write, TOURIST DEPARTMENT, BURNS, PHILP, and CO., LTD., 9 Bridge-street, Sydney. City 10688.

A SUIT FOR CHRISTMAS
—DISTINCTIVE IN STYLE.

Now that there is so little time before Christmas, men who require new clothes will probably be interested in the better-class READY-TO-WEAR Suits as an acceptable alternative to tailoring.

Peapes of Sydney introduce several distinctive productions—one noteworthy style being in Black Summer-weight English Tweed, with faint blue stripes ½ inch apart.

The coat is cut in the newest S.B. Sac style, with conforming shoulders and soft lapels, 2 buttons in front, seam only in back. Vest, 4 pockets. The trousers have side, hip, and fob pockets, and permanent turn-up bottoms.

READY TO WEAR, 80/.

Peapes pay postage. Please state height, chest, waist, and inside leg measurements.

The NEW CATALOGUE, just published, will be sent on request.

ANTHONY HORDERNS'
CHRISTMAS SHOW.

The fact that there are but eighteen shopping days before Christmas seems to have acted as a reminder to many people that the shopping programme for the festive season must be proceeded with.

ANTHONY HORDERNS' GREAT CHRISTMAS SHOW was crowded yesterday by Ladies intent upon examining the many displays which offer such a host of helpful suggestions for gift giving.

In this column are enumerated selections from some of the Departments, but, as price alone cannot always be accepted as a criterion of value, a personal inspection is desirable.

LADIES' HANDBAGS

The array of Ladies' Handbags on view in the Fancy Goods Department at the New Palace Emporium has never been equalled for diversity or design. The display includes dainty little Handbags, Serviceable Knitting Bags, Roomy Leather Bags, with Embossed Designs and Leather Lacings, and Handsome Mesh Bags.

Any of these bags would make an acceptable Christmas present. Value for money expended is an attraction that cannot be overlooked. We enumerate some suggestions:—

MOROCCO HANDBAG, pocket under flap, nickel frame, leather lined. 17/6.

THE BRIDGE BAG, Silk Knitted throughout, electroplated ring and chain, various colours. 20/

MESH CHAIN, strongly plaited, in great variety of sizes, shapes, and designs. 3/ to 45/.

DOROTHY BAGS, in Leather, various colours. 2/6, 6/6, 11/6.

SILK DOROTHY BAGS, hand-painted designs, from 1/ to 2/9 each.

LADIES' HAIR ORNAMENTS.

Hair Combs and Hair Ornaments set with French Brilliants are distinctly fashionable. The display in the Millinery Department of exquisitely finished Back Combs, Side Combs, Hair Clips, and Slides and Hair Daggers offers innumerable suggestions for Gifts that will be appreciated by every lady.

There are Back Combs, priced at from 2/3 to 17/6, incorporating the latest styles in these Smart Ornaments for the Hair.

PLAIN BACK COMBS, new shapes, 1/ and 2/3 each.

Pretty SIDE COMBS, 1/9, 1/11, 2/3 each.

NOVELTY HAIR DAGGERS, set with fine French Brilliants. Price, 1/3 to 13/6 each.

HAIR SLIDES and CLIPS, with or without Brilliant Setting. Price 2/3 to 4/11.

MORNING SHOPPING
FACILITATES SELECTIONS.

Many Ladies who have brought buying to a fine art are adopting the plan of morning shopping. The convenience and comfort of early buying is at once apparent. Anthony Horderns' always cater for the early visitors, who make a practice of shopping before the heat of the day has developed.

LADIES' KID GLOVES.

THE LADIES' GLOVE SECTION at the NEW PALACE EMPORIUM MAINTAINS its EXCELLENT REPUTATION for the SUPERIORITY of the GOODS and the LOWNESS OF PRICE. An INSPECTION of the GLOVES enumerated below will DEMONSTRATE that UNEQUALLED VALUE IS OFFERED.

2-Dome BLACK KID GLOVES, 6/11 to 13/6 pair.

3-Button BLACK KID GLOVES, 8/11 to 11/6 pair.

3-Button WHITE WASHING SUEDE KID GLOVES, 8/11 pair.

2-Dome BLACK KID GLOVES, White points, 8/6 to 13/6 pair.

LADIES' FABRIC GLOVES.

It is the details that count in a woman's dress, and Gloves form an important detail. We offer Fabric Gloves and Silk Gloves which are much favoured for Summer wear. We quote Two-dome Silk Gloves with double tips.

WHITE SILK, 3/6 to 8/11 pair.

WHITE SILK, with Black points. A Smart Glove. 4/11 to 6/6 pair.

BLACK SILK, with White points, 4/11 to 8/11 pair.

BRILLIANT DISPLAY OF BOXED HANDKERCHIEFS.

A Box of half-dozen daintily-embroidered Handkerchiefs always makes a gift that is acceptable to any lady.

In the Lace Department there is a big display of Handkerchiefs at varying prices. A personal inspection is desirable. Here are:—

IRISH LINEN HANDKERCHIEFS, embroidered initials, box of 6 for 5/11.

HEMSTITCHED LINEN HANDKERCHIEFS, soft bleach, 4/9, 5/11, to 14/ box of half-doz.

HEMSTITCHED LINEN HANDKERCHIEFS, embroidered corners, box of 6 assorted for 7/6.

FINE LINEN HANDKERCHIEFS, superior Swiss make, richly embroidered in new and artistic designs. 27/ box of half-doz.

SPECIAL SHOW OF CHRISTMAS GIFTS.

A section of the lower floor of the Fine Art Gallery has been set apart for a display of goods from various departments eminently suitable for Christmas Gifts. The display will well repay inspection, as it visualises at once many useful gifts previously seen only by visiting a number of departments.

FARMER'S,

SYDNEY,
1840-1918,
Seventy-eight Years.

The merry laughter of many children rings through the House of Farmer's.

IT IS "CHILDREN'S TIME" AS NEVER BEFORE THIS WEEK

—and "Children's Time" at Farmer's means the merriest time of the year—surprises at every turn—special entertainments in progress.

Is your home blessed by the possession of that most precious of all treasures—a little child? We know then that the appeal put forth by this Special Campaign "Children's Time" will find an answer in your hearts. It is aptly styled "Children's Time"—because during the last few days the children have responded joyfully to our preparations for their entertainment and instruction. Preparations, indeed, have been made on a large scale, for "Children's Time" is synonymous with "Christmas Time." It is a long day since the children had a "really truly Christmas Time," and never before have Farmer's seized the opportunity so whole-heartedly. This week bears witness.

If you value your Children's happiness and well-being properly, you will most surely bring them along this week to participate in "Children's Time" at Farmer's.

Briefly, here are a few of the special features that you must not miss.

FIRST.—There is "Mary's Christmas Party," at which Mlle. d'Alroy appears as Auntie Cis, and with two nieces entertains ten little guests.

SECOND.—There is Father Christmas, who may be found at "The Party" giving away Balloons.

THIRD.—"The Little Man's Domain" on the Fourth Floor, just opened, where little boys are fitted with good clothing.

FOURTH.—The Toy Department, a veritable wonderland where is every Toy new and of olden favour.

FIFTH.—"The Children's Barber Shop"—the new one to be opened on the Fourth Floor.

In fact, to make a definite list of the "Children's Time" attractions this week is well-nigh impossible. It requires a visit—and a long visit, too—starting early in the morning and staying until 4.15 for the Party.

LET US TELL YOU MORE ABOUT "THE PARTY"
AT 4.15.

MLLE. D'ALROY IS THERE

with two nieces entertaining ten little guests—and you.

Whether you be a mother of several little maids who want dainty dresses, or a little girl who loves to wear pretty dresses, or a tiny tot who is always ready for a party, you will find entertainment at "Mary's Christmas Party" to-day. Mlle. d'Alroy, as Auntie Cis, with her two nieces, not only entertains her ten little guests, but points out, with her inimitable good taste, just why the dresses, worn by herself and all present are the very dresses that Mothers are waiting to buy for their own little folk. Take the dresses worn in the first act of the playlet on the morning of the first day. Could you wish for more practical dresses or daintier designs?

FOR A LITTLE GIRL OF SIX YEARS, this is a most attractive frock, in Saxe Blue Sheer Linen; the tiny skirt is pleated all round, and the bodice has folds over the shoulder; collar, cuffs, and belt relieved with touches of sand colour. Size, 24 ins.
PRICE 23/6

AN ALL-WHITE COTTON GABARDINE MIDDY BLOUSE, worn over a navy kilted skirt, is designed for a girl of 11 years; the blouse has patch pockets and wide sailor collar opening to revers in front, and Navy lacing.
Middy blouse 12/9
Skirt 7/6

A SIMPLE GINGHAM FROCK, in Pink and Black cross pencil stripes, has pretty "T" shaped neck and novelty belt, trimmed self buttons.
To fit a little girl of 14 years. PRICE 27/6.
Maids' Salon, Third Floor, Pitt-street.

TICKETS FOR THE PARTY GIVEN FREE.

The Party takes place at 4.15 every afternoon until Friday. On Saturday the time for beginning is 11 o'clock. The party is held in the Display Theatre, First Floor, and no one—not even a princess, will be allowed to see it, unless armed with a ticket. Children up to fifteen only are allowed to go in, and they must be accompanied by parents or guardians. All adults must be accompanied by a child. Children in arms are not admitted. Tickets are given out free, and are obtainable in the TOY Department, First Floor, George-street.

YOU WILL ALSO MEET
FATHER CHRISTMAS

GIVING AWAY FREE BALLOONS, AT THE PARTY.

Father Christmas, the adored of young folks, will capture their hearts even more fully by his appearance at "Mary's Christmas Party," giving away balloons. What a gay sight they make. Balloons Red, Green and Yellow, Purple and Blue—every colour of the rainbow, give a further festive appearance to the scene. While you are looking with one eye at the playlet, be sure you keep the other wide open for Father Christmas and his free balloons.

SEE THE TOYS, TOO!

IN THE TOY DEPT., FIRST FLOOR.

Talk about "Alice's Adventures in Wonderland." Simply nothing compared with the "Adventures of Young Australia in Toyland" at Farmer's." A visit to this department will see many of the brightest dreams of childhood materialised. The inventor in embryo will find many inspiring toys upon which to work experiments. The tiny hostess will be able to hold a dollies' party every day with such tea-sets, tables, and chairs as here showing. The boy who loves active play—what boy doesn't?—will find quoits and scooters, a handsomobile and a hobby-horse, according to his taste and age. You could spend a whole week in the Toy Department and not come to the end of the wonders. Did someone mention prices? It is a parent, of course, who asks the cost of things, and surely these prices will not scare joy away:—

SPECIAL VALUES IN

LADIES' NIGHTDRESSES,

WITH MENTION OF A
GENEROUS REDUCTION IN PRICE.

A feature of the BALL AND WELCH BARGAIN EVENTS which occur from time to time is the outstanding fact that QUALITY is never sacrificed in order to quote a low price. Emphasis is laid on this to-day because the handsome nature of the reduction stated below might give rise to scepticism on this all-important point.

THIS SPECIAL LINE OF

features a high standard of QUALITY both in materials and finish. The range embodies a variety of pleasing styles, each Nightdress being beautifully hand-embroidered.

HOLIDAY DRESSES

FOR THE COST OF THE MATERIAL ONLY.
A FREE DEMONSTRATION of Bebarfalds' remarkable Dresscutting course will be given

THIS AFTERNOON AT 3 O'CLOCK IN OUR SHOWROOMS.

A ticket entitling you to a reserved seat may be had on application either personally or by telephone (City 8802).
You will be shown how to cut a fashionable sleeveless coatee and sports coat.
Bring the material along and we will cut it for you.
You still have time to come in and make for yourself some smart holiday frocks at the cost of the material only.
They will be original, smart, fashionable, and probably the best fitting dresses you have ever worn, with that excellent cut that indicates a smart and well-fitting dress.
We invite you to come in and examine the BEBARFALD DRESSCUTTING TEMPLETS as soon as possible.
We have a few vacancies for pupils in our Dresscutting Instruction Department.
Dresscutting is taught by Bebarfalds as an advertisement to encourage ladies to do their own dressmaking, and thus create a demand for the Bebarfald Sewing Machine. It does not matter what sewing machine you have we are prepared to teach you Dresscutting.
We recommend for your consideration the two-guinea course. Bebarfalds' Dresscutting course shows you how to do away with all measurements except 3.
It does away with fitting.
It enables you to make a garment after one lesson.
It makes the home dressmaker an expert cutter in 6 easy lessons.
The Bebarfald Automatic Sew-Easy Sewing Machines will also be demonstrated showing the backward and forward sewing and the self-threading needle.
It looks like and is a writing desk. 14 models, £7/10/ to £15/15/.
Call or write for free particulars.

FURNITURE,

SUITABLE FOR XMAS TIME BUYING.

AT NOCK AND KIRBY'S.

A prominent feature of this Furniture is its moderate price, and its universal usefulness.

In Quality also this Furniture strikes a predominant note.
It is GOOD in design.
It is GOOD in finish.

Add economy of cost to those excellent points, and you can understand why so many people are furnishing their home these days at

NOCK AND KIRBY'S
NOTED LOW PRICES.

SOLID OAK TABERETTE, the correct thing to stand a jardiniere on in home decoration, with greenery. Three-leg design, 7/6 each.

SOLID OAK TABERETTE, fumed finish, or the favourite dark mission colour. Cabriole legs. 9/6 each.

SOLID OAK PALM STAND, square shape top, cabriole legs, fumed finish, or mission colour. 10/9 each.

FUMED OAK PALM STANDS, very elegant designs, well finished, 7/11, 10/9, 11/6 each.

OAK TUBS, for table or palm stands, a strikingly attractive and original departure from the old-time jardiniere for pot plants, harmonises with the oak furniture of the room, stands on 3-ball feet, and is relieved by a copper hoop. Fumed finish, or dark mission colour. 21/6 each.

SOLID OAK HALL STAND, a really nice design, in fumed finish or dark mission colour, featuring the popular straight line idea, and well finished. Appointments include 4 hat and coat hooks, 2 umbrella trays, and diamond-shaped mirror.
PRICE .... 39/ each.

SOLID OAK BOOKSHELVES. There are four shelves on this, each 3ft wide, by a standard suitable depth, and the whole piece stands 4ft high. Yet the price is only 35/6.

"SLEEPY HOLLOW" EASY CHAIR, cleverly named, for let us warn you, he (or she) who yields to this chair's seductive restful charms will never want to leave it. The contour does it; the upholstering aids it; the adjustable back is in the conspiracy to capture you; the low price is your final undoing. The most restful of rest chairs, in oak, for £4/19/6.

A HAMMOCK! Why not have a Hammock for the verandah on the Xmas Holidays? See if these values won't tempt you—
Strong White Cord, 5/6, 7/3.
Red, White, Blue Cord, with Stretcher, 10/6 each.

CHILD'S SEAGRASS CHAIRS, on Rockers, with hollow seat, 12/6 each.

SEAGRASS STOOL.—Who would look at an ordinary stool after experiencing the restfulness of these? Not you, for sure. Strongly made, 16/ each.

SEAGRASS ARMCHAIRS, with comfortable hollow seat, 18/6 each.

LARGE SEAGRASS REST CHAIRS, several designs, but all with the very comfortable hollow seat and broad arms, 25/6, 28/6 each.

SEAGRASS ROCKING CHAIRS. Never a rocker like them in the world for real rest. Hollow seat and wide arm rests, 27/6, 29/6 each.

LOUNGES, in Seagrass or Split Cane. The shape and the material both spell REST in very large letters. Prices:

Split Cane	27/6.
Seagrass	30/6.

OUR GREAT OFFER

TO COMMEMORATE THE GREAT VICTORY, in an everlasting photograph of yourself, one to hand down to posterity,

Showing you as you were (as you are) at the time of the great victory.

To encourage this we are going right back to our pre-War prices, in that enormous value we used to offer every Christmas before the War.

Here it is.

A BEAUTIFUL ENLARGED PORTRAIT,
On a Plate Sunk Mount, Size 24in x 18in.
FRAMED, FRAMED, FRAMED.

Outside measure of frame about 30in x 21in, and present value of frame alone 17/6.

In a Beautiful Moulding, own choice, with 12 12 12 12 12 12
HIGH ART BROMIDE CABINET PHOTOGRAPHS
for 21/, only 21/, 21/, only 21/, only 21/.

This is our Great Victory offer, don't miss it.

Never in the History of Photography has there been such an offer—Never, never, never.

SEND US A PHOTOGRAPH.

The same offer as above, but with 6 Cabinets instead of 12, taken from a photograph, is 30/. This is extraordinary value. It is much more expensive to copy and enlarge from a photograph than it is from the sitter.

Over the Counter Prices: cut to the quick.

AN EXPLANATION.

During the War we had branch studios in the various military camps, which gave us such an increase in business as to overtax our very large resources, sometimes causing delay in the delivery of our orders.

We beg to thank our patrons who bore with us during that period, and to assure them a quick delivery now that our camp studios are closed and the military business over.

Please note that this wonderful offer can only be obtained at THE CROWN STUDIOS.

We take photos. in any weather, wet, cloudy, or sunshine. Studios open daily till 5.30 p.m.

Fridays we take photos. up to 9 p.m., as good as daylight photos., and the same price.

AND SOUND JUDGMENT.

Thousands of STECK Pianos have been sold in this country before and since the war commenced. "Ah!" you will exclaim, "I must see and hear the STECK. I prefer to invest my money in a piano that has an established reputation. I expect a piano to last me a great many years, and I cannot afford to experiment with makes that have not proved themselves in Australia." This is sound reasoning. Act on the impulse, and call and hear the STECK. Once inspected and heard, soon purchased.

THE BEALE PIANO.
MADE IN AUSTRALIA.

All the iron and brass work in the Beale Piano is cast in our own Annandale foundry. We buy only selected metal, that must work free and clear. And, as we "run" all casts ourselves, we can, and do, maintain a high standard. A rigid inspection of finished parts is the final guarantee which ensures us to stand solid back of every instrument sold.

We can arrange for anyone interested to inspect the factory.

The better musician you are the more you will appreciate the "Beale."

TERMS if desired; and full value allowed on your old instrument.

INDIAN SPRING-FRAME MOTOR CYCLES, WITH SIDECARS, are being supplied exclusively to the Company in Sydney, who have almost completed their arrangements for the WORLD'S FIRST AERIAL MAIL, from Sydney, through Australia to Port Darwin, thence to London, via Port Said.
Motor Cycles were the only means of conveying the party with the necessary equipment over the unexplored portion of this country, and INDIAN SPRING-FRAME MODELS were chosen exclusively.
These outfits are now almost ready for delivery, and we would be pleased to have you inspect.
The Success of the INDIANS in the 24 HOURS' TRIAL and THE NEW SYDNEY-MELBOURNE RECORD of 20 hours 56 minutes, further proves INDIAN LEADERSHIP.

BUICKS. SECOND-HAND.

To buy a second-hand car in the ordinary way, that is, to look for someone who has a car "cheap to sell," nearly always ends in a mistake.

We do not allow any of our Buick cars to go out in a second-hand condition—in the ordinary way—we deliver them in a condition so as to render them to give, as near as possible, the service as was intended they should give when new.

To do this—all used Buicks that come into our possession are surveyed by our Works Department, and parts worn are renewed, even if only slightly so. Being sole agents for Buicks we know exactly what is required, we know what to expect, consequently hardly anything can escape our notice.

Any intending purchaser can at any time see our works and examine for himself what this reconstruction really means.

You will probably find such a Buick is a better car than cheaper makes when new.

You will also learn why we can give a guarantee with each.

FINE ART SALE
at
THE COMMODIOUS AND CENTRAL PREMISES, of
MESSRS. TYRRELLS, LIMITED,
99 CASTLEREAGH-STREET, CITY,
on
TUESDAY, 10th DECEMBER, 11 A.M.

The Management of MESSRS. TYRRELL'S, LIMITED, have, at the request of many of their Patrons, decided to inaugurate a system of MONTHLY AUCTION SALES. It is proposed to adopt the arrangement prevailing in England and the United States, similar to Christies, Hodgson, and Co., and Sotheby's, Ltd. By this scheme Collections of Works of Art, Books, Coins, Medals, and Literary Property can be offered to the Public at auction prices. The first of these Monthly Auctions will be held at the spacious premises of MESSRS. TYRRELL'S, LIMITED, on Tuesday, December 10th, and the services of Mr. JAMES R. LAWSON have been secured to conduct the sale.

The want of an Auction Gallery of this description has long been felt in Sydney, and it will be the means of promoting and catering for the requirements of the Connoisseur and Collector. The Articles to be offered will be on view a week prior to the sale, and catalogues will be available on application. Amongst the items offered for sale will be several interesting Autograph Letters from the pens of Charles Dickens, John Stuart Mill, Gerald Massey, Eliza Cook, and George Meredith. Manuscript of Henry Lawson. First Editions of Rare Australian Books, Folios of Prints, Old China, Sheffield Plate, Old Silver, Brass Candlesticks, Old Pewter, Satinwood, Tea Caddy, Fine Jacobean Furniture, Georgian Chairs, Old Norwegian Chest, dated 1708, Cigar Case and Purse, used by Sir John and Lady Franklin, Bartolozzi Prints, and Bookplates, Pictures by Australian and other Artists, including Norman Lindsay, Thea Proctor, S. T. Gill, W. Spong, and others.

FRUIT EVAPORATING FACTORY.

FOR SALE, an up-to-date Fruit and Vegetable Drying Factory, situated in the 'Entrecasteaux Channel at Kettering, Tasmania, in the centre of one of the best Apple-growing districts in the Island.

All Fuel (wood) for the furnaces, and case timber cut within 2 miles of the factory, which is built on a beautiful position, overlooking the bay and within ¼ mile of the Kettering jetty, at which steamers to and from Hobart call every day.

The output from March 4 to July 20 this season (1918) was 20,000 bushels of apples and 200 tons of vegetables. There are four (4) drying kilns and complete labour-saving machinery of the best pattern. Electric light is installed throughout and an eight (8) horse-power Garret steam engine supplies power.

This is one of the best propositions of its kind which has been offered to the public, the position being most favourable for future prospects, is in full working order and ready to start operations at a week's notice, and is well worth inspection.

PRICE, £4000, which sum includes a stable for three horses, cart shed, case material, drying shed, and packing shed, area of land about 4 to 5 acres, which amply allows for any future extension.

A manager's good cottage of 4 rooms, kitchen, and all offices, including a septic tank, water is also laid on throughout the factory and cottage.

The next season (1919) commences about the end of February.

For further particulars apply to the Manager, Evaporating Coy., Kettering, Tasmania.

MEDICAL, CHEMICALS, ETC.

A FEW YEARS AGO a person had every reason to feel a horrible dread of the dentist, but that time is now to be forgotten. I (Dentist Philip Moses) am the fortunate possessor of a special appliance which enables me to drill and fill the most sensitive teeth without causing the patient the slightest sensation of pain. Is it any wonder that patients—after once experiencing the humane effects of this method come long distances to my surgeries? I EXTRACT TEETH WITHOUT YOU FEELING A THING, and it doesn't matter whether it is one tooth or all of your teeth, my special method is a positive success. Also in Filling, Crowning, or Bridging Teeth the most delicate and usually painful operations go steadily on while you can smile about it, if you avail yourself of my exclusive methods, which represent the latest and most approved ideas of dental science. Apart altogether from the wonderful freedom from pain which my methods have achieved is the quality of the work I do. The very best proof of its quality is the fact that I give you a WRITTEN GUARANTEE WITH FILLINGS, PLATE AND BRIDGE WORK, undertaking to make good any rare fault which may develop, even 5 years after the work is done. Consult me to-day, get the best work without pain, and without high charges. Open till 6 p.m. Daily (Sats. included.) Until 9 p.m. Fridays (Half-holiday Wednesday.) DENTIST PHILLIP MOSES, Orchard's Corner, George-street, opp. Railway.

DENTIST PHILLIP MOSES.

A BAD LEG.—If you are a sufferer and wish to heal it, why not try the genuine remedy known as MU-RO? This splendid preparation is made for the purpose of healing bad legs and wounds only, and not as a cure for everything under the sun. MU-RO is a Yorkshire remedy, and made in Queensland. MU-RO can be obtained from your grocer or chemist—small size 1/6, large size 2/6. It is sold by Lassetter's, Horderns', Mark Foy's, Pattinson and Co., Fisher and Co., Rose and Co., and in all the places of importance throughout Australia. Try MU-RO and be convinced.

CHAPTER XXVI.

TURNING THE SCREW.

Snow lost certainly no time in carrying out the instructions that Archenfield had given him. Being a lawyer, he was accustomed to all sorts of strange requests, and he asked no questions, knowing full well that Archenfield was not the man to embark upon any quixotic enterprise, and that he had the best of reasons for the request that he was making. As a matter of fact, Snow had the greatest admiration for Archenfield and his methods, and was only too anxious to cooperate with him in the heavy task that lay before him.

Therefore he got on to his client in London without delay, and at the end of a few minutes' conversation was in possession of instructions to act as he thought fit in connection with the racing stable and Flint's connection therewith. It was barely an hour later before Flint received a note informing him that his presence was desired in Oxley without delay on an important matter of business, and Snow chuckled to himself as he signed the letter in question.

"I think that ought to fetch him," he chuckled. "If he has been doing anything wrong, his conscience will begin to worry him, and he will be here presently."

In which Snow was absolutely right. Stephen Flint came along presently smoking his inevitable cigarette, and asked, none too pleasantly, what was wrong. He spoke in his usual insolent manner, but there was a droop in his eyes and an uneasy twitching about the corners of his lips that spoke eloquently enough of uneasiness of mind.

"Sit down, Flint," Snow said. "I don't suppose I shall keep you very long. The fact is, I have been on the telephone with Mr. Crosby, and he is a long way from being satisfied with the way you are carrying on over the stables. Of course, you know that Crosby has trusted you."

"I wouldn't have stayed a week if he hadn't," Flint said truculently. "If he isn't satisfied, he's only got to say so, and I'll clear out at once. It's no picnic, having a man like Crosby to deal with. There's always something or another, and he needn't talk. There isn't a trickier man on the turf, and you know that as well as I do."

"Is that so?" Snow asked drily. "I don't know anything about racing matters. But that isn't the point. Mr. Crosby tells me that he hasn't had an account for nearly a year, though he has asked you for one frequently. For your own protection you ought to have had those books audited. So Mr. Crosby is going to have it done himself. He has asked me to make the necessary arrangements, and I thought it only fair to tell you that I am sending an auditor in to-morrow. It is quite a matter of form, and should only take a couple of days at the outside. I think that is all, Flint."

Flint rose from his chair and lighted a fresh cigarette with a hand that trembled strangely. He was evidently trying to carry it all off with his usual air of insolent bravado, but it was a poor attempt, and not for a moment was Snow deceived by that uneasy swagger.

"If anybody suggested that there is anything wrong," said Flint threateningly.

"My dear sir, whoever suggested anything of the sort?" Snow asked. "After all, it is merely a business transaction, as you know, as well as I. I suppose there is no objection to the course I suggest?"

"Oh, dear, no," Flint replied. "I shall be quite ready for your men in the morning."

And, saying this, Flint swaggered out of the office and down the street, while Snow took down the telephone receiver and informed Archenfield what he had done. Archenfield's telephone was in his library, and, at the moment the bell rang he was poring over the exquisitely bound volume that contained the archives of the Three Fishers and reading the extracts therefrom with the aid of Chim Fang, who sat beside him.

"Well, that's all right, so far," he said. "That message was from Mr. Snow, the solicitor in Oxley. You already know that I consulted him with reference to learning something definite about that man Flint and his monetary affairs. It seems that he has seen Mr. Snow this morning, and from what I gather on the telephone the fellow is horribly frightened at the prospect of having his books examined. We must not lose sight of him, Chim Fang, and for the next day or two you will have to act as my watchdog. I must know of every move of his for the early future, and it will be up to you to keep him in sight as much as possible. I expect you will have to disguise yourself, but it won't be for the first time."

"You can leave that to me, master," Chim Fang said.

"I can leave that to you with every confidence," Archenfield replied. "I have done so in the past with the best possible results. We will look out your disguise presently. Meanwhile we have not wasted our time over this precious volume. So far as I can see from the record the Three Fishers appear to be in a bad way. The Chinese revolution, following on the Boxer riots, has apparently broken up the league. It was inevitable sooner or later, as civilisation spreads, and those countrymen of yours begin to learn something of the blessings of Western civilisation. It appears to me that, to all practical purposes, Chang Hen now represents the Three Fishers. The league is broken up and scattered, and apparently its leading spirits are all dead. From what I can make out Chang Hen is no longer a rich man, his power is broken, and it is only fair to assume that he is the man who has come here with the idea of frightening Robert Molyneux into disgorging his ill-gotten gains. That is only a theory, of course, but I believe there is something in it. We have now got to concentrate our energies entirely on proving Mrs. Molyneux's innocence, and I believe that we have made an important step to-day."

"I believe we have, master," Chim Fang said.

"Then we must begin to act. You must keep an eye upon Flint, and follow him as if you were his shadow. He will try, almost at once, to get in communication with Mrs. Molyneux's maid, of that I am certain. And I really suspect that Flint can tell us a good deal about Mr. Molyneux's death, if he will. If that death has anything to do with the Three Fishers. I am sure he can. But we must not pin ourselves down to one theory alone, because I have quite another view as to the real facts surrounding Robert Molyneux's death, and the more I think the matter over, the more convinced I am that I am right. I don't want to discuss that matter with you now, Chim Fang, because it is only a theory. The police would probably call it a wild one. They might say that only a dramatist could conceive it. All my successes have been built up upon ingenious theories and dramatic possibilities that some folk contend could only happen on the stage. But truth is stranger than fiction, Chim Fang, as you and I have very good reason to know."

"Shall I get on, master?" Chim Fang asked.

"By all means," Archenfield said. "Now, as to that disguise. I think a sort of Sunday suit, such as those Italian metal workers wear who come out of Lyddmouth holiday-making sometimes, would do very well. That and a scrubby black moustache, and a pair of gold rings in your ears will alter you out of all recognition. Yes, I think that's the scheme."

Chim Fang left the House by the River half an hour later, so successfully disguised that even Archenfield was delighted. He made his way along the road with a cigarette between his teeth in the direction of Oxley, looking for all the world like a prosperous workman bent on a holiday in the sunshine. He came at length to the low range of buildings with the grey house behind that formed the racing stable which was presided over by Stephen Flint. Then, with a pair of glasses in his hand, Chim Fang seated himself with the dogged patience of his race to wait for Flint. He sat there for over two hours, watching the various horses at exercise, he saw Flint from time to time clad in his breeches and gaiters going about his work, but Chim Fang never moved as he smoked one cigarette after another, with his eyes ever on the range of buildings before him. And his reward came presently when he saw Flint, beautifully attired in a suit of grey flannels, striking off across the fields in the direction of the woods that fringed the river. Chim Fang rose, and followed at a discreet distance until he too entered the wood, and wormed his way, like a snake, through the undergrowth until he reached the open space where Flint was standing by the side of a fallen tree evidently waiting for someone. That someone came presently, and Chim Fang's little dark eyes gleamed as he saw it was Mrs. Molyneux's maid, Judith Carr. She looked very neat and attractive, very quiet and ladylike, but there was a dash of red in her cheeks and a sparkle of anger in her eyes that did not bode much good for the peacefulness of the interview.

"Well," she said indifferently. "Here I am."

CRIMEAN VETERAN'S DEATH.

Mr. John Bates, who served in the Crimean war as a farrier in the same force as his father was a farrier-major, died at Lidcombe Hospital yesterday, aged 83 years. After the Crimean war Mr. Bates came to Sydney with his father, arriving about a fortnight after the wreck of the Dunbar. For many years he carried on business as a farrier in Parramatta-street, city. He is survived by two sons, Messrs. John and William Bates, and a daughter, Mrs. Middleton.

WOMEN'S COLUMN.

THE SUFFERINGS OF FRANCE.

A teacher in France recently asked one of his professors "What of our children? Are we to tell them of the horrors we have suffered at the hands of the Germans, or will we make them hate war, and thereby evade it in the future? The professor replied, "Tell them. It is because we didn't know the truth that these things have happened."

The professor's reply is endorsed by Mdlle. Soubeiran. In her lecture given at St. James' Hall last night, one felt the undercurrent of suffering—suffering that had been caused by what she had seen and heard during her recent stay in France, where she was acting as administrator of the France's Day Fund. Mdlle. Soubeiran thinks of the future generations, and it is her desire that they should not be kept in ignorance of the treatment that was meted out to the women and children in France.

The story of the banishment of the people in northern France has no parallel. The Germans exercised fiendish, studied methods of brutality. They hit at the things that were deepest in the lives of each individual, as well as destroying civil organisation. Their effort to break up home life, which is acknowledged to be the root of every nation, was successful in thousands of cases, and to-day in France there are children who have been separated from their parents for over four years, and who have no knowledge of whom or what they are. The enforced wandering of the refugees resulted in the mental and physical breakdown of countless men, women, and children, and when they eventually found sanctuary nothing could be done for them except to provide them with a certain amount of comfort until they were released by death. The children in every instance suffered intolerably, and it is the thought of these innocent victims that stirs the deepest sympathy in our hearts.

It was to sufferers such as these that the France's Day Fund was devoted. The money was not spent in establishing new societies, but in assisting those which were already in operation and which had proved their worth. The canteen for destitute women in Paris was one of these. "The people of New South Wales were the hosts at this canteen for a fortnight," said Mdlle., "and part of your money paid the expenses for that period." The Society for the Relief of Mothers and Infants was another organisation that benefited by the fund. More than 100,000 women have been assisted by this society, which is one that gives prenatal care and assists the mothers after their children are born. The clothing sent from Australia has been of the greatest assistance to this home.

Mdlle. Soubeiran commented upon the attitude now being adopted by the German women and their appeals for a modification of the terms of the armistice. "The women of France do not forget that when, as a result of a large meeting, they sent a request to the women of Germany, and asked if they approved of the cruelties they were suffering, the German women replied, 'The men who are doing these things are as dear to us as any others.' Now these same women," said the speaker, "are moaning and appealing for pity."

This lesson applies to the women of Australia also. We in our turn should not forget.

After the lecture, at which Lady Cullen presided, pictures lent by the French Government were screened and described by Mr. Neville Mayman.

RED CROSS OLD LINEN DEPOT.

Mrs. Mackinnon and Major Edginton were the speakers at a meeting held in the Red Cross Old Linen Depot, Town Hall, yesterday afternoon. There is a great shortage of old linen at the present time, and the meeting was called for the purpose of stimulating interest in this most important branch of Red Cross work. Mrs. Mackinnon gave a brief resume of the work that women had already done for the Red Cross, and said she considered that this depot particularly would be needed for long after peace had been declared. The great influx of wounded men, and men who will be more or less invalids for the rest of their lives, will tax the resources of the military and civil hospitals for a very long time to come, and the Old Linen Depot will be called upon to provide certain necessities for these cases. Mrs. Mackinnon also commented upon the relative position of men and women in connection with the administration of certain affairs affecting the future well-being of our soldiers. "Women have more foresight and economy than men," said the speaker, "and this war has proved it. It was the foresight of a woman that was responsible for the most important branches of Red Cross work to-day. I refer to Mrs. Langer Owen. Mrs. Owen was responsible for the institution of the Red Cross Information Bureau, the Hospital Handicrafts, and the Convalescent Homes, and all three of these have been of incestimable benefit to the country. Although we have had wounded soldiers returning to Australia for years, the Federal Ministry has done nothing in the way of providing vocational training for them, and although the Red Cross has done it only on a small scale it has been the means of giving the men an interest in life and in providing certain of them with means of livelihood. If women had been appointed as cooks and in certain other domestic capacities in the camps in Australia the same as they were in other parts of the world it would have meant the saving of thousands of pounds to the military authorities. Yet, despite, the achievements of women in all branches of war work, they are being given no opportunity of serving officially on any of the committees which deal with the future welfare of the soldiers." Mrs. Mackinnon commented on the appointment of three men to the Board of Economy, and suggested that there were certain women, whom she named, who had proved themselves efficient economists and administrators, and who were eminently suitable for appointments of this nature.

Major Edginton, who recently returned to Sydney after serving as Red Cross Commissioner abroad, gave an interesting address concerning the methods employed in administering the Red Cross supplies.

SIGNS AND SYMBOLS.

For some months now the house badge has been with us, and during that time not many Australian homes have resisted its appeal. We have encouraged the "Blue Federal" to float; in paper folds, on our doors, in sympathy with the needs of the Soldiers' Club; we have obeyed the recommendation to "be a brick," and we have transformed our front windows into the semblance of real estate agencies in the interests of Homes Day. Many have answered to the pictorial appeal of Dependents' Day, and the honour flag is emblazoned in pride on hundreds of homes where the inmates have responded to the call of the war loan. But none of these symbols had quite the significance of the simple Geneva Cross with which so many thousands decorated their windows and doors in April last, before the great appeal of Red Cross Day. This was the first appearance of the house badge amongst us, and that, perhaps, accounted partly for the enthusiasm with which it was received. But there were other causes, too; and to many citizens, Christians as well as Jews, it brought vividly to mind the story of the first Passover, when there were "signs and wonders in the land of Ham," and the Hebrews were told to mark their doorposts with a crimson stain as a sign to the Angel of Death that he was to "pass over" and leave that house unscathed. And now we have the badge of the Crimson Star, its six points indicating the Comforts Funds of the six Australian States. The cheery face of one "digger" is portrayed in the centre to show that he is the inspiration and heart of the big War Chest Day appeal. It is an appeal that will not be made in vain, for though our soldiers may have ceased to be diggers, and trench life soon be a thing of the past, it will be many months before we dare cease to pay instalments on our lifelong debt to them. It cannot surely be all a coincidence that the Red Cross badge should have been brought to our notice at Easter time, and that now, when the crimson star has risen, the season should be at hand when wise men each year hail the appearance of the star in the East.

E.B.

FROM NEAR AND FAR.

A re-union of the 1st and 53rd Battalions will be held at the Soldiers' Club, George-street, next Friday, December 6, at 7.30 p.m. Chaplain-major McKenzie (Fighting Mac.) has promised to give an address. Mr. Ad Cree and Miss Cree, with several other artists, will contribute to the musical part of the programme. Men of the 1st and 53rd Battalion are all welcome, and permission has been granted for uniforms to be worn.

Mr. Alfred Lee will be very much obliged by members of the Sewing Guild coming on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays to help to machine-sew the pyjamas needed at once by the Red Cross.

Miss F. Holland's stall, situated King and Castlereagh streets, on War Chest Day, realised £78. Mesdames Willey, Bird, Wilson, Teague, Hunter, Janson-Cregan, Drinkwater, Jackson, and Miss Everest Hilliard were the principal Red Cross Workers.

The "Penny Trail," organised by the North Shore Nurses' Home on War Chest Day, realised £30. The trail reached from the home in Ridge-street to Milson's Point, and was marked out in various sections equivalent to certain amounts of money. Sweets were also sold by the workers, and it is expected that about £35 will accrue from the day's effort.

WALLS AND CEILINGS THAT WON'T CRACK AND FALL.
Modern housekeeping was not in the mind of the originator of lath and plaster for walls and ceilings. They are out of harmony with modern furnishing ideas, and eventually become a source of worry and expense by cracking and falling.
The modern method of building walls and ceilings is to use "Gypsboard" Monolithic Plaster Sheets. They enable you to erect artistic panelled walls and beamed ceilings in half the time that it takes to build them other ways. They are adaptable to all furnishing schemes, never crack or fall, are permanent, fire-retarding, insect-proof, and hygienic. Write for Illustrated Booklet "P" and Sample to the manufacturers.

CO-OPERATION.

SUCCESS OF FARMERS' SOCIETY.

The erection of new premises by the Coastal Farmers' Co-operative Society, Ltd., was celebrated yesterday by a luncheon at which the State Governor, Sir Walter Davidson, was present. The chairman of directors, Mr. W. D. Warden, M.L.C., presided. There was a large attendance, some 200 gentlemen being present, including the Chief Secretary, Mr. G. W. Fuller, Messrs. J. Perry, W. Morton, D. A. Zuill, G. Nesbitt, Ms.L.A., C. E. D. Meares, general manager, and representatives of country co-operative butter factories and kindred co-operative companies. The main theme of the speeches was the extraordinary success of the society and the value of co-operation to the producer and consumer alike. The society started in 1900 as the outcome of the energies of the present general manager, with four shareholders, Messr. George Tate, jun., 25 shares; Geo. Couch, 50 shares; W. J. Hindmarsh, 25 shares; and William Thompson 10 shares. Two of these gentlemen, Messrs. Couch and Hindmarsh, were present yesterday. The turnover of the company in its first year was £17,000; last years its turnover was £2,750,000; and this year it is expected to be £3,000,000. The new premises, which are situated close to the Central Railway Station, facing Valentine, Quay, and Thomas streets, are a substantial evidence of the success of co-operation. They consist of three floors, with a total floor space of 55,320 square feet, and a total frontage of 314½ feet. In the different speeches made emphasis was laid upon the all important part played by Mr. Meares in building up the society. Reference was made also to the presence of four returned soldiers (employees of the society), and the company, on the call of Mr. Fuller, honoured them with three enthusiastic cheers.

In responding to the toast of his health, the Governor, after complimenting them upon the growth of the company, said that in a co-operative business a great deal depended upon the management, and in their case they had the same manager that they started with. It was a finer thing to have been manager of the Co-operative Coastal Farmers' Society for 18 years than to have pocketed the profits of a private speculation. He thought that and the world thought it. (Applause.) As a pupil of Harold Rogers he was reared to understand that the co-operative principle should be the guide amongst all free nations. No one could do without butter. The whole world was going to have the conditions of labour greatly ameliorated. There would be higher wages and more money to spend on food, and the first food men sought was butter. Some 10 years ago, before he was acquainted with their resources, he thought that a great part of the world would have to seek vegetable butter that was mainly based upon copra. He then considered that for those who could not get butter the heaviest and richest vegetable oil would be the best substitute. The most important product of the world in vegetable fat was copra. He had seen imitations of copra oil, but they were not much good. As butter producers they stood at the top of the tree, despite the Danish butter, which often was not Danish butter—(laughter)—as the Danes sold a great deal more than they could produce. Much of it came from Siberia. In conclusion, the Governor said whatever might happen to the rest of the world, he did not think there would be any convulsions in these countries. Accustomed to broadening down from precedent to precedent there was no need for any cataclysm, as might be necessary in some countries. Co-operation was the best solution of the difficulties that confronted the various classes of the community.

In proposing the toast of the Federal and State Parliaments, Mr. C. F. Williams (Primary Producers' Union) expressed appreciation of the formation of a country party in the State Parliament for the purpose of helping the Government in legislating in the interests of the primary producers. Messrs. John Perry and W. A. Zuill, in responding to the toast, expressed their appreciation of and sympathy with the co-operative movement, and protested against legislative interference with the primary producer.

The Chief Secretary (Mr. G. W. Fuller), in proposing the toast of the "Co-operative Movement," reviewed its early history and beginning in Illawarra, and referred to the late Mr. Joseph Weston and Mr. W. L. Dymock as prime movers in the matter. The movement had spread to Victoria, New Zealand, and Queensland, and had made dairying one of their great national industries. The maize, potato, and fruit producers were following suit. There was, perhaps, more necessity for co-operation amongst the fruitgrowers than amongst any other body of producers, and he was glad to know they had come in under the wing of the Coastal Farmers' Society. They could only meet their great war debt by increased primary production, and the co-operative system was the proper system to undertake to help meet the financial situation that had been created by the war. This had been recognised in the old country when the Government, after the experience of its value during the past four years, had decided to help the system of co-operation. He repudiated the feeling that existed in some quarters that the co-operators were out to benefit themselves at the expense of their fellow-citizens, and maintained that it had been proved that they were out to benefit both the producer and the consumer. He quoted the tribute paid to co-operation by a leading authority, the Market Director of California, to show the consumer eventually got his share of the reduced cost secured by co-operation and the elimination of the speculator in foodstuffs. No greater compliment could have been paid the co-operative movement as a business concern than the election of Mr. Meares by the business men of Sydney as the chairman of the Chamber of Commerce.

In supporting the toast, Mr. Mark Morton appealed for the removal of the price fixed for bran, as otherwise the milk supply to the city would drop. A higher price being fixed in Brisbane, the millers naturally sent their product to that centre. Mr. George Nesbitt opposed all price-fixing, and urged that the producers should not be interfered with.

The toast was responded to by Messrs. John M'Gregor (chairman North Coast Company), P. J. Daley, and C. R. Garnham.

The toast of "Our hosts—the C.F.S.," was proposed by Mr. Arthur Knox (manager Berrima District Farm and Dairy Co.), and supported by Messrs. W. J. Hindmarsh and A. Frazer. Mr. Hindmarsh complained of the multiplication of dairy inspectors. The chairman, in responding, said he did not see why the society should not make as great progress in the future as in the past.

Mr. Meares, who met with an enthusiastic reception, said he would not be human if he was not moved by the high tribute that had been paid to him. One man could have done little in such a huge movement if the farmers had not been anxious for success and had not stood loyally behind him. Since the beginning of the movement he had seen thousands of farmers lifted into comfort by co-operation. Every five years the turnover of the company had doubled. In the first five years the proportionate relation of capital to turnover was 1.47 per cent. The same applied in the two following periods, and for the last three years it had been 1.53 per cent. The producers were responding most nobly to a recent appeal to increase the capital. The poultry farmers, for whom he had set aside 2000 shares, had taken up 6800 shares. (Applause.) Their ideal had always been to hold the balance equitably between the producer and the consumer, and they recognised that the consumer had first call, not only in quantity, but in quality. It was an opportune time to extend the hand of fellowship to the Berrima Company, and he would point out to Mr. Knox the great advantage that would accrue if the two companies could work together under the same roof in fighting against the other fellow. (Applause.)

GRAZIERS' ASSOCIATION.

At the usual fortnightly meeting of the executive committee of the Graziers' Association of New South Wales a report was received of a conference of meat exporters held in Melbourne, and it was decided to represent the view of the association that the graziers of the Commonwealth should be adequately represented at any future conferences which may be held with a view to determining the export price of meat.

A suggestion was made by a member relative to the settlement of returned soldiers on the land, and it was decided to communicate with the Repatriation Committee seeking particulars of its land settlement policy, and offering to do all possible to help in this necessary work. The question will also be referred to the council at its meeting on the 11th inst. for consideration.

A report was furnished of applications received for shares in the Graziers's Co-operative Shearing Co., Ltd., and it was decided to bring the formation of the company prominently before members to enable the flotation to be completed, if possible, before the end of the year.

SOLDIER SETTLEMENT.

YOUNG.—The local land board to-day decided to recommend the acceptance by the Crown of a provisional agreement between the district surveyor and D. B. Frater for the purchase of 1250 acres of orchard and mixed farming land at Wombat for soldier settlement at £7 per acre, delivery to be given next week.

LAW REPORT.

NO. 1 JURY COURT.

(Before Mr. Justice Pring.)

An action between George Watkin Wynne and Hugh Donald M'Intosh was postponed until next nisi prius sittings.

NO. 2 JURY COURT.

(Before Mr. Justice Sly and Jury.)

ACTION FOR BREACH OF PROMISE.

Davies v Morris.

The plaintiff in this action, Muriel Davies, a dressmaker, of Palmer-street, Sydney, sued Richard James Morris, bookmaker's clerk, claiming £500 compensation for alleged breach of promise of marriage. Plaintiff stated that the defendant, who was a married man, represented himself as single, and in the course of a courtship extending over three years deceived her on a promise of marriage. The defendant ultimately secured a divorce, but declined to fulfil his promise to the plaintiff in an honourable manner. The defendant denied all the plaintiff's allegations. Mr. Maxwell (instructed by Mr. E. R. Abigail) appeared for the plaintiff; and Mr. Bayly Macarthur (instructed by Messrs. Stephen, Jaques, and Stephen) for the defendant.

The jury returned a verdict for the plaintiff for £100.

MOTOR AND CYCLE COLLISION.

Wright v Berkman.

Mrs. Mary Manning Wright, the plaintiff in this action, sued to recover from William Berkman, pawnbroker, of Newtown, £500 compensation for injuries received as a result of a collision between a motor cycle with sidecar, on which plaintiff was a passenger, and a motor car owned by the defendant. The accident occurred on the afternoon of Saturday, September 28, at the corner of Abercrombie-street and Cleveland-street. The motor cycle was being driven by the plaintiff's son along Abercrombie-street towards Newtown, when the motor car which defendant's servant was driving came at a fast pace down Cleveland-street in the direction of Redfern. Plaintiff's witnesses alleged that the defendant was on the wrong side of the road, and that he neglected to slow down when approaching the intersection. As a result of the collision plaintiff suffered a broken wrist, was for five weeks in a private hospital, and was now much impaired in health. The defendant denied negligence. Mr. Boyce (instructed by Messrs. T. J. Dickson and Dickson) appeared for the plaintiff; and Mr. Alec Thomson (instructed by Mr. P. V. M'Culloch) for the defendant.

The case is part heard.

IN CHAMBERS.

(Before Mr. Justice Sly.)

MANLY ALDERMEN'S DISQUALIFICATION.

Smith v Railton and others.

An appeal was brought, on a case stated, on behalf of George Alfred Railton, Francis William Heaton, Adam Ogilvie, Arthur Thomas Kevile, Ellison Wentworth Quirk, George Dumbrell, and James Kirk Purves, formerly aldermen of the Municipality of Manly, against a decision of Mr. C. N. Payten, S.M., convicting the appellants of a charge of acting in the office of aldermen while disqualified under the provisions of Section 70 of the Local Government Act of 1906 on the ground that they were at the time of so acting directly or indirectly interested in a certain contract and agreement between the Manly Council and the Port Jackson and Manly Steamship Company, relating to the carriage of passengers and cargo from and to Manly for reward. The proceedings in the lower court have been fully reported. The magistrate held that as the aldermen used free passes on the ferries of the annual value of £4/10/, forwarded to them by the company, they were guilty of the offence charged, and fined each of them £50 with costs, in default, four months' imprisonment with hard labour. The conviction was now challenged as being erroneous in law. Counsel for the appellants stated that this disqualification led to the suspension of the work of the whole council. There were no means of appointing aldermen in the place of the appellants or of procuring a new council until the expiration of the period for which they had been elected originally, the consequence being that Manly had been without a council since September. Mr. Campbell, K.C., and Mr. Chubb (instructed by Mr. R. T. Smyth King) appeared for the appellants, and Mr. Watt and Mr. Ferguson (instructed by Mr. A. J. Macaulay) for the respondent Francis Edward Barton Smith, president of the Manly and District Progress Association, at whose instance the prosecution was brought.

The matter is part heard.

IN EQUITY.

(Before Mr. Justice Harvey.)

NIELSEN PARK RESUMPTION.

Watson's Bay Ferry Company v Whitfeld.

The trustees of the estate of the late William Charles Wentworth in 1908 agreed to sell 1 rood 9 perches of land at Vaucluse to the old Watson's Bay and South Shore Ferry Company. The land was to be used for the purposes of a wharf. A few years later a new limited company took over the assets and liabilities of the old company. In 1912 the Government resumed about 40 acres of land at Bottle and Glass Point, Shark Beach, and Shark Point, and also the allotment of 1r. 9p mentioned, for a public recreation ground, now known as Nielsen Park. After certain negotiations between the Government and the Watson's Bay Company as to the resumption of the said allotment, the parties arrived at an agreement by which it was settled that the Minister for Lands should revoke the dedication so far as it affected the allotment, and offer this particulars land for sale by auction. The sale was advertised for March 28, 1917, the land being described as lot 5 of the Bottle and Glass subdivision at Vaucluse. Before that date the Government told the company that the sale would not go on. The company thereupon instituted proceedings against the Government (George Whitfeld being the nominal defendant), and the hearing of the suit came before the Equity Court yesterday. The company's claim against the Crown was for alleged breach of agreement. The plaintiff company asked the Court to declare that the agreement in question should be specifically performed by the Crown, and also for an inquiry as to what damages the company was entitled to.

The defendant contended that the agreement stipulated that if Parliament did not assent to the Minister for Lands's proposal, or, if for any reason, the Minister should not be able to carry out the agreement, then the agreement should be void, and its annulment should not prejudice the rights of the parties with respect to the resumption. In any case, it was urged that the company was not entitled to compensation for loss, if any, through the agreement not having been carried out. It was further pleaded on behalf of the Crown that, as the Minister for Lands was unable to carry out the agreement, it, therefore, under one of its terms, fell through, and the company was relegated to its former rights for compensation under the resumption.

Mr. A. Knox, K.C., and Dr. Waddell, instructed by Messrs. Fisher and Macansh, appeared for the plaintiff, and Mr. F. J. Bethune and Mr. F. R. Jordan, instructed by the Crown Solicitor, for the defendant.

His Honor reserved judgment.

QUARTER SESSIONS.

(Before Judge Scholes.)

Florence Campbell, a middle-aged woman, was charged with having fraudulently misappropriated moneys which she had received on behalf of Mrs. Moreton, of North Sydney, for the sale of some furniture. The allegations were denied. The jury, without leaving the box or hearing evidence for the defence, gave a verdict of not guilty and the accused was discharged. Mr. Rogers (instructed by Messrs. Sly and Russell) was for the defence.

Josephine Knyvett was found not guilty of maliciously injuring a pianoforte, the property of May Egan, and was discharged.

Arthur Francis Wright was tried on a charge of maliciously wounding Patrick Monaghan with intent to do grievous bodily harm. The case for the prosecution was that at 2 o'clock on the morning of October 3, 1917, Wright, who is a milkman, shot at Monaghan, severely injuring his thigh. The defence was that Wright had been losing milk and butter by thefts and he fired a shot at someone whom he thought was taking milk and running away, not intending to hit the individual. The jury returned a verdict of not guilty and Wright was discharged. Mr. E. R. Abigail appeared for the defence.

QUARTER SESSIONS.

Alfred Coleman, inflicting grievous bodily harm; Bertram Lovegrove, by negligence, causing bodily harm; Joseph Amos Silver, breaking and entering and stealing; John Robert Campbell, false pretences.

THE JUDD CASE.

At Darlinghurst Criminal Sessions yesterday Ernest Edward Judd, a member of the Sydney Labour Council, was presented for trial, before Mr. Justice Ferguson and a jury, on separate counts of having in May, 1918, made statements which were likely to prejudice recruiting.

Mr. Lamb, K.C., and Mr. Bathgate (instructed by the Commonwealth Crown Solicitor) appeared for the Crown to prosecute; and Mr. Windeyer, K.C., Mr. Mack, K.C., and Mr. Watkins (instructed by Mr. A. C. Roberts) appeared for Judd.

Judd pleaded not guilty to the charges.

Mr. Lamb, in opening the Crown case, explained events which led up to the recruiting conference called by the Governor-General in April last. Its object was to devise means to stimulate recruiting, while the war had reached a critical stage when everything possible should be done to defeat German militarism. On May 9 a meeting of the Trades and Labour Council was held to consider a resolution which had been passed at the Governor-General's conference inviting all bodies to pledge themselves to obtain the reinforcements then necessary. Mr. Morby (president of the Labour Council), who was present at the Melbourne conference, moved,—"That the Trades and Labour Council endorses the resolution." Judd moved an amendment in opposition to the resolution, in which he misrepresented the cause of the war, the reasons for its continuance, and the people's attitude towards it. He also urged that they should refuse to take any further part in any recruiting campaign.

Mr. Lamb also explained what took place at subsequent meetings of the Labour Council, and read extracts from addresses which, it was alleged, had been delivered by Judd in speaking to his amendment and in the Domain, where there was hostility and dissension by soldiers.

Following are some of the statements complained of which were grouped in a long indictment:—

"That the greatest service we can render the men at the front, their loved ones at home, and humanity in general, is to do all in our power to stop the war."

"As soon as the Russian working class realised how it was being used by the capitalist class one of the finest things in history occurred—two regiments jumped out of the trenches and went home. . . . If I believed, as some men believe, that this war is a war for justice, liberty, and democracy, I would get into khaki and have a bit of it. But I don't believe it is. . . . Most of the soldiers whom I have seen who want so much fight are the men who got no further than Cairo."

Mr. Windeyer claimed that discussion had been invited on the resolutions passed at the Governor-General's conference and immunity from prosecution had been promised which amounted to an Act of State.

In asking that the Hansard report of the conference should be accepted he (Mr. Windeyer) argued that views just as violent and as extreme as those complained of in the case of Judd were expressed at the conference under promise of immunity from prosecution. The bodies which were represented at the conference were not bound by the resolutions. The object was that the bodies represented at the conference should go back to their organisations for approval or disapproval of the resolutions. It was not anticipated nor was it to be regarded as only legal to speak in favour of them. Judd felt that all war was wrong, and expressed himself in his own particular way.

The Court then adjourned till 10 a.m. on the following day.

"PASSING CRAFT."

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD.

Sir,—There being some slight misunderstanding in regard to the authenticity of the paragraph referring to "automatic introductions" in the first of the "Passing Craft" articles appearing recently, in this paper, will you grant me space to explain that "Passing Craft" was written two years ago and mislaid. This paragraph about introductions was rewritten and incorporated in a short article published under a nom de plume in the Woman's Page of the "Herald" at that time. Other writers may have dealt with the idea since, but I would like to state that, as far as I am concerned, it originated in the discussions that took place on this voyage.

I am, etc.,

In our heart your memory lingers,
Sweetly, tender, fond, and true,
And there is not a day, dear boy,
That we do not think of you.
Out in a lonely graveyard,
Beneath a lonely sod,
There lies our darling son and brother,
Resting in peace with God.
Our memory often wanders,
As twilight shadows fall,
Back to the days of happiness—
Days beyond recall.
And a vision comes before us,
So fond, so pure, and sweet,
Of one we love so dearly
Whose heart has ceased to beat.
No one knows how much we miss you,
Friends may think the wound has healed,
But they cannot see the sorrow
Deep in our hearts concealed.

Inserted by his loving mother, father, sisters, and brother-in-law, and little nephew, Ted.

Upton and Co., Ltd.	£50

The sum of £50 entitles the giver to Life Governorship of the Sydney Hospital, and as the Institution is sadly in need of Funds, and the claims upon its services are to-day greater than at any period of its history, the Hon. Treasurer hopes that the generous example set by these public spirited Donors will be extensively emulated.

A. G. GOLLEDGE,
Acting Secretary,

RETURN THANKS.

Mr. and Mrs. A. CHARTES, of Hurstville, wish to return THANKS to their relatives and friends for kindness and sympathy in their recent sad bereavement in the loss of their little daughter, Alma Hazel.

Mrs. MORRISON and FAMILY desire to tender heartfelt THANKS to friends, relations, and firm Sydney Ferry Company for their kind sympathy and floral tributes in the sad loss of her dear husband and their father, E. Morrison.

Mr. A. L. LAMBERT and FAMILY, of Cumberland-road, Auburn, desire to return sincere THANKS to relatives and friends for floral tributes and for their kind messages of sympathy by letters and cards in the sad loss of his beloved wife and their mother, also to Nurse Shipley for her unremitting attention and kindness to his dear wife and their mother in her late illness.

The SISTERS and BROTHERS of the late MARY CHAMBERS, of Argyle-street, Parramatta, wish to return THANKS to relatives and friends for kind sympathy in their recent sad bereavement.

Mrs. MARY ANN TANDY, Mr. and Mrs. E. SLADE, Mr. and Mrs. T. TANDY, Mr. and Mrs. F. SEDGMEN, and Mr. PHIL and Misses ROSE and LILY TANDY desire to return their sincere THANKS to their many kind friends and workmates, also to blacksmiths and boilermakers of the C.S.R. Company, for letters, cards, and floral tributes in their recent sad bereavement.

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 4, 1918.

PRESIDENT WILSON'S ADDRESS.

President Wilson has nobly seized a great opportunity in an address, to Congress, which is both a panegyric on the past achievements of his countrymen and a review of their prospects for the future. The speech will leave a great deal of curiosity unsatisfied. The President does not deal, except inferentially, with those of his peace proposals which have been adversely commented on by his opponents at home and his critics abroad. But it will satisfy both the Allied and the American peoples that the President's influence at the Peace Conference will be used in a spirit of generosity and of justice. America will be of the same mind as Great Britain in declining to allow the people of France and Belgium to be handicapped in the competition of the future by their sufferings during the war. America has means of sending help which are denied to the other belligerents. She has suffered less from the strain of the war, by the absence of her own soldiers, and by the presence of the enemy. She has become a great creditor while the wealth of the Allies has been spent in the defence of their homes. Great as her expenditure has been she can afford to be generous, while her influence will enable her to induce others by their policy to treat the severest sufferers with special consideration. The President makes a just reference to the benefit which the American army derived from the experience of others. The French army taught the conditions of modern warfare as the covering troops of the alliance. The British army learned them at the cost of the flower of its manhood. The American army was formed at a time when all experience had been sifted and could apply its lessons in comparative safety. But this advantage does not detract in the least from the splendid service which the United States by its civilian and military organisation rendered to the cause of the Allies. Their troops came to France in their greatest numbers when help was most urgently needed. They fought with distinction in the battle which was the turning point of the last campaign. President Wilson gives us the figures of the greatest feat of military and naval organisation performed during the war. But numbers cannot represent the value of this joint American and British action. It was rendered in a spirit of the most unselfish generosity and of the most exacting efficiency. General Pershing's request that his troops might be brigaded with the British and French came at a time when it was most necessary to convince the enemy that the Allies would stand together to the end. The battles of Chateau Thierry and St. Mihiel deprived the German of his last illusions. He knew then that the Americans would fight with the invincible courage of free men, and that they had assimilated the lessons of the war with the astonishing quickness of their race. Henceforward the end of the war was certain. The Germans saw their own armies decreasing in numbers and spirit while there were pouring in against them thousands of thousands of picked men in the very prime of life, well equipped and determined to show that the army of the United States was worthy to stand beside the veterans of France and Great Britain.

President Wilson's distinction between military and civilian war service is one that has been universally acknowledged. No sacrifice of labour or money can compare with that of a man who has spent one night in the trenches. No distinction can equal that of the soldier who has fought at Pozieres or Bullecourt or Chateau Thierry or St. Mihiel. But it is to be remembered that the services of the civilian organisation of America were no less indispensable than those of the army. Before the American army had begun to arrive the Allies were threatened with a crisis in their food supplies which might have seriously impaired their capacity for resistance. They were rescued by the genius of Mr. Hoover supported by the sacrifices of the American people and by their own almost unsuspected reserves of patriotism. President Wilson's praise of his fellow-citizens will be echoed by all who directly or indirectly have profited by their enthusiasm. It was an outburst which nations less obtuse than the enemy could scarcely anticipate. It was inspired partly by the determination that America must be victorious in any enterprise to which she had put her hand, but mainly by a quick realisation of the issues at stake. The watchwords of American ceremonies have kept before the people the nature of ideals which in other English-speaking countries have become conventional. At the crisis of 1917, when Russia had failed and the German Empire seemed firmly established, the American people quickly saw the danger of their ideals being crushed out of the civilised world. Unquestionably their conviction was both deepened and hastened by the clear and eloquent reasoning of their President. In speech after speech he has kept his fellow-citizens familiar with a danger which the European peoples have learned to know by the invasion of their soil, by the destruction of their towns, and the murder of their sailors. President Wilson has been reproached with a tendency towards dictatorship and by a refusal to take the best men in the country into his counsels. It is true that the heads of the new organisation have been changed from time to time and that some mistakes have been made. But the results speak for themselves. American methods have been revolutionised, and in only one of the new State departments has there been a pronounced failure. The President has unfolded a plan of reconstruction which will test the ability of American business men when the restraints of the war are ended. His share in their success would be of the utmost importance even if it were limited to nominating or suggesting their directors. But in the immediate future there can be nothing so important as to prevent the President from attending the Peace Congress. He tells us that the Ministers of the Allied countries have asked him to be present. There is certainly no section of opinion among their constituents which would not regard his absence as a misfortune. The Peace Conference will be concerned with the application of the fourteen points which have been accepted from him. It will formulate conditions for the future of the world, the observation of which will in many cases be supervised by the American navy. It is of immense importance that when the Peace Congress is over the American people shall be satisfied that their policy has been interpreted with authority and that President Wilson shall have become familiar with the views of French, Belgian, and British, who can tell him of what brutality and what treachery the German is capable.

THE CITY ELECTIONS.

Some interesting conclusions are to be drawn from the results of the city elections held on Monday. The first point is the evidence of lamentable apathy on the part of a large section of the ratepayers and qualified voters in every one of the wards of the city. An analysis shows that in only three of the contested wards was there a poll of more than 50 per cent. of the electors, and in those three the percentage only averages about 60 per cent. As against these three wards there are three where only about 40 per cent. of the electors took the trouble to go to the polling booth. In view of the fact that the franchise for the City of Sydney is one of the widest, if not the widest, in the world, this is a matter of very grave moment. The franchise, as far as owners and lessees are concerned, has been restricted to a single vote in any one ward, while it has been widened so as to allow every occupier and every lodger who pays as much as four shillings per week rent to cast one vote. It is obvious from the figures of Monday's polling that such a liberalising of the franchise of the city is not appreciated by owners and lessees. It is generally conceded that the ranks of the apathetic voters are not filled from Labour supporters. The rigour and efficiency of the Labour machine attended to that aspect of civic elections some years ago. The figures are contradictory in some respects, but the disclosure of this dangerous indifference in the exercise of the franchise cannot be disputed. While it is deplorable that the representation of ratepayers in the City Council should be tainted with the bitterness and the prejudices of party politics, the continuance of indifference will inevitably result in the complete triumph of the political machine, which refuses to be set aside. The lesson is obvious. In only one case in the ten contested wards do the figures show any indication of the defeat of the wish of the majority by the splitting of the vote. This is in the case of Phillip Ward, where it would appear to be clear that the vote polled by ex-Alderman Barlow effected the defeat of one of the Civic Reform candidates.

A further interesting position will arise when the new aldermen take their seats on the floor of the council next week to elect the Lord Mayor and settle down to business. At first glance it would appear that two so-called "Independents" hold the balance of power. But it should be remembered that Messrs. Meagher and Walker were openly supported in the contest for Flinders Ward by the Civic Reform organisation, who did not run candidates against them, and they were violently opposed by Labour. The only reasonable assumption is that they will divide against the solid Labour block, consisting of half the council. In that event the experience of December, 1915, will be repeated. There was a deadlock on that occasion, and it was found impossible to set the civic government of the city going without special legislation enabling the Government to recommend the appointment of a Lord Mayor by the Governor-in-Council. A Labour Government was in power then, and the Lord Mayor was appointed by the Governor on the advice of his Ministers. The main thing, however, with which we are concerned at present is the constitution of the City Council and the means by which that has been brought about. There is room for considerable improvement in the electoral law of the Sydney Corporation. The voting strengths of the wards are unequal; and this is an electoral condition which always gives rise to dissatisfaction. In Fitzroy Ward, for instance, there are 4481 electors, while in Pyrmont Ward, to take the other extreme, there are only 2213 on the roll. Yet both wards return two, and only two, aldermen to represent them. This means that every voter in Pyrmont Ward has just twice as much power in the council as the individual elector in Fitzroy. Such a condition of affairs indicates the need for a regular and systematic review of the boundaries of the wards. The constitution of the council might be very different if due regard were paid in this way to the undoubted right of every elector to exercise an equal influence in the control of the city's affairs.

PRINCE ALFRED HOSPITAL.

Synchronising with the jubilee of the Royal Prince Alfred Hospital is an urgent appeal in aid of the funds of the institution. This hospital, in common with other local institutions, denied itself in a very large measure during the war of the opportunities which were open to it for appealing to the generosity of the public. It recognised the paramount necessities of the fighting forces; and it now comes before the public with a case to which the people cannot turn a deaf or unsympathetic ear. Figures which have been published afford incontestable proof of the justice of its appeal. The hospital is at present carrying on at its full strength only by borrowing. This means in plain English that if money is not found to equalise the revenue and expenditure the hospital must close beds. As has been pointed out, this would be nothing short of a national disaster; and with all the facts before it the public is hardly likely to allow such a beneficent work to suffer. This appeal for £40,000 is a sober, business-like way of celebrating an epoch in the history of the hospital; and it is broadly based. It is an appeal to all whose grateful recognition of the hospital's noble work can be tangibly expressed in some measure of help, however great or small. The desire to give need not fear to find expression because shillings are not pounds sterling. Every person who thinks sufficiently well of the work of the Royal Prince Alfred Hospital to offer even a mite becomes a benefactor. A community aroused, after all, is made up of individuals; and if everybody did something a small gift from each would soon extinguish the present debt in the mounting total. The sum of £40,000 will enable the hospital to overcome its difficulties, and, what is of prime importance, to keep all its beds open. The board of the hospital might have made its jubilee an occasion purely of rejoicing. In keeping, however, with its thrifty administration and in view of the urgency of the matter, the occasion will be wisely dedicated to the task of lightening the financial load. The appeal should be crowned with the success which the old-established and historic hospital so richly deserves, but again the main object of turning to the public now is to arouse a wide and genuine interest. This alone can insure immediate relief, but it will guarantee the constant giving without which no great service for others can be sustained.

PERSONAL.

VICE-REGAL.

His Excellency the Governor yesterday declared open the new premises of the Coastal Farmers' Co-operative Society, Limited, and was present at the official luncheon.

His Excellency the Governor yesterday afternoon opened the exhibition of war sketches by ex-Bombardier M. N. Waller at Anthony Hordern and Sons' Art Gallery.

His Excellency the Governor yesterday afternoon received Major-General Lee.

His Excellency the Governor, attended by Captain d'Apice was present last evening at Lieutenant Godfrey Smith's concert at the Conservatorium.

M. Campana, Consul-General for France, who accompanied the French Mission to South Australia and Western Australia, will return to Sydney this morning.

Mrs. W. A. Holman, who underwent a slight surgical operation last week, is convalescent, but will be unable to resume her engagements for some days yet.

Dr. R. H. Todd and Captain and Mrs. S. Gilling left by the Westralia for Hobart yesterday.

The Rev. C. Beharell, one of the representatives of the London Missionary Society in Papua, is in Sydney.

Mr. Neville Mayman, accompanied by his wife and daughter, will leave by the R.M.S. Niagara next month for America. They will probably also visit the United Kingdom and France.

Mr. W. R. Blow, New Zealand Government agent, who has been on a holiday visit to Tasmania, will return to Sydney to-day.

Mr. Jas. Hislop, Under-Secretary for Internal Affairs in New Zealand, is at present in Sydney.

A private cable message was received in Sydney yesterday that Captain Denis Allen, R.A.F., had received the additional decoration of the Air Force Cross. Captain Allen, who is 24 years of age and a son of Mr. Arthur Wigram Allen, of Allen, Allen, and Hemsley, solicitors, left Sydney in May, 1915, and on arrival in England joined the Royal Naval Air Service. He spent a considerable time in France and for his services there the Distinguished Service Cross was bestowed upon him. For the last nine months Captain Allen has been attached to the British Air Ministry, testing and reporting on new machines. Now that the war is practically over Captain Allen expects to return to Sydney as soon as possible to take up his legal studies, which were interrupted by the war.

PROPORTIONALISM.

THE NEW BILL.

VOTES FOR YOUNG SOLDIERS.

In addition to the introduction of the system of proportional representation for the next and future elections, the Parliamentary Elections Bill, read the first time in Parliament yesterday, on the motion of the Chief Secretary, Mr. Fuller, contains some important changes in the electoral law.

It is proposed, for instance, to give a vote to any member of the A.I.F., notwithstanding that he might not be of the statutory age, who is not disqualified for any other reason. Section 7 of the bill reads as follows, and it is understood that the Government proposes to stand by it:—

> Every soldier under the age of 21 years who is not otherwise disqualified, shall, on application in the prescribed form to the registrar or deputy-registrar for the district in which that soldier has his usual place of residence, be entitled to have his name placed on the roll or supplementary roll for such district, and to vote at the next general election of members of the Legislative Assembly.
> For the purpose of this section a soldier means a person who is or has been a member of the Commonwealth naval or military forces on active service in or outside Australia, or on a ship of war.

The restoration of voting by post is another important additional alteration. The bill provides that an elector who will not be within 15 miles of any polling-booth in the State, or who will throughout the hours of polling be travelling under conditions which will preclude him or her from attending at any polling booth, or is seriously ill or infirm, and thus prevented from attending a polling booth, or, being a woman, will, by approaching maternity, be precluded from attending any polling booth, may make application for a postal vote certificate and postal ballot paper.

Generally, the provisions of the bill follow the lines set out in yesterday's "Herald." The regulations controlling the elections will be prepared by the expert electoral officers of the State, and will be ready to lay upon the table in Parliament when the House reassembles for the last session of the present Parliament before the next elections, thus to await the approval of the House before the gazettal notice which will give them the force of law.

A suggestion which will probably be adopted is that the Chief Secretary and at least one of his electoral officers, probably the Under-Secretary, should take advantage of the fact that there will be a general election under the proportional system in Tasmania in May next, to visit that State, and get personal knowledge of the conduct of such an election.

ORIGINAL ANZACS.

ARRIVING TO-DAY.

A contingent of Anzac soldiers will arrive this morning, and will disembark at 11 a.m. Friends and relations who have tickets marked J from the Staff-officer for Invalids will be admitted to the Anzac Buffet at 11.30 a.m., to meet the New South Wales men. The Queenslanders will be taken to the railway station, where they will be given morning tea, and leave by a special train at 12.25 p.m. The V.A.Ds. on duty will be, wharf, Cronulla V.A.D.; Anzac Buffet, Eastwood V.A.D.; morning tea on railway station, Drummoyne V.A.D.

Motor cars numbered on the Red Cross register from 453 to 615 are required to be at No. 1 Wharf, Woolloomooloo, at 11 a.m. to-day.

On arriving the Anzacs may be quarantined, in which case the above arrangements will be cancelled.

The hon. organiser for strong posts, Mr. Downs Johnstone, announces that over 400 original Anzacs will arrive, they will be received by Brigadier-General Lee and Headquarters Staff, and Government representatives.

The procession, headed by the A.I.F. Military Band, will proceed along the usual route, via Sir John Young's-crescent, Park-street, George-street, Martin-place, Moore-street, Castlereagh-street, Bligh-street, and Bent-street, for the Anzac Buffet. Bands will be stationed at the main points en route, and strong post committees are notified to make arrangements for a brilliant reception to these troops. Business houses in general, are requested to decorate and beflag their premises throughout the city.

As already announced, arrangements have been completed for a procession and civic reception to-morrow. The returned Anzacs will assemble at the Anzac Buffet at 10 a.m., and the route of the procession will be via Queen's-square, Macquarie-street, Hunter-street, Pitt-street, Martin-place, and George-street, to the Town Hall. The Governor will take the salute in Macquarie-street.

The Anzacs on arrival at the Town Hall will be greeted by a fanfare of trumpets, and short speeches of welcome will be delivered.

The honorary organiser of strong posts states that the motor cars are provided solely for the use of Anzacs, and people who jump on the footboards will be proceeded against under the War Precautions Act.

WAR-TIME PROFITS.

PROTEST AGAINST THE AMENDMENTS.

RETROSPECTIVE TAXATION.

A largely attended mass meeting of citizens and traders, held at the Sydney Chamber of Commerce yesterday, unanimously agreed to the following resolution:—

"That this meeting protests to the Federal Government against the retrospective nature of the amendments proposed to the War-time Profits Assessment Act, and further protests against the enormous powers left by the provisions of the bill in the hands of Public servants in the administration of the Act, which takes to a large measure the conduct out of the hands of the owners of their businesses. The Acting Prime Minister is respectfully requested to receive a deputation from this meeting to put forward the meeting's objections to the oppressive nature of some of the proposed amendments, and that before dealing further with this measure in the Federal House the deputation be given an opportunity of placing the views of this meeting before the Acting Prime Minister."

The following gentlemen were appointed to compose the deputation:—Messrs. C. E. D. Meares (president of the Chamber of Commerce), A. D. Walker (president of the Chamber of Manufactures), F. J. Smith, Senator Pratten, Mark Sheldon, and R. M. Clark.

Mr. Mark Sheldon (vice-president of the Chamber of Commerce), who presided, stated in opening the meeting that the most objectionable feature of the amending bill was the provision making it retrospective to July, 1916. (Hear, hear.) It would be as reasonable to propose that the Probate Act should be amended retrospectively doubling the taxation on all probates granted during the past two years. It was amazing, also, that the amount of money that should be spent on advertising in a business should be left to the decision of a Government official. During the last two or three years they had had considerable experience in the way of Government officials administering their businesses; many businesses had suffered disastrously through such action, but diffidence about protesting in war-time had prevented the owners from taking a stand in the matter. He did not wish to refer at any length to some of the concessions that were allowed under the bill, save to point out that commission men were exempted, although the goods that they were selling had in some cases gone up 300 per cent. in value, and their commission had proportionately increased. All the more credit to them for arranging it. Then some mining, such as tin, was exempted, also those persons who were building ships for the Government, although they might make 100 per cent. on the deal, and, indeed, would be certain to make more than anticipated on account of the lowering in the prices of materials. Whatever action was taken should be taken immediately, and in conjunction with the Chamber of Manufactures.

Mr. F. N. Yarwood said that the board of reference provided for under the bill for hearing appeals comprised the Commissioner himself as chairman, the Secretary to the Treasury, and the Comptroller of Customs. If these men were to devote the time that would be necessary in hearing the cases, they might as well shut up their own departments. It was ridiculous, also, for the Commissioner to sit on a board to decide whether his own decisions were fair or otherwise.

Mr. F. J. Smith said that many business men had made their commitments on the basis of the Act as it stood, and for an amendment to reduce their profits would be a very serious matter. Such a proposal must not pass without strong protest from the trading community, and, in fact, the entire community, for, if it were allowed, what might not happen in the future? Suppose a Labour Government got into power, and by reckless expenditure exceeded the revenue, what was to prevent them, with such a precedent, from increasing the income tax retrospectively for 10 years? Could Mr. Watt or his followers object when it was their own precedent that was being followed? The Government's proposals would operate very harshly in the case of partnerships that had been dissolved during the period covered by the retrospective clause. The retired partner might be in any inaccessible part of the world; would, then, the partner who retained the business have to "carry the baby," although the adjustment between the two had been made on the basis of the Act? If such legislation were allowed, no business man could possibly know how he stood. Similar legislation in connection with the land tax had been passed, allowing the commissioners to go back three years for revaluation, and now came this fresh proposal without, apparently, any thought of the injustice that it imposed upon the trading community.

Mr. F. W. Stoddart said it would be well for the Government to consider the effect upon the National and Liberal parties of such a breaking of faith at this critical time. It would be a grave outlook if their own side placed them in jeopardy in the manner proposed. The mercantile community was the backbone of the trading of the country, and they wanted more consideration from their own side in Parliament than they were getting at the present time.

Mr. J. M. Paxton said that no provision had been made in the amendments to the Act for a recompense or allowance to traders for losses that they sustained during a given period after peace was declared. It would be a reasonable request to place before the Government that similar provision in this direction should be made as that made by the Imperial Government. Mr. Paxton then read the following proposals in this connection, which he stated had been adopted by the Imperial Government:—

"A period will be allowed after the termination of the war in which to ascertain by actual realisation the value of the stock appearing in the account at the end of the last accounting period, and an allowance made from the profits of that period for any difference between the valuation and the sum realised. The period proposed is a fixed period of two years from the termination of the war for all businesses. The loss (if any) on only such stocks as were in hand at the end of the last accounting period will be brought into the adjustment, but the whole of such stocks, not individual parcels selected by the taxpayer, must be considered."

Mr. Paxton added that, assuming that a business in pre-war times made a profit of £150,000, and during the war made an additional profit of £100,000, making a total of £250,000, it would pay war-time profits tax on £100,000. In other words, it would pay £75,000 to the Government, and be allowed to retain £25,000. Assuming, further, that immediately after the war the profit fell to £120,000 (£30,000 less than the pre-war profit) it would then be allowed by the Imperial Government to take £30,000 from (the presumed) the £75,000, which would mean that the actual amount of tax paid would be £45,000. The loss sustained after the war in some commodities would be even greater than the profits derived during the war period. Metallic tin, for instance, was selling at £439 per ton f.o.b., whereas to-day one could not get more than £270—a difference of £169 per ton.

The chairman announced that a telegram had been received from the Melbourne Chamber of Commerce stating that a resolution had been carried protesting against the proposal to make the amending bill retrospective, and indicating that time was important if the Sydney chamber proposed to take any action.

The resolution set out above was then unanimously carried on the motion of the chairman, seconded by Mr. Walter King.

The chairman said that the members of the deputation would be pleased to receive suggestions in writing. These should be forwarded immediately to the secretary of the chamber.

Mr. B. N. Black states in the course of a letter regarding the above meeting at the Chamber of Commerce, that the delegation ejected to interview the Acting Prime Minister was apparently "cut and dried." A better method would have been to elect as a deputation men with a thorough grasp of the subject in question, and experienced in addressing public meetings, and when the delegation returned, if the redress sought had not been obtained, to hold a public meeting in the Town Hall, at which the delegates could have informed the public generally as to the matters discussed and the reception they received from the Acting Prime Minister, and his replies to their request. "The only way we can convey to our legislators the fact that we as a community protest against their legislation," he adds, "is to call the whole country to our banner, and voice the opinion of the whole country as to the statutes our legislators propose to put upon the Statute Book. . . While we as a trading community do not oppose the raising of the necessary funds to carry on the business of the community, and pay for our war expenses, we object to the principle of any legislation that does not make every member of the community share the common burden. The Wartime Profits Act as originally drafted, or as amended, is inequitable. Any Act that has for its object the computing of the profits of any trader should be drafted by a commission composed of men who will realise the effects of its operation, and men whose business it is in their own interests, apart from that of the community, generally, to develop their businesses, give more employment, and bring more wealth into the country."

A meeting, under the auspices of the Chamber of Manufactures, the Chamber of Commerce, the Employers' Federation and kindred associations, will be held at the King's Hall, Hunter-street (near Macquarie-street), at 3 p.m. to-morrow, to protest against the action of the Federal Government in extending the War Precautions Act, and to urge the repeal of the Wartime Profits Act.

GHOST OF A CITY.

ALARMING DEATH-RATE IN NEW ZEALAND.

DRINK AND INFLUENZA.

WELLINGTON, Nov. 19.

Wellington is merely the ghost of what it was. Sidewalks, usually aglow with light and animated by great pleasure-loving people, with the flashing electrics of picture shows, theatres, and marble bars, are deserted and silent. The influenza commenced its fatal work stealthily less than a month ago. The cases at first were light. Only here and there an aged person succumbed to the attack, and all were congratulating themselves that Wellington, with its municipal thoroughness, was going to avoid the more serious forms of the disease. Vain hope. The Chief Health Officer (Dr. Frengley) telegraphed to the Prime Minister to prohibit any gatherings of the public if the news of the armistice came through. That was on November 10, and on the morning of November 11 the peace guns boomed, and the public flocked in their tens of thousands to jubilate in a hundred crowded ways. It was as though the whole thing had been stage-managed for the benefit of the ghoul—influenza—for from that out the malady has travelled speedily through the community. The invisible foe still wields his scythe—steadily, surely. Business is at a standstill. The Government has closed all theatres, picture houses, wharfs, barbers' shops, hotels, and halls. No church services were held on Sunday; local bodies have ceased to talk of small things; all effort is centred in fighting the creeping fiend among us.

The death-rate, both in Auckland and in Wellington, is so great that it is not considered prudent to publish figures, and Christchurch is catching up. Undertakers are so hard put to it to supply coffins that the city has had to be blocked off, and each firm has to attend to the dead in its own block. The number of urgent cases became so numerous that the few doctors (some are away, others stricken down) had likewise to be apportioned blocks to work in. An organisation of citizens initiated by the Mayor (Mr. J. P. Luke, M.P., C.M.G.), has swung into action. Here again the city has been blocked off, and each block has its own captain, and each captain his loyal band of workers, whose efforts are centralised at the Town Hall. Ambulances were only few a week ago. To-day, they are chasing one another through the streets. Warehouse vans, hotel vans, grocers' vans, carriers' vans—every conceivable kind of van has been commandeered and turned into an ambulance. The General Hospital filled up quickly over a week ago. Since then St. John's Schoolroom, St. Patrick's College, the Sydney-street Hall, the High College, the Normal (Moundon) School, and some of the suburban schools have been transformed into hospitals.

"Spare no expense," said the Minister of Public Health, and the injunction is being taken literally. The public are being urged to come along to the district centres for free medicine, free disinfectants, free fumigants, free food for invalids, and they have not been backward in taking advantage of the invitation. The voluntary workers in each district visit each house in every street, ascertaining where assistance is needed, and providing it as quickly as possible. Whole families have been discovered in a state of prostration, in some cases dead and dying in the same room, with children unable to help them or themselves. Owing to the shortage of doctors, many cases had simply to be left with primitive aid given them by the almost distracted helpers.

Major Hurley, Government Bacteriologist, has reported to the Minister of Health—epidemic is due to the true influenza bacillus as known to science, but there are three types of the disease mainly produced by it in the present epidemic. The first phase may be influenza in its true form—the leaden head, aching limbs, and cold on the chest. The second phase is when the patient becomes pneumonic, frequently dying from pneumonia as we all understand it; the third, and most deadly phase, is when the pneumonia becomes septic, the whole system becomes blood-poisoned, the patient delirious, and death usually comes in a few hours. In the latter phase the body at once turns black, and has to be buried at once. Twenty-four hours is the maximum time allowed between death and burial, but long before that the body has to be encased. The terrifying thing is that a person may be attacked with the third phase first, and the odds are 100 to 1 against his pulling through.

Men described as "alcoholics" go down at once. The medical men say these drinkers have not "a dog's chance." They argue that the steady drinker of alcohol has, by his habit, deprived nature of some of her fighting forces that are of value in the crisis.

The hotels were closed up altogether as from November 18. The voluntary workers found that their efforts were being negatived by the drinking habits of the heads of households, many of whom were drinking through sheer fright, and others doubtless for the sheer love of it.

INCREASED WAGES.

RAILWAY AND TRAMWAY EMPLOYEES.

Mr. A. C. Wormald, general secretary of the Government Tramways Electrical Branch Workers' Association, stated yesterday that he had received a communication from the Railway Commissioners in reference to representations made by the association for increased rates of pay to those employees covered by existing awards.

Mr. Spurway, secretary to the Commissioners, replied to the request as follows:—"Consequent upon the decision of the Full Industrial Court that existing awards would not be re-opened excepting for the purpose of increasing wages to bring rates up to the minimum wage of 10/ per day, the general question of increased wages has had consideration by the Commissioners. Pending expiry of current awards, and the issue of new awards by the Industrial Court, the Commissioners have approved of increases on a diminishing scale, and on the basis of existing award rates, being granted to railway and tramway employees at present in receipt of rates up to 11/2 per day. The increased rates, which will represent a proportion of any increases which the Court may ultimately allow when existing awards expire, will take effect as from December 2, and directions have been given accordingly."

THE "SYDNEY MAIL."

War Chest Day in Sydney is freely illustrated, and the carnival at the Show Ground on Saturday in aid of the fund is also pictorially dealt with. Patriotic gatherings in Melbourne, Brisbane, Eastwood, Arncliffe, Goombungee, and other places are shown. There are interesting naval pictures, and several recently taken A.I.F. snapshots from Palestine. War workers at Grafton and Coramba are seen busily spinning and knitting for the soldiers, and there are several unique photographs taken during a scientific exploration of the coast of north-west Australia. The popular weekly is rich in subjects of special interest to the man on the land. An illustrated article headed "Repatriation: Diggers in the Vineyard," deals with wine-growing as an industry for returned soldiers. The paper read at the Primary Producers' Conference in Sydney by Mr. W. J. Allen, the Government fruit expert, is published in full, as is that on "Agricultural Education," by Principal Potts, of the Hawkesbury College, and the N.S.W. Government's calf-rearing scheme is also described and illustrated. Among other features is an illustrated account of the experiences of Mr. T. E. Rees, who was second officer of the steamer Wairuna when she was captured by the Wolf, and who recently returned to Sydney.

RED CROSS SOCIETY.

This afternoon at 3 o'clock at Primrose-buildings, 255A George-street, Mlle. Soubeiran will address the general committee of the Red Cross Society on her experiences in connection with her work in Paris during the bombardment when assisting to administer funds of the French-Australian League of Help.

DUNTROON COLLEGE.

MELBOURNE, Tuesday.

The following New South Wales candidates have been recommended for admission to the Royal Military College, Duntroon:—P. Z. Weir, 975½ marks; A. W. Aubrey, 970½; M. P. Allsopp, 939; I. R. Campbell, 933; G. J. Salter, 807½; R. F. S. Beale, 807¼; E. G. K. Herring, 806¾; and L. C. Gee, 806.

OUR NATIVE FLOWERS.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD.

Sir,—I should like to draw attention to the necessity of more stringently protecting our native flowers. Unless prompt action is taken some of the more notable species, such as the "waratah," are doomed to speedy extinction. This year the whole of the Blue Mountain blooms have been completely stripped—mostly for sale by the collectors. Thus there will be no seed available for reproduction. Cannot the purchase and sale of "waratahs" be prohibited for a few years?

QUARANTINE SITE.

REMOVAL DEMANDED

PUBLIC MEETING IN TOWN HALL.

At a public meeting held in the Town Hall yesterday afternoon the proposal to remove the Quarantine Station from its present position to one farther away from the city was argued. A resolution was carried declaring that it is a menace to public health, and a strong deputation was appointed to wait upon the Commonwealth authorities to have it removed as soon as possible. In the absence of the Lord Mayor Alderman R. D. Meagher, M.L.C., took the chair.

In opening the meeting the chairman said that the station in its present position was not only a menace to Manly, but to the whole city as well. When it was established it was out of the city, but the growth of population had brought it next door to populous centres. Thousands of people lived close to it, and if infectious diseases got out from it, they would be liable to sweep through the whole community. (Hear, hear.) The station should certainly be removed to some other site. (Applause.) Jervis Bay had been suggested, but there was, he understood, an objection to it on the part of the Federal Government. In the neighbourhood of Broken Bay there was another site that might be chosen. Lion Island would appear to be an ideal site. It was surrounded by deep water, with plenty of sharks to make it dangerous for any person to try and break bounds, and if a larger area of land was required a piece of Kuring-gai Chase could be used. The place was isolated, yet it was within an hour and a half of the city. (Applause.)

Mr. Arthur Rickard proposed the first resolution:—

"That the citizens of Sydney view with alarm the danger continually threatening the city by the retention of the Quarantine Station at North Head, and respectfully request that the Federal Government be urged to take immediate steps to have the Quarantine Station removed to some more isolated site; also that the ships at present quarantined be removed to some other suitable locality."

This quarantine station, right at the gates of the city, is a menace," he said. "We have no desire to embarrass the Federal Government, we have no desire to raise a scare at this time, but is the position of the Quarantine Station a proper one? Go to other parts of the world and see whether they have their quarantine stations so near big centres of population as ours is. The question of infectious disease emphasises the danger; it may be that we shall have some epidemic of infectious disease breaking out from it—a thing that will have a very serious effect upon the people of Sydney, and may have the effect of temporarily depopulating the city itself. (Applause.) Here we have a city of about 800,000 people, and is it common sense that this quarantine station should be located at our very gates?" Moreover the buildings there are limited, and there is insufficient accommodation. Added to that, the space is too small, and the site is immensely valuable. If the Federal Government decided to remove it the land on which it stands could be sold for half a million sterling. (Applause.) That money would get another site farther away bigger in area, and would enable proper buildings to be put up. If it were decided not to put the ground on the market it would make an ideal recreation site, or part of it could be sold and part turned into a recreation ground. In Melbourne the quarantine ground is 40 miles away from the city; in Brisbane it is 13 miles; and in Adelaide it is 10 miles away. It is right to approach the Federal Government upon this matter without prejudice, but we should not rest until it is removed. We must not let the agitation die down after this visitation passes away, but must keep on agitating until the station is taken away from there. (Applause.)

Mr. J. E. Toole seconded the motion, and said the buildings upon the station were ramshackle and out of date. Its situation with regard to the city was most convenient, but convenience was not everything; it should be removed, rebuilt, brought up to date, but above all, removed.

"The health of the community is the first law," said Dr. Arthur, M.L.A., in supporting the motion, "and we are not going to let commercial interest or commercial business stand before it. Objection has come in the past from the big shipping companies against the removal of the station, but when we place before the people the question of protecting the health of a great concourse of individuals such as this city holds it becomes a greater question than that of the convenience of shipping companies. (Applause.) We must stir up not only the Federal Government but the Federal members as well. There is not one of them here to-day. General Ryrie could not be here; he is away somewhere else (applause), but those who are at home in Australia should come and show that the interests of Australia are looked after. This station is a great, grievous, and tremendous injustice to the people of Manly, whom I represent in the State Parliament. It is an injustice that they should have this pest house at the very portals of their town. Their business interests are suffering. The station can be removed; even if it were sent to Jervis Bay there would be an ideal situation for it at the northern head of the bay, and absolute isolation could be enforced there. If Lion Island, at Broken Bay, is not large enough, it might do for a hospital for patients, but there should be some place ashore where the contacts could be housed. Enough buildings should be put up to house all the passengers on board any ship, and this is in the interests, not only of the people stricken with disease, but of all other passengers on the ship. It is a criminal thing to keep all our men, who have gone away to fight for us and have come back, down in the hold of the ship in which they have come back. It is a crime to keep our men who have gone away and fought for us for four years and more—it is criminal to keep them in the holds of the ships where they may die like dogs! Are we going to thank our men in that way? Now, I hope arrangements will be made that there shall be no possibility of a recurrence of this state of things, but that proper arrangements will be made for passengers to have enough of fresh air; and I trust that this movement will not die out after this scare has passed away, but that if the Federal Government will not listen to us we shall keep on agitating until we compel it to attend to our wants and take away this pest house from our very doors." (Loud applause.)

Alderman F. W. Heaton, Mayor of Manly, and Alderman Reid, also of Manly, also supported the motion, which was carried unanimously.

Mr. A. A. C. Cocks, M.L.A., proposed the second motion:—

"That a deputation from this meeting be appointed to wait upon the Acting Prime Minister for the purpose of having the foregoing resolution carried into effect; such deputation to consist of the Lord Mayor and aldermen of Sydney, the Mayors and aldermen of North Sydney, Mosman, and Manly, Mr. Arthur Rickard, Mr. Weaver, M.L.A., Dr. Arthur, M.L.A., Mr. A. A. C. Cocks, M.L.A., Dr. D. Thomas, Dr. J. M'Vittie, Mr. J. T. Wall, Mr. Mark Mitchell, and Mr. F. Trenchard Smith, with power to add to their number."

He felt himself, he said, somewhat of an authority on quarantine, because on one occasion he spent three weeks at the Melbourne Quarantine Station as a guest of the Victorian Government, consequent on the breaking out of smallpox on the vessel in which he was travelling. If the Melbourne Quarantine Station were within five miles of St. Kilda, the watering place of Victoria there would be such an outcry about it that it would soon be removed. (Hear, hear.) But Sydney people were too easy-going, and he hoped they would bestir themselves on this occasion and not stop until they had the station removed.

Mr. Weaver, M.L.A., seconded the motion, and said the question resolved itself into three parts—the public health of this great community; are the quarantine arrangements adequate; and, can an improvement be effected? The health of the community was of great importance. It had been shown that the quarantine arrangements were inadequate, therefore an improvement could be effected, and the first improvement must be the removal of the station. (Applause.)

The motion was supported by Councillor W. Quirk, president of Warringah Shire, Alderman Lindsay Thompson, and Mr. A. J. M'Allen, and was carried unanimously. The deputation was subsequently appointed a committee to carry out the objects of the meeting.

CUBA'S GIFT TO AUSTRALIAN SOLDIERS.

MELBOURNE, Tuesday.

The Governor-General has cabled Senator Cosme De La Torriente, President of Commission National Cubana De Propaganda for the War and for assistance of war victims, thanking him for the generous gift of £2000 from that body for the assistance of soldiers of the war. The cable message added that Australia deeply appreciated the sympathetic feelings and humane sentiments of the republic of Cuba.

PROBLEMS OF PEACE.

SPEECH BY PRESIDENT WILSON.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.

President Wilson's annual message to Congress was read at a joint session thereof as follows:—

The year that has elapsed since I last stood before you, to fulfil my constitutional duty to give to Congress from time to time information on the state of the Union, has been so crowded with great events, great processes, and great results, that I cannot hope to offer you a definite picture of its transactions, or of the far-reaching changes which have been wrought in the life of our nation, and of the world. You have yourselves witnessed these things as I have. It is too soon to assess them, and we who stand in the midst of them, and are part of them, are less qualified than the men of another generation will be to say what they mean or even what they have been. But some great outstanding facts are unmistakable, and constitute in a sense part of the public business with which it is our duty to deal. To state them is to set the stage for the legislative and executive action which must grow out of them, and which we have yet to shape and determine.

A year ago we had sent 145,918 men overseas. Since then we have sent 1,950,513—an average of 162,542 each month—the number, in fact, rising in May last to 245,941, in June to 278,760, in July to 307,182, and continuing to reach similar figures in August and September—in August 289,570, and in September 257,438. No such movement of troops ever took place before, across 3000 miles of sea, followed by adequate equipment and supplies, and carried safely through extraordinary dangers from attack, dangers which were alike strange and indefinitely difficult to guard against. In all this movement, only 758 men were lost by enemy attack, 630 of whom were upon a single English transport, which was sunk near the Orkney Islands.

I need not tell you what lay at the back of this movement of men and material. It is not invidious to say that at the back of it lay the supporting organisation of the industries of the country, and of all its productive activities, more complete, more thorough in method, and effective in result, more spirited and unanimous in purpose and effort than any other great belligerent has been able to effect. We profited greatly by the experience of nations which had already been engaged for nearly three years in exigent and exacting business—their every source and every executive proficiency taxed to the utmost. We were their pupils. But we learned quickly and acted with promptness and readiness of co-operation that justify our great pride that we have been able to serve the world with unparalleled energy and quick accomplishment.

But it is not the physical scale and executive efficiency of preparation, supply, equipment, and despatch we would dwell upon, but the mettle and quality of the officers and men we sent over, and of the sailors who kept the seas, and the spirit of the nation that stood behind them. No soldiers or sailors ever proved themselves more quickly ready for the test of battle or acquitted themselves with more splendid courage and achievement when put to the test. Those of us who played some part in directing the great processes by which the war was pushed irresistibly forward to the final triumph may now forget all that, and delight our thoughts with the story of what our men did. Their officers understood the grim and exacting task they had undertaken, and performed it with audacity, efficiency, and unhesitating courage that touch the story of convoy and battle with imperishable distinction at every turn, whether the enterprise were great or small, from their chiefs, General Pershing and Admiral Sims, down to the youngest lieutenants; and their men were worthy of them—such men as hardly need be commanded, and go to their terrible adventure blithely, and with the quick intelligence of those who know just what it is they would accomplish. I am proud to be a fellow countryman of men of such stuff and valour. Those of us who stayed at home did our duty; the war could not have been won or the gallant men who fought it given their opportunity to win it otherwise; but for many a long day we shall think ourselves "accursed we were not there, and hold our manhoods cheap while any speaks that fought" with those at St. Mihiel or Chateau-Thierry.

The memory of those days of triumphant battle will go with these fortunate men to their graves, and each will have his favourite memory. "Old men forget; yet all shall be forgot, but he'll remember with advantages what feats he did that day." What we all thank God for with the deepest gratitude is that our men went in force into the line of battle just at a critical moment, when the whole fate of the world seemed to hang in the balance, and threw their fresh strength into the ranks of freedom in time to turn the whole tide and sweep of fateful struggle, turn it once for all, so that henceforth it was back, back, back for their enemies, always back, never again forward. After that it was only a scant four months before the commanders of the Central Empires knew themselves beaten, and now their very Empires are in liquidation. And throughout it how fine the spirit of the nation was—what unity of purpose, what untiring zeal, what elevation of purpose ran through all its splendid display of strength; what untiring accomplishment! I have said that those of us who stayed at home to do the work of organisation and supply will always wish we had been with the men whom we had sustained by our labour, but we can never be ashamed. It has been an inspiring thing to be here in the midst of fine men who had turned aside from every private interest of their own and devoted the whole of their trained capacity to tasks that supplied the sinews of the whole of this great undertaking. The patriotism, unselfishness, thorough-going devotion and distinguished capacity that marked their toilsome labours day after day, and month after month, have made them fit mates and comrades of the men in the trenches and on the sea. And not men here in Washington only. They have but directed the vast achievement. Throughout innumerable factories, upon innumerable farms, in the depth of the coal, iron, and copper mines, wherever the stuffs of industry were to be obtained and prepared, in the shipyards, on the railways, at the docks, on the sea, in every labour that was needed to sustain the battle lines, men have vied with each other to do their part, and have done it well. They can look any man-at-arms in the face and say, 'We also strove to win, and gave the best that was in us to make our fleets and armies sure of their triumph.'

And what shall we say of the women—of their instant intelligence quickening every task they touch, their capacity for organisation and co-operation, which gave their action discipline and enhanced the effectiveness of everything they attempted, their aptitude at tasks to which they had never before set their hand, their utter self-sacrifice alike in what they did, and in what they gave. Their contribution to the great result is beyond appraisal. They have added new lustre to the annals of American womanhood. The least tribute we can pay them is to make them the equals of men in political rights, as they have proved themselves their equals in every field of practical work they have entered, whether for themselves or for their country. These great days of completed achievement would be sadly marred were we to omit that act of justice. Besides the immense practical services they have rendered, the women of the country have been the moving spirits in the systematic economies by which our people voluntarily assisted to supply the suffering peoples of the world and the armies upon every front with food and everything else that we have, and that might serve the common cause. The details of such a story can never be fully written but we carry them at our hearts, and thank God we can say we are the kinsmen of such.

THE TASKS OF PEACE.

And now we are sure of the great triumph for which every sacrifice was made. It has come in its completeness, and with pride and inspiration of these days of achievement which are within us, we turn to the tasks of peace again—peace secure against the violence of irresponsible monarchs and ambitious military coteries, and made ready for a new order, for new foundations of justice and fair dealing.

We are about to give order and organisation to this peace, not only for ourselves but for other peoples of the world as well, as far as they will suffer us to serve them. It is international justice we seek, not domestic safety merely.

Our thoughts have dwelt of late upon Europe, upon Asia, upon the Near and Far East; very little upon the acts of peace and accommodation that wait to be performed at our own doors. While we are adjusting our relations with the rest of the world, is it not of capital importance that we should clear away all grounds of misunderstanding with our immediate neighbours and give proof of the friendship we really feel. I hope members of the Senate will permit me to speak once more of the unratified treaty of friendship and adjustment with the republic of Colombia. I very earnestly urge upon them early favourable action upon that vital matter. I believe they will feel with me that the stage of affairs is now set for such action as will be not only just but generous, and in the spirit of the new age upon which we have so happily entered.

DOMESTIC READJUSTMENT.

So far as our domestic affairs are concerned, the problem of our return to peace is the problem of economic and industrial readjustment. That problem is less serious for us than it may turn out to be for nations which have suffered the disarrangements and losses of war longer than we. Our people, moreover, do not wait to be coached or led. They know their own business, are quick and resourceful at every readjustment, definite in purpose, and self-reliant in action. Any leading strings we might seek to put them in would speedily become hopelessly tangled, because they would pay no attention to them and go their own way. All that we can do as their legislative and executive servants is to mediate the process of change, here, there, and elsewhere, as we may. I have heard much counsel as to plans that should be formed and personally conducted to a happy consummation, but from no quarter have I seen any general scheme of reconstruction emerge which I thought it likely we could force our spirited business men and self-reliant labourers to accept with due pliancy and obedience. While the war lasted we set up many agencies by which to direct the industries of the country in services it was necessary for them to render, by which to make sure of an abundant supply of materials needed, by which to check undertakings that could for the first time be dispensed with, and stimulate those that were most serviceable in war, by which to gain for the purchasing departments of the Government a certain control over prices of essential articles and materials, by which to restrain trade with alien enemies, make the most of available shipping, and systematise financial transactions both public and private, so that there would be no unnecessary conflict or confusion—by which, in short, to put every material energy of the country in harness to draw the common load and make of us one team in the accomplishment of a great task. But the moment we knew the armistice to have been signed we took the harness off. The raw materials upon which the Government had kept its hands for fear there would not be enough for industries that supplied the armies have been released and put into the general market again. The great industrial plants whose whole output and machinery had been taken over for the uses of the Government have been set free to return to the uses to which they were put before the war. It has not been possible to remove so readily or so quickly the control of foodstuffs and shipping, because the world has still to be fed from our granaries, and the ships are still needed to send supplies to our men oversea, and to bring the men back as fast as the disturbed conditions on the other side of the water permit; but even these restraints are being relaxed as much as possible, and more and more as the weeks go by. Never before have there been agencies in existence in this country which knew so much of the field of supply of labour and of industry as the War Industries Board, the War Trade Board, the Labour Department, the Food Administration, and the Fuel Administration have known since their labours became thoroughly systematised; and they have not been isolated agencies. They have been directed by men who represented the permanent departments of the Government, and so have been the centres of unified and co-operative action. It has been the policy of the Executive, therefore, since the armistice was assured (which is in effect a complete submission of the enemy), to put the knowledge of these bodies at the disposal of the business men of the country, and to offer their intelligent mediation at every point and in every matter where it was desired.

RECONSTRUCTION.

It is surprising how fast the process of a return to a peace footing has moved in the three weeks since the fighting stopped. It promises to outrun any inquiry that may be instituted, and any aid that may be offered. It will not be easy to direct it any better than it will direct itself. The American business man is of quick initiative. The ordinary and normal processes of private initiative will not, however, provide immediate employment for all of the men of our returning armies. Those who are of trained capacity, those who are skilled workmen, those who have acquired familiarity with established businesses, those who are ready and willing to go to the farms, all those whose aptitudes are known, or will be sought out by employers, will find no difficulty, it is safe to say, in finding place and employment. But there will be others who will be at a loss where to gain a livelihood unless pains are taken to guide them and put them in the way of work. There will be a large floating residuum of labour, which should not be left wholly to shift for itself.

NEW PUBLIC WORKS.

It seems to me important, therefore, that the development of public works of every sort should be promptly resumed, in order that opportunities should be created for unskilled labour in particular, and that plans should be made for such developments of our unused lands and our natural resources as we have hitherto lacked stimulation to undertake. I particularly direct your attention to the very practical plans which the Secretary of the Interior has developed in his annual report, and before your committees, for the reclamation of the arid swamp and cutover lands which might, if the States were willing and able to co-operate, redeem some 300,000,000 acres of land for cultivation. There are said to be 15 or 20 million acres of land in the West at present arid, for whose reclamation water is available if properly conserved. There are about 230,000,000 acres from which the forests have been cut, but which have never yet been cleared for the plough, and which lie waste and desolate. These lie scattered all over the Union. And there are nearly 80,000,000 acres of land that lie under swamps or are subject to periodical overflow, or too wet for anything but grazing, which it is perfectly feasible to drain and protect and redeem. The congress can at once direct thousands of the returning soldiers to the reclamation of the arid lands, which it has already undertaken, if it will but enlarge the plans and appropriations which it has entrusted to the Department of the Interior. It is possible in dealing with our unused land to effect a great rural and agricultural development which will afford the best sort of opportunity to men who want to help themselves; and the Secretary of the Interior has thought the possible methods out in a way which is worthy of your most friendly attention.

HELPING BELGIUM.

I have spoken of the control which must yet for a while, perhaps for a long while, be exercised over shipping, because of the priority of service to which our forces oversea are entitled, and which should also be accorded the shipments which are to save recently liberated peoples from starvation and many devastated regions from permanent ruin. May I not say a special word about the needs of Belgium and northern France? No sums of money paid by way of indemnity will serve of themselves to save them from a hopeless disadvantage for years to come. Something more must be done than merely find the money. If they had money and raw materials in abundance to-morrow, they could not resume their place in the industry of the world to-morrow—the very important place they held before the flame of war swept across them. Many of their factories are rased to the ground. Much of their machinery is destroyed or has been taken away. Their people are scattered, and many of their best workmen are dead. Their markets will be taken by others if they are not in some special way assisted to rebuild their factories and replace their lost instruments of manufacture. They should not be left to the vicissitudes of the sharp competition for materials and for industrial facilities which is now to set in.

I hope, therefore, that the Congress will not be unwilling, if it should become necessary, to grant to some such agency as the War Trade Board the right to establish priorities of export and supply for the benefit of these people whom we have been so happy to assist in saving from the German terror, and whom we must not now thoughtlessly leave to shift for themselves in a pitiless competitive market.

For the steadying and facilitation of our own domestic business readjustments, nothing is more important than the immediate determination of the taxes that are to be levied for 1918, 1919, and 1920. As much of the burden of taxation must be lifted from business as sound methods of financing the Government will permit, and those who conduct the great essential industries of the country must be told as exactly as possible what obligations to the Governmet they will be expected to meet in the years immediately ahead of them. It will be of serious consequence to the country to delay the removing of all uncertainties in this matter a single day longer than the right processes of debate justify. It is idle to talk of successful and confident business reconstruction before these uncertainties are resolved. If the war had continued it would have been necessary to raise at least eight billion dollars by taxation payable in the year 1919; but the war has ended, and I agree with the Secretary of the Treasury that it will be safe to reduce the amount to six billions. An immediate rapid decline in the expense of the Government is not to be looked for. Contracts made for war supplies will indeed be rapidly cancelled and liquidated, but their immediate liquidation will make heavy drains on the Treasury for the months just ahead of us. The maintenance of our forces on the other side of the sea is still necessary. A considerable proportion of these forces must remain in Europe during the period of occupation, and those which are brought home will be transported and demobilised at heavy expense for months to come. The interest on our war debt must of course be paid and provision made for the retirement of the obligations of the Government which represent it. But these demands will of course fall much below what a continuation of military operations would have entailed, and six billions should suffice to supply a sound foundation for the financial operations of the year.

WAR PROFITS TAXATION.

I entirely concur with the Secretary of the Treasury in recommending that the two billions needed in addition to the four billions provided by existing law be obtained from the profits which have accrued and shall accrue from war contracts and distinctively war business; but that these taxes be confined to the war profits accruing in 1918 or in 1919 from business originating in war contracts. I urge your acceptance of his recommendation that provision be made now, not subsequently, that the taxes to be paid in 1920 should be reduced from six to four billions. Any arrangements less definite than these would add elements of doubt and confusion to the critical period of industrial readjustment through which the country must now immediately pass, and which no true friend of the nation's essential business interests can afford to be responsible for creating or prolonging. Clearly-determined conditions, clearly and simply charted, are indispensable to the economic revival and rapid industrial development which may confidently be expected if we act now and sweep all interrogation points away.

NAVAL PROGRAMME.

I take it for granted that the Congress will carry out the naval programme which was undertaken before we entered the war. The Secretary of the Navy has submitted to your committees for authorisation that part of the programme which covers the building plans of the next three years. These plans have been prepared along the lines and in accordance with the policy which the Congress established, not under the exceptional conditions of the war, but with the intention of adhering to a definite method of development for the navy. I earnestly recommend the uninterrupted pursuit of the policy. It would clearly be unwise for us to attempt to adjust our programme to a future world policy as yet undetermined.

The question which causes me the greatest concern is the question of policy to be adopted towards the railroads. I frankly turn to you for counsel upon it. I have no confident judgment of my own. I do not see how any thoughtful man can have who knows anything of the complexity of the problem. It is a problem that must be studied, studied immediately, and studied without bias or prejudice. Nothing can be gained by becoming partisans of any particular plan of settlement.

The President here summarised the necessity under war conditions for the Government assuming control of privately-owned railroads.

PEACE BY SPRING.

In this connection the President said: We may hope, I believe, for a formal conclusion of the war by treaty by the time spring has come.

In conclusion, the President said: I welcome this occasion to announce to Congress my purpose to join in Paris representatives of the Governments with which we have been associated in the war against the Central Empires, for the purpose of discussing with them the main features of the treaty of peace. I realise the great inconveniences that will attend my leaving the country, particularly at this time, but the conclusion that it was my paramount duty to go has been forced upon me by considerations which I hope will seem as conclusive to you as they have seemed to me. The Allied Governments have accepted the bases of peace which I outlined to Congress on January 8 last, as the Central Empires also have, and very reasonably desire my personal counsel in their interpretation and application, and it is highly desirable I should give it, in order that the sincere desire of our Government to contribute, without the selfish purpose of any land, to the settlements that will be of common benefit to all the nations concerned, may be made fully manifest.

The peace settlements which are now to be agreed upon are of transcendent importance both to us and to the rest of the world, and I know of no business or interest which should take precedence over them. The gallant men of our armed forces on land and sea have consciously fought for the ideals which they knew to be the ideals of their country; I have sought to express these ideals; they have accepted my statements of them as the substance of their own thought and purpose, as the associated Governments have accepted them.

I owe it to them to see to it so far as in me lies that no false or mistaken interpretation is put upon them, and no possible effort omitted to realise them. It is now my duty to play my full part in making good what they offered their life's blood to obtain.

I can think of no call to service which could transcend this. I shall be in close touch with you and with affairs on this side of the water, and you will know all that I do. At my request the French and English Governments have absolutely removed the censorship upon cable news, which until a fortnight ago they had maintained, and there is now no censorship whatever exercised at this end, except upon attempted trade communications with enemy countries. It has been necessary to keep an open wire constantly available between Paris and the Department of State, and another between France and the Department of War. In order that this might be done with the least possible interference with other uses of the cables, I have temporarily taken over control of both cables, in order that they may be used as a single system. I did so at the advice of the most experienced cable officials, and I hope the results will justify my hope that the news of the next few months may pass with the utmost freedom and with the least possible delay from each side of the sea to the other. May I not hope, gentlemen of the Congress, that in the delicate tasks I shall have to perform on the other side of the sea, in my efforts truly and faithfully to interpret the principles and purposes of the country we love, I may have the encouragement and added strength of your united support? I realise the magnitude and difficulty of the duty I am undertaking. I am poignantly aware of its grave responsibilities. I am the servant of the nation. I can have no private thought or purpose of my own in performing such an errand. I go to give the best that is in me to the common settlements which I must now assist in arriving at in conference with other working heads of the associated Governments. I shall count upon your friendly countenance and encouragement. I shall not be inaccessible. Cables and wireless will render me available for any counsel or service you may desire of me, and I shall be happy in the thought that I am constantly in touch with the weighty matters of domestic policy with which we shall have to deal. I shall make my absence as brief as possible, and shall hope to return with the happy assurance that it has been possible to translate into action the great ideals for which America has striven.

PRESIDENT'S CRITICS.

Senator Cummins, of Iowa, has introduced a resolution in the Senate proposing that a committee of four Democrats and four Republicans should proceed to France to keep the Senate informed of the proceedings at the Peace Conference.

Mr. Rodenberg has introduced in the House of Representatives a resolution declaring that President Wilson's trip to Europe disqualifies him to act presidentially or from appointing the vice-President to act during his absence.

JAPANESE DELEGATES.

The Washington correspondent of the "New York Times" says it is learned in official circles that the Japanese peace delegation will be composed of the Marquis Saionji, Baron Makino, Viscount Chimingda, and M. Matsui (Ambassador at Paris).

GERMAN POLITICS.

CONFUSED SITUATION.

A Stockholm message states that strikes have broken out in Berlin in favour of the socialisation of industry.

A message from Berlin received in Amsterdam says that Herr Ebert admits that the Independent Socialists are conspiring to overthrow the Government.

The German Press says utter administrative confusion reigns. It accuses the Government of having squandered 800,000,000 marks in three weeks.

Amsterdam reports state that Herr Scheidemann, in an article published in "Vorwaerts," declares that the danger of the disruption of the Empire is increasing daily. He says there has been a conference of the French Command in Strassburg with a view to the creation of a South German Republic.

The executive of the Berlin Soviets has resolved to welcome the Russian Bolshevist delegation to the Soviets' Congress in Berlin on December 16.

PLUNDER DISGORGED.

Germany has handed over to the Allies £12,000,000 sterling which she filched from Belgium, Russia, and Roumania.

THE KAISER.

PLOT FOR RESTORATION.

LONDON, Nov. 30.

The "Manchester Guardian" says it is generally understood that the primary object of the visit of M. Clemenceau and Signor Orlando to London is to consider the question of dealing with the ex-Kaiser.

An Amsterdam message says the German Government has forbidden the ex-Kaiser and ex-Kaiserin to return.

The ex-Kaiser's abdication does not refer to the Crown Prince.

The Kaiser blames Dr. von Bethmann Hollweg and Herr von Jagow (former Chancellor and Foreign Minister respectively) for the war policy.

The soldiers bitterly denounce the Kaiser's flight.

The "Daily Express" Amsterdam correspondent telegraphs that a widespread plot, headed by General von Mackensen, to restore the ex-Kaiser, was discovered in Germany. Many arrests were made in Berlin. The pan-Germans, Bureaucrats, and Officers' Corps are implicated.

ALLIED LEADERS.

WELCOMED IN LONDON.

Despite discouraging weather, unprecedented crowds welcomed Marshal Foch, M. Clemenceau, and other members of the French party, and Signor Orlando and Baron Sonnino, of Italy, at Charing Cross railway station. Unparalleled enthusiasm was displayed. The most prominent English statesmen and naval and military officers awaited the visitors, who have arrived to attend the Inter-allied Conference, at the station, where the guard of honour was present. The Grenadier Guards Band played the Marseillaise. The route to the French Embassy and Hyde Park was lined with troops and cheering crowds. Marshal Foch was specially ovationed. The guests were visibly impressed by the warmth of the welcome.

His Majesty the King decorated Marshal Foch with the Order of Merit.

V.C. HEROES.

WONDERFUL AIRMEN.

The London "Gazette" announces that the Victoria Cross has been awarded to the following officers of the Royal Air Force, in recognition of bravery of the highest possible order:—Captain William George Barker, D.S.O. with bar, M.C. with two bars.

On the morning of October 27 Captain Barker shot down an enemy two-seater over Forest de Mormal. Simultaneously a Fokker biplane attacked him, and he was wounded in the right thigh, but managed to shoot down the enemy machine on fire. He then found himself in the midst of a large formation of Fokkers, who attacked him from all directions. He was again severely wounded in the left thigh, but drove down two enemy machines. He then lost consciousness, and his machine fell, uncontrolled. On recovering he found himself again being heavily attacked by a large formation. He singled out a machine, and deliberately charged and drove it down in flames. His left elbow was shattered in this fight, and he again fainted. Recovering, he found he was still being attacked, but despite the severe wounds he dived at the nearest machine and shot it down in flames. Greatly exhausted, he dived out of the fight to regain the British lines, but met another formation, which attempted to cut him off, but after a hard fight he broke the formation and reached the British lines, where he crashed on landing.

Altogether Captain Barker destroyed 50 enemy machines.

Lieut. A. J. Beauchamp Proctor, D.S.O., M.C. with bar, D.F.C. He has conquered 54 foes, destroying 22 enemy machines, 16 enemy kite balloons, and driving down 16 enemy aircraft completely out of control. His work in attacking enemy troops on the ground and in reconnaissance was almost unsurpassed in brilliancy.

RESTRAINT OF TRADE.

A message from Washington says the Federal Trade Commissioner, in a report to Congress, charges five leading meatpacking companies with combining together in restraint of trade in respect to dealing in livestock and fresh meat.

ULSTER ELECTORATES.

The Nationalist and Sinn Fein Conference has decided to divide the six Ulster electorates equally, and the candidature for three others will be submitted to arbitration.

LATE CABLE NEWS.

TREVES OCCUPIED.

POPULACE SULLEN.

NEW YORK, Dec. 3.

Mr. A. James, the American war correspondent, telegraphing from Treves, says: The population of Treves greeted the American army of occupation with sullen, glowering mien. There were no flags, cheers, or smiles, and few tears. Among the crowds watching the Americans were men wearing silk hats, officers in splendid uniforms, women with furs, and others in ragged clothes. There were many children. The people looked prosperous, and the shop windows were well filled.

ALLIES IN RUSSIA.

TO STAY TILL BOLSHEVIKS ARE BEATEN.

The "New York Times" Washington correspondent says M. Bahmeteff, Russian Ambassador, announces that he will leave for France in order to participate in a conference of Russian diplomats in Paris, which will be held before the General Peace Conference. The Russian diplomats will discuss the proper representation of Russia at the Peace Conference.

Official cables received by the Russian Embassy from Archangel, state that the Allied troops will remain in Russia until the Bolsheviks are defeated, and Russia reorganised.

PRESIDENT WILSON.

The Washington correspondent of the "New York Times" states that President Wilson will leave for France on December 4.

INTO GERMANY.

ALLIED ARMIES OF OCCUPATION.

LONDON, Dec. 1.

Sir Douglas Haig, in a report on the 1st inst., states: The advanced troops of the Second Army, commanded by General Plumer, crossed the German frontier between Beho and Eupen, and advanced towards the Rhine. We have reached a general line of Burgreuland, Bullingen, and Mont Joie.

Forty British divisions are ready to enter Germany.

The American communique says: The Third American Army has crossed the German frontier, and has reached a general line of Aliersterg, Winterscheid, Muelbach, Treves, and Saarburg.

A Belgian cavalry brigade entered Aix-la-Chapelle at the request of the German authorities.

It is announced in Washington that Major-General Dickman's army has entered Germany along the Saar River.

A STRICT REGIME.

According to a Paris message, Marshal Foch has issued a proclamation to the inhabitants of the occupied territory of Rhenish Prussia enjoining the strictest obedience, and warning the people against hostile acts, under penalty of court martial.

BACK IN LIEGE.

The Belgian Royal Family entered Liege at the head of the troops which defended the town in 1914.

LOST U-BOATS.

Germany lost 200 submarines prior to the armistice.

Eight submarines surrendered to Admiral Tyrwhitt to-day.

MACKENSEN'S ARMY

Hungary will intern General von Mackensen's army.

SOUTH SLAV STATE.

KING OF MONTENEGRO DEPOSED.

A Belgrade telegram announces the creation of a new South Slav State. Delegates from all South Slav territories hitherto ruled by Austro-Hungary met in Neustadt and proclaimed their union with Servia and Montenegro, under the Karageorge dynasty.

Reports have reached New York that the Montenegrin Skuptschina has deposed King Nicholas.

JEWISH APPEAL.

DISORDERS IN LEMBERG.

The Jewish Socialist Labour Confederation has urgently appealed to Socialists and Labourites of the Entente Powers and the United States to urge their Governments to immediately militarily intervene to prevent the pogroms in Poland and Galicia.

A Berne message says the Polish Press Bureau admits that 40 Jews and 12 Christians were killed during the recent disorders in Lemberg. It says the perpetrators were hundreds of released criminals, assisted by deserters, and adds that 60 of these bandits were shot and 1500 imprisoned, of whom less than half are Poles.

SOUTH AFRICA.

CAPETOWN, Dec. 2.

A Pretoria message states that local Nationalists deny a statement emanating from Bloemfontein that the idea of sending a deputation to the Peace Conference has been abandoned. They state that the proposal will be carried out by two delegates from each province. An impression prevails, however, that the German defeat is having the effect of strengthening the Government party.

EXPULSION OF GERMANS.

The Attorney-General, Sir F. E. Smith, in an address at Bournemouth, said the Government was determined to expel every German from Britain.

H.M.A.S. MELBOURNE.

H.M.A.S. Melbourne, the first arrival at Portsmouth from the Grand Fleet, was enthusiastically welcomed.

CHILI AND PERU.

NEW YORK, Dec. 3.

Press despatches from Santiago say certain classes of reserves have been called to the Chilian colours. A naval conference will be held at Santiago.

FRENCH MISSION.

MELBOURNE, Tuesday.

General Pau and his colleagues of the French Mission, accompanied by the French Consul-General in Sydney, M. Campana, returned to Melbourne to-day from their visit to South Australia and Western Australia. According to the present arrangements the Mission will leave Melbourne on Saturday for Sydney.

WAR NOTES.

AMERICA FACES THE FUTURE.

In his annual message to Congress, President Wilson expresses the determination of the people of the United States to grapple with the immediate post-war problems with the same thoroughness and efficiency displayed by them in dealing with the military situation. He has every reason to be satisfied with the remarkable results achieved by the United States in the conduct of the final stages of the war. That she was not called upon to exert her maximum weight in the field does not detract from the very valuable nature of the aid which she rendered. This began to make itself felt at a time when the Allied military position was as precarious as ever it had been since the Battle of the Marne. The almost superhuman effort which made possible the brigading of American with British and French troops was one of the chief factors which helped to confound the final German offensive scheme and render hopeless the German attempt to secure a decision before the present winter. President Wilson may well be proud of the achievement represented by the creation and transport of this great army, which would have been much greater still had the necessity for its growth remained. Its conveyance across 3000 miles of ocean established a record in army transport which will doubtless remain unique for generations to come. That it was accomplished with a loss of only 758 lives makes the feat still more remarkable, though the fact that 630 of these were lost upon a single transport indicates that the loss of life in February last on the Tuscania, which is evidently the transport referred to, was heavier than was at first suggested. Now that her armies have practically completed the main task set them, the United States is already beginning to devise ways and means for setting right the sorry state of things in Northern France and Belgium. This work of restoring the devastated areas is one which cannot be taken up too soon, and, if it is to be carried out as well as it should be, the united efforts of the nations will be necessary at the start, irrespective of the fact that the final cost of the work will have to be borne by those nations responsible for the war, and which have now admitted their defeat.

KING NICHOLAS OF MONTENEGRO.

Reports which have reached New York that King Nicholas of Montenegro has been deposed do not necessarily indicate a costly revolution in that little Balkan State. An article published in the "New Europe" magazine some considerable time ago indicated that King Nicholas had forfeited his people's confidence early in the war. "The great war," said the article in question, "has placed the dynastic principle on its trial. In our own country and in Italy the Royal houses have identified themselves, even more closely than before the war, with the aspirations of their peoples. . . But, by an irony of fate, our greatest and smallest ally present us with the reverse of the medal. The world knows how the House of Romanoff came to an end; and, in the present article, we give our readers a glimpse of the dynastic straits to which King Nicholas has reduced himself and his family by a long course of intrigue. Mystery still surrounds the collapse of Montenegro in the autumn of 1915; but it is now known that the King's third son, Prince Peter, had a secret meeting at Budva, in Dalmatia, in May of that year with the former Austro-Hungarian military attache, Colonel Hupka; that telephonic communication was at times maintained between Cetinje and Cattaro; that by the King's orders the Montenegrin army remained absolutely inactive for many months; and that General Jankovitch, the Servian General, sent to Cetinje at the Czar's instance, and his successor, Colonel Peshitch, were hampered at every turn; that an agent of Prince Danilo negotiated in Switzerland with an agent of the Central Powers for a separate peace during the Bulgarian onslaught; that Prince Peter, on his father's orders, withdrew the Montenegrin troops from the key position of Mount Lovtchen at the critical moment, and allowed the Austrians to enter almost unopposed; and that the King, disregarding the unanimous resolution of his Parliament to fight to the end, telegraphed to the Emperor Francis Joseph and Baron Burian. It was only the invading Austrian General's excessive conditions, and the stern attitude of his own officers, that finally determined King Nicholas to retire to Medua, and so to Italy—the bulk of his army having meanwhile been caught helplessly in a trap. But, as is well known, Prince Mirko was left behind to reinsure Montenegro with the Central Powers."

SOUTHERN SLAV STATE.

Together with the news of the deposition of King Nicholas comes the announcement of the creation of a new Southern Slav State with Servia and Montenegro under the Karageorge dynasty. That this was long anticipated was shown by a memorandum presented to King Nicholas by M. Radovitch, the Premier, on August 18, 1916, from which the following is an extract:—"The events now taking place in the various theatres of war provide me, as a devoted subject, with the occasion for drawing your Majesty's attention to the future destinies of our country. There is no longer any doubt as to the complete victory of our Allies, which will lead to the final fall of the Turkish Empire in Europe, the defeat of Austria-Hungary, and the liberation and union of the Servian people. More than any other people it has paid with its blood for its deliverance, which will probably be followed by that of the Croats and Slovenes, who, in agreement with the Serbs, aim at creating a Jugoslav State. This idea represents the idea of a whole people. . . He who seeks to combat the movement will sooner or later be vanquished, for he will find himself confronted by a torrent which carries away everything in its path. It is conceivable that solely out of regard for the most august person of your Majesty, Montenegro might be re-established, while the other Jugoslav territories formed a State under the sceptre of Karageorgevitch. . . But at the best financial union will have to be followed by military and political union with Servia or the Jugoslav State. . . . The issue of such a situation can easily be foreseen, especially after the reign of your Majesty. You would find it impossible to accept the exorbitant demands of democracy, and would end, amid discontent, a reign which, especially during the first 45 years, has been rich in glory. Recent events, however, need to be effaced by a striking act such as would worthily crown your Majesty's reign." To this and other tactful suggestions that he should abdicate the King turned a deaf ear. Now that M. Radovitch's forecasts have proved correct, King Nicholas has been overwhelmed by the torrent.

FEDERAL SESSION.

MELBOURNE, Tuesday.

In the House of Representatives the Loan bill to authorise the expenditure of £1,242,154, principally on naval bases and the arsenal, and the War Precautions Bill were the principal measures considered by the House of Representatives to-day. The resumed debate on the former bill lasted five hours. Members expressed approval with the intention of the Government as outlined by the Acting Prime Minister, Mr. Watt, on Friday last, to secure the services of a high authority from the British Admiralty to report on the naval bases and to curtail naval expenditure until that report is received.

In answer to a suggestion by Mr. Mahoney (N.S.W.) that, in view of the termination of hostilities, a free pardon should be granted to all soldiers of the A.I.F. who had been in prison, and that all fines and penalties should be remitted, the Acting Prime Minister (Mr. Watt) stated that the offence of desertion was a most serious one, and pending the period of demobilisation it could not be lightly regarded. After peace had been declared the Government would consider claims for clemency for soldiers who were undergoing punishment for being absent without leave, desertion, or similar offences whilst on active service.

With regard to the suggestion to send a Commonwealth Minister to London to take charge of the administration of demobilisation there after the return to Australia of the Prime Minister (Mr. Hughes) and the Minister for the Navy (Sir Joseph Cook), Mr. Higgs (Q.) inquired whether the House would be given an opportunity of discussing the proposals. The Acting Prime Minister said that if information came from London in time for the Government to act before the House rose, he would announce the Government's decision to the House.

The House adjourned at 10.40 p.m. until to-morrow.

STATE PARLIAMENT.

NEW VOTING SYSTEM.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT BILL.

In the Legislative Assembly yesterday afternoon, the Chief Secretary, Mr. Fuller, introduced the Parliamentary Elections Bill, to provide for the system of proportional representation in all future elections for members of that House. The bill was read a first time, and the second reading fixed for a later hour in the sitting. Further consideration was given in committee to the postponed contentious clauses of the Local Government Bill.

PUBLIC SERVICE BOARD.

Replying to questions asked by the leader of the Opposition, the Premier said if the Government acceded to the request of the Public Service Board to appoint a further commission to report upon the report of Mr. Allard, Public Service Royal Commissioner, there would probably be other demands for further reports without limit. "When we appoint a Royal Commissioner," went on Mr. Holman, "it is after full consideration of his ability and impartiality. The Government has the fullest confidence in Mr. Allard in this respect. We are perfectly satisfied that no substantial injustice of any kind has been done by him in this report. We have given the fullest consideration to the Public Service Board's representations, which their status and their service commanded, but we are satisfied there is nothing to be gained by a further inquiry. So far from that, indeed, we are going to ask the house to permit us to introduce another small measure this session in order that we may, during the recess, act upon the recommendations of the Royal Commissioner.

TAX ON SWIMMING.

The Minister for Education informed Mr. Osborne that the Government had protested to the Federal Government against the imposition of a tax on school children who attended swimming with their teachers, or who attended in any vacational swimming classes.

SCARCITY OF BRAN.

The Minister for Agriculture told Messrs. Mark Morton and Walker that the shortage of bran was due to the price being fixed higher in other States than in New South Wales, and he would make representations that the Federal Price Fixing Commissioner should rectify that state of affairs.

WAR INDEMNITY.

The Premier, answering a suggestion by Mr. Bavin that an opportunity should be given to discuss the claim for a war indemnity, and to dissociate the State from certain utterances by Mr. Hughes (Prime Minister), said the Government did not favour any course that might embarrass the Imperial Government and other Governments that knew more about the subject than they did here. This was a matter for a public meeting and demonstration apart from Parliament.

Mr. Bavin said he did not intend to suggest anything that would embarrass the Imperial and other Governments.

FOOD FOR EUROPE.

The Premier said that in regard to a suggestion by Dr. Arthur that foodstuffs should be pooled, and efforts made to supply southern Europe, said the Acting Prime Minister reported that the price of wheat in Argentine was 5/7½ per bushel, and could be landed in Europe cheaper than Australian wheat.

BLIND SOLDIER'S PENSION.

The Premier, replying to Mr. Loughlin, said he had seen a published statement by a returned soldier that, though he was blinded in both eyes, had one arm paralysed, and that 40 pieces of shrapnel had been taken from him, he was receiving a pension of only 30/ a week. Inquiries had been made, and if the facts were as stated the Government would make up the pension to £2, the amount promised by the Federal Government when it took over the responsibility for the additional 10/ which the State had intended to pay.

FARES AND FREIGHTS.

The Treasurer informed Mr. John Storey that the railway and tramway fares and freight were not affected by the buoyancy of the revenue in other directions; those services had to be profitable within themselves.

WATER AND SEWERAGE BOARD RECORD.

The Minister for Works told Mr. Ley that the cost of the commemorative record recently published by the Metropolitan Water and Sewerage Board was £499.

ROZELLE JOINERY.

The Minister for Works, answering questions by Mr. Bushell concerning the Rozelle joinery works, said that the construction of the Glebe Island railway made it necessary for the Railway Commissioners to resume the property of Messrs. Binns, Wadge, and Brown. The portion not required for railway purposes was sold by the Commissioners to the Department of Public Works. The amount paid was computed by Mr. A. Borchard, an independent accountant, who was paid a commission of 1 per cent., amounting to £635 10s 6d.

TRUSTEES' ACTS.

The Perpetual Trustee Company (Ltd.) Amendment Bill and the Permanent Trustee Company of New South Wales, Limited, (Amendment) Bill were passed.

THE REFERENDUM.

Discussion was resumed on a proposal by Mr. Kearsley that on the demand of 50,000 voters any law or resolution of general application passed by Parliament should be submitted to a referendum.

At the expiration of the time allowed, further discussion was adjourned until Tuesday next.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT FRANCHISE.

The Local Government Bill was further considered in committee.

The House agreed to an amendment by the Minister, as to the time for the election of mayor or president of a council on the following lines:—For any ordinary election of mayor or president in the year of the triennial elections of councils to within three weeks after the date of the triennial election; and for any ordinary election of mayor or president in each of the years intervening between the years of the triennial elections—within the month of December.

Mr Lang submitted an amendment of clause 51 (which sets out the qualification of an elector) to provide for the extension of the adult franchise to municipal elections. This, he contended, would give everybody a common interest in municipal affairs and utilities. He advocated the extension of the franchise to persons resident in a district for a month prior to an election.

Mr. Bavin gave notice of an amendment in favour of granting the right to vote to all those who were entitled to the Parliamentary franchise. He, however, considered that the residential qualification should be six months instead of a month as suggested by Mr. Lang. The payment of taxes, added Mr. Bavin, ought not to be the test and basis of the franchise qualification.

Mr. Lang said he would withdraw his amendment and accept Mr. Bavin's further amendment. A protracted debate ensued.

Mr. Bagnall said that, whilst supporting Mr. Bavin's amendment, he intended to propose an addition to it that the voting power should be increased according to the number of the voters' children.

The Minister for Education: Would you apply that principle to the electoral system generally?

Mr. Bagnall: Yes, to every representative institution. He intended, he continued, to propose that the parents should have a vote for each child, and each parent exercising half the extra votes. If there were, say, four children, each parent would exercise two votes in addition to their own, and if one parent was dead, the survivor should exercise all the votes.

Mr. Edden (to Opposition members): We have you crusted old Tories on the rack now!

At 11.30 p.m. Mr. Bavin's amendment was defeated by 41 votes to 27. Mr. Bagnall withdrew his further amendment.

The franchise as drafted in the bill was adopted, giving the vote to owners, lessees, and occupiers on a three-months' residence qualification.

The House was still sitting at a late hour.

THE MEAT SCHEME.

VALUE OF CO-OPERATION.

In speaking at a luncheon yesterday to celebrate the opening of the Coastal Farmers' Co-operative Society's new premises, the chief secretary, Mr. G. W. Fuller, referred to the proposed meat scheme. He said the Government recently took a hand in connection with the meat industry. It was the duty of a Government to make inquiries where it believed there were injuries being inflicted. All that had been done by the Government was to make inquiries amongst those connected with the meat industry, and the matter becoming public a wrong impression had been created as far as the Government was concerned. All the Government was out to do was to try and help the producer and consumer by eliminating the heavy cost that lay between the two. At Cooma recently he had addressed a body of graziers on the benefit of co-operation, and if the graziers took the matter up on a co-operative basis they could eliminate the waste now going on, and benefit both the producer and the consuming public. He had instanced as an example, the success achieved in the dairying industry by co-operation.

Mr. Mark Morton said if the Coastal Farmers could obtain its present position after starting with a capital of some £200, the graziers could co-operate successfully without buying anybody out.

INFLUENZA.

NURSING SISTER'S DEATH.

TWO MORE NURSES ILL.

The death yesterday afternoon in quarantine of Sister Annie Egan, and the fact that yesterday's latest bulletin included the names of 16 other members of the nursing staff, four of them, however, convalescent, lend a disquieting tone to the reports regarding the pneumonic influenza outbreak. Of four new cases yesterday two were military sisters, viz., Sister Anson Smith and Sister Ada Gregg, who are included in the number above mentioned. Those of the nursing staff stated to be convalescent are Sisters Wray, Faddy, Bell, and Brownlow.

The following list shows the number of patients in various stages of illness or convalescence, compared with the position on the previous day:—

	Monday.	Yesterday.
Dangerous cases	14	13
Serious	17	13
Ill	111	98
Convalescent in hospital	97	121
Convalescent on station	267	269
Contacts	457	551

It will be seen that, taking the position generally, yesterday's figures are a slight improvement on those of the previous day. Those in quarantine, including both patients and contacts, now number 1065, according to official figures. The death recorded yesterday was the only fatal case officially reported for the last two days. It brings the mortality list up to 34.

Of those dangerously ill and seriously ill an improvement is noted in 10 cases. Those given as dangerously ill are:—Joseph Hunt, no change; S. W. Metzler, slight improvement; G. Gahlerty, no change; A. E. Brown, slight improvement; A. J. Duncan, no change; L. M. Twight, no change; Luigi Ursina, no change; Casselli, no change; Lorenzo Spinazzi, no change; Joseph Jolly, slightly improved; Joseph Glover, same condition.

Captain Alexander and Private M'Millan have been transferred from the seriously ill list to "ill."

Fred. Roberts, of the Manuka, has now passed from the dangerously ill list to seriously ill. Two of the Manuka cases were yesterday discharged from hospital, and are now convalescent. All others from the Manuka are reported to have improved, while all the Atua patients are now reported to be convalescent.

INOCULATING DEPOTS.

An inoculating depot will be opened at Newcastle to-day.

Other depots open to-day will be those at the Hyde Park Recruiting Depot, the Water Police Court, and at the Waverley Town Hall.

INOCULATION.

STRONGLY URGED BY MINISTER.

The Minister for Health, Mr. Fitzgerald, said last night that the opportunities furnished for inoculation have not been availed of by the public to the extent anticipated.

In view of the danger which at any moment may become imminent, the Minister exhorts his fellow citizens to accept inoculation without delay. Already his Excellency the Governor, Lady Davidson, and their household have been inoculated. The facilities provided at Parliament House were availed of by a large number of members of Parliament. These inoculations were performed in deference to the strong opinion of the Minister of Health, who feels that the example of those in responsible positions may encourage the public generally to realise the great importance of universal inoculation.

The Minister expresses the appreciation of the Government at the success of the measures adopted by the medical and nursing staff at the quarantine area. They have in a most wonderful way succeeded in holding the plague within the quarantine area, but the best medical authorities are of opinion that there is risk at any moment despite the precautions of the quarantine authorities of the disease breaking through. It would be satisfaction to the health authorities of the State, in whose hands the matter would then rest, to have the knowledge that the citizens had responded to the appeals of the State health authorities to resort to universal inoculation. Should the disease break through, as the best medical authorities fear it may, then the best precaution would lie in universal inoculation; and it would be a great advantage to the health authorities if this inoculation had taken place in advance, otherwise the rush which will undoubtedly ensue on the first cases being reported outside the quarantine area will exact tremendous efforts on the part of the authorities. The Minister therefore earnestly appeals to his fellow citizens to avail themselves now while the danger is non-existent outside the quarantine area of the facilities of obtaining a safeguard which would shield it through danger should the epidemic break out of the quarantine grounds.

"The inoculation is absolutely harmless, and results in merely a mild form of discomfort for a few hours," added Mr. Fitzgerald.

ROMAN CATHOLIC PATIENTS.

NO CHAPLAINS ADMITTED.

The Minister for Trade and Customs last night forwarded a message to the Roman Catholic Archbishop of Sydney stating he regretted extremely that under the existing circumstances it was impossible to admit chaplains to the Quarantine Station.

In a statement furnished early yesterday morning, Father O'Gorman, Administrator of St. Mary's, complained that appeals to get a priest into quarantine to attend Roman Catholic patients had been unavailing. "Such conduct is, I think, a disgrace to common decency, not to speak of Christianity," he added. "To-night an excellent Catholic nurse has been reported dying, and though I stood at the telephone for two hours, and announced that every priest in the Cathedral offered his services to attend these people, I could get no satisfactory answer. Even the Turks would permit a Catholic to have the assistance of a Catholic priest in such circumstances. Will the Christian people of this Commonwealth allow such treatment? It is a disgrace to civilisation. I have been trying to get permission for a chaplain to go into quarantine by special orders from the Archbishop for several days, but so far have failed. I know that Catholics are yearning for a priest. Will this red tape be allowed to continue? Will Catholics and Protestants in this community allow their co-religionists—some of whom are returning from giving great service to the Empire—to die like Pagans without the consolations of religion? I hope that our protests will prevent the recurrence of such action in similar cases in the future.

"Dr. Elkington," added Father O'Gorman yesterday in elaboration of his statement, "gave as the reasons for his refusal, firstly, that if the Roman Catholics had a priest other denominations would also apply; and secondly, that there was no room in Quarantine for such visitors. The Archbishop wrote to Senator Pearce in regard to the matter on Saturday, and has not yet received any reply. He telegraphed urgently to him this morning with similar results. These reasons are rather amazing. If any people require religious consolation it should be given freely, especially in a place like Quarantine. On ringing up Quarantine on Monday night we were told that the feeling of the Roman Catholics down there was one of absolute despair for the want of spiritual consolation. The latest information is that the military will only allow a military chaplain to attend Quarantine. All our military chaplains are away at the front, except Father M'Auliffe, who is alone in a parish and cannot go. It means that the Archbishop has to go through all the official farce of appointing a chaplain before people who are dying can receive the consolations of their faith."

AN INQUIRY URGED.

At a largely-attended meeting in the chapter hall of St. Mary's last night, when representatives of all the Roman Catholic societies were present as well as prominent citizens belonging to the Roman Catholic Church, a resolution was passed appealing to the Acting Prime Minister to hold a full inquiry "into the action of the quarantine authorities in regard to the death of Nurse Egan without the spiritual consolation of a priest." Archbishop Kelly presided.

Father O'Gorman stated last night that the military authorities gave permission for one of the military chaplains—Father Peoples—to go into quarantine, but he was not allowed by the quarantine authorities to proceed there. They acted, Father O'Gorman added, on a telegram from one of the Federal Ministers, who said he regretted that he could not allow a priest to go into quarantine.

Mr. Justice Heydon adds, "with the utmost possible indignation," his protest to that of Father O'Gorman, in connection with the question of spiritual consolation and help for Roman Catholic patients in quarantine, and asks: "Are there to be chaplains for those who die on the field of battle and none for those who died in quarantine?" He urges a meeting of protest in connection with the matter.

LATE NURSE EGAN.

The late Nurse Egan, whose death occurred in quarantine yesterday, will be buried to-day. She was admitted to hospital on November 26, and had been nursing in the military section of the quarantine. She had been engaged in private practice as a nurse prior to proceeding to the quarantine station.

HELP OF THE B.M.A.

The medical section of the consultative council, appointed by the council of the N.S.W. branch of the British Medical Association, at the request of the Minister of Health, to assist the Director-General of Public Health, decided at its meeting on Monday night to offer to the Commonwealth Government any assistance the Government was prepared to accept in the treatment of patients in quarantine, and in the study of the aetiology and pathology of the disease; and the names of certain prominent medical men were mentioned as willing to go to the quarantine station for that purpose.

FIJI OUTBREAK.

MELBOURNE, Tuesday.

The outbreak of Spanish influenza in Fiji is now believed to be under control. A cable message received to-day from the Governor of Fiji by the Governor-General conveyed this information, and also stated that up to November 18 last there was no ground for regarding the outbreak of influenza as other than a mild visitation, not unusual in Fiji.

THE MANUKA.

PASSENGER'S TRIBUTE.

Dr. Elkington last night made available a long and detailed statement by Dr. L. W. Lambert, who was a passenger on the Manuka, in reply to certain criticisms which had been published regarding conditions in quarantine. Dr. Lambert states that his wife, who was ill with pneumonia, but was now on the road to recovery, spoke of the Quarantine hospital administration and especially of the care given the patients by Dr. Deane, in the highest terms. "I myself," he continues, "have quarantined many people in past years, but until having been quarantined I never knew the mental anguish of being limited to certain boundaries or told not to go beyond a certain rope. However, I had good food, a good bed, and immaculate linen. Attendants were most considerate of my wants. After all," he adds, "what are the petty annoyances of a few disgruntled passengers, or the trifling errors of highly overworked quarantine officers, compared with the fact that these abused officials have kept a dreadful scourge completely out of Australia—a highly remarkable achievement not duplicated in any other country in the world. As far as regards my experience of ten years' actual work in the United States, Mexico, and Central America in connection with many epidemics, I can truthfully say that this epidemic has been handled in Sydney in a masterly manner. Of what can Australia complain when she knows the experience with influenza through which the rest of the world has passed? I took the inhalation treatment on board ship and ashore on various occasions, and on every occasion of which I know the inhalations were conducted in an orderly manner and with a due regard for decency. There was no instance in which persons of opposite sexes were placed in the same chamber during treatment. There was certainly no instance that came under my knowledge where a Chinese was placed with women in an inhalation chamber." Dr. Lambert concludes with the statement that the quarantine force ashore is capable, and that the inhalation chambers and the baths are entirely modern, adequate, and clean.

NEW ZEALAND.

EIGHT FURTHER CASES ON THE MAKURA.

WELLINGTON, Tuesday.

Reports from all parts of the Dominion indicate perceptible and rapid abatement of the influenza epidemic. At Auckland the position is rapidly becoming normal. The embargo on the hotels, breweries, and picture theatres will be lifted shortly. It is generally considered that if things go on as at present normal conditions will prevail throughout the Dominion. Unfortunately there has been a heavy mortality among the Maori population.

The Administrator at Samoa advises that the epidemic is very severe at Upolu and Savii. In Upolu the deaths are estimated at 1000. There have also been a number of deaths at Chatham Islands.

The president of the Auckland Fruit Growers' Association has telegraphed to Mr. Massey protesting against the proposal to send the Makura, with a large shipment of Canadian apples, to Sydney, in view of serious shortage here. Mr. Massey replied regretting the unpleasantness between the authorities, and promised to place before the Cabinet the request for a Royal Commission.

Eight more members of the crew of the Makura have been stricken with influenza and removed to the Quarantine Station.

MILLIONS CLUB.

AMERICAN'S EXPERIENCE IN QUARANTINE.

At a farewell luncheon tendered by the Millions Club yesterday to Mr. Louis C. M. Reed, of Chicago, reference was made to the quarantine station and the system in vogue there.

Mr. D. R. Hall, M.L.A. (Attorney-General), in proposing the toast of Mr. Reed's health, mentioned that Mr. Reed had been in quarantine, and in consequence had missed a boat to India. By that mistake we had the privilege of his and his wife's presence with us for another two months.

Dr. Arthur, M.L.A., in supporting the toast, said that Mr. Reed during the few months of his residence amongst us had taught us the gospel of service; and, as president of the Voluntary Workers' Association, he presented Mr. and Mrs. Reed with gold life membership badges of the association.

Archbishop Wright said that Mr. Reed had not only spoken of service, but had also rendered most important service himself.

Mr. Reed, responding to the toast and acknowledging the badges, said he had received from the Police Department an intimation that he and Mrs. Reed had been seven days in the country, and had not registered as aliens. The time would be up a little after 2 o'clock in the afternoon, and he would have to face the officers and have his thumb prints taken. Australia was a new country, he continued, and had made astonishing progress—there was no question about that. He was deeply touched by the honour conferred upon him and his wife. Since he came to these shores eight months ago he had learned much. He might not refer to his recent visit to New Zealand. There was no country that had so great potentialities as Australia for constructive as well as destructive activity. Australia, to his mind, would in the years to come go for heaven or hell—there was no middle course. Australia, like America, was a young country. It was only yesterday that America had come to its majority; to-day it had put aside the things of a child, and was acting, speaking, and talking as a man, serious, high-minded, and noble. (Applause.) Would Australia be led wisely or foolishly? She had all the qualities that made a saint or made Satan; it depended upon which direction she was led. Australian people were like those of America. They were not led by conventional practices; they placed no stock in precedent; all the people asked was: Is it true. They asked to be guided by commonsense—ordinary commonsense.

"Australia," he continued, "is a country that has good reasons to boast of its progressiveness, but in this year, 1918, she has in some instances kept back to the days of candlesticks, bullocks, malaria, and mugwumps, and that pesthole at her front door that she calls her quarantine station. Will you kindly tell me, in the name of commonsense, in the name of sanitation, why a country that has the most rigid Pure Food Act in the world, the best of hospitals, and a Health Department, should have such a quarantine station? If my wife were taken seriously ill in Sydney she might be taken to a hospital where she would have the best of medical attention, adequate nursing facilities, and so on, found her; and she might stay there until she was in a state of convalescence, and was fit to be moved. If my wife should be taken ill somewhere else, on a steamer coming to Sydney, or if she were a passenger on a steamer where somebody else were taken ill, she would be stopped at the entrance to your harbour, and shoved along with all sorts of people in insanitary surroundings, as if she were a criminal. What commonsense is there in saying that no one shall come within 200 yards of a quarantined steamer, back up the order by men with rifles, and then move two cot cases with influenza over to the shore with 50 other well passengers? Is that commonsense? Talk about your inhalation chamber! I can show you butchers' shops in New York with tiled walls, glass cases, and counters, with not a bit of wood in them except the blocks upon which the meat is cut up, and not a bit of meat showing in the shop, but all put away in cold chamber. Here men and women are put into a wooden inhalation chamber where hundreds of other have been. Why cannot you have in Australia inhalation chambers as good as the butchers' shops in New York?"

SYDNEY HOSPITAL.

RETURNED SOLDIERS' COMPLAINT.

At a special meeting of the board of directors of the Sydney Hospital, held yesterday, a letter addressed to the chairman, Mr. A. E. Jaques, was read from Mr. A. G. Potter, secretary of the Returned Soldiers and Sailors' Imperial League, in which he said:—"Several members of my committee have brought up the question of the appointment of a medical superintendent in Sydney Hospital, of which I understand you are a director. It appears that a returned soldier, an original Anzac, who has rendered four years' distinguished service to the Empire, was passed over in favour of a man who is much his junior, and who, though it was not his fault, had not been on active service. The former candidate was a senior resident medical officer of the hospital when he volunteered for service at the beginning of the war, so that it seems almost certain that, had he remained there instead of going on service, he would have now had the position of superintendent, and that consequently he has been deliberately prejudiced by volunteering for service. This league is about to inaugurate a campaign throughout the State to expose the various injustices to which returned soldiers have been subjected, and to insist on proper consideration being given to their claims for employment. This matter, among many others, will be fully ventilated owing to that campaign. The league is anxious not to be unjust to any individual, and as the voting in this matter was by ballot, I am not in possession of the names of all those who supported the soldier candidate. So that your name may not be improperly stated as an opponent of preference to soldiers, I am therefore directed to write and ask if you wish to dissociate yourself from the decision of the majority of the board in this case. If I do not hear from you within a week from date I shall take it that I am at liberty to announce publicly that you support that decision, and consider it quite fair that men who have been on active service should be prejudiced thereby."

After consideration by the directors, the secretary was instructed to forward the following reply:—"In reply to your letter of the 26th ultimo, addressed to various members of this hospital, I beg to inform you that the directors are anxious at all times to give preference to returned soldiers as against persons eligible who did not volunteer for military service, provided the interests of the institution are not prejudiced thereby."

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD.

Sir.—I must enter my protest against Mr. Jaques trying to cloud the issue under the above heading. He makes it appear—by always referring to the soldier candidate as "Mr. Teece's friend"—that I had taken this up as a personal matter on behalf of a friend when it was abundantly clear from the heading and text of my letter that I was writing as chairman of committee of the Returned Soldiers' League in support of a principle and in furtherance of a public duty. As a matter of fact my personal acquaintance with the candidate is limited to one or two casual meetings in France though his high reputation is known to me as it is to most soldiers who served in Gallipoli or France. Further, I personally knew nothing about the appointment till the matter was introduced at our committee meeting by one of the members.

Mr. Jaques then scoffs at me for my presumption in criticising the selection made by the board "who were in a much better position to judge of the suitability of the applicants." On this aspect I would direct the attention of Mr. Jaques to the last issue of the Medical Journal of Australia, the official organ of the B.M.A., which voices the opinion of the medical profession and which devotes its leading article to this subject, roundly denounces the appointment of Dr. Perry, and points out that the soldier candidate had "a perfect equipment for the position of medical superintendent of a large public hospital."

Mr. Jaques next charges me with omitting to state three material things of which he alleges I was fully informed before I wrote my letter. The first of these is that the soldier candidate did not report himself at the hospital or seek to resume his previous position on the staff, but retained a military appointment here, and the inference is added that the reason was that the latter was more profitable. The facts are that this candidate was invalided home, had to undergo an operation, and when fully recovered was to be discharged from the A.I.F. While convalescing he was ordered to take temporary charge of St. George's Heights Military Hospital, and as he was not then discharged he had no option but to do so. He did not seek the appointment, nor did he receive any payment for it beyond what he would have had if he had been doing nothing. Mr Jaques then is either so ignorant of military law that he does not know that a soldier has to obey his orders, or else he is so careless that he has not taken the trouble, as I have done, to find out from military headquarters what this candidate's position was. If he had done so he would not have made this blunder.

The other two facts which I am charged with omitting to state are that the conditions specified by the board and by the regulations required the superintendent to be unmarried and to serve for three years, while the soldier candidate did not fulfil those conditions. These conditions were never mentioned in the advertisement, nor by the acting superintendent to whom the candidate was referred. But, in any event, if the soldier candidate did not fulfil the conditions why was his name submitted to the vote? If he had secured a majority of the votes he would presumably have been appointed, and the board would have broken the regulations. I should like to know how Mr. Jaques proposes to extricate himself from this dilemma.

Finally, Mr. Jaques says that "the board has not lost sight of the duty it owes to those who enlisted and served with our soldiers abroad," but he fails to mention a single instance to support that statement. Instead, with an entire lack of logic, he goes on to say that the board appointed a rejected volunteer, as though that were a recognition of its duty to returned soldiers. Indeed, he practically asserts that the rejected volunteers is entitled to as much consideration as a man who has given four years of his life to his country's service, and other directors have said the same thing to me in conversation. My league strongly objects to such a principle, which is not only abhorrent to common sense, but is repudiated by the Rejected Volunteers' Association itself. There is not a word in Mr. Jaques's letter to suggest that any consideration whatever was given to the soldier candidate's eminent war service.

As another illustration of the injustice done to soldiers by the appointment of Dr. Perry, I would point out that Dr. Kay, who was assistant superintendent to Dr. Dunlop, and who is far senior to Dr. Perry, and even senior to the present candidate, was given leave of absence for war service, and is still away. The directors, by giving Dr. Perry the permanent appointment, have ignored Dr. Kay's claims also, and yet Mr. Jaques says that the board has not lost sight of its duty to those who enlisted.

I am, etc.,
ROY N. TEECE,
Chairman of Committee, R.S. and S.I.L.

Nov. 30.

RELEASE OF POLITICAL PRISONERS.

MELBOURNE, Tuesday.

A meeting of protest against the continuance of the War Precautions Act, and to demand the release of political prisoners, was held to-night at the Princess Theatre. After the meeting a deputation attempted to wait upon the Acting Prime Minister, Mr. Watt, and it was followed by 5000 persons, who sang the "Red Flag." Mr. Watt declined to see the deputation, but agreed to meet it to-morrow.

COLLIERY EMPLOYEES.

NEWCASTLE, Tuesday.

A special meeting of the delegate board of the Colliery Employees' Federation was held to-day to hear the report of the federation's delegates to the recent One Big Union Conference. After lengthy discussion, the matter was adjourned until next week, when further attention will be given and a recommendation made to the members before the ballot is taken. A meeting also will be held in Sydney to-morrow of the council of the Coal and Shale Employees' Federation to discuss the matter.

At a meeting of the delegate board of the Colliery Employees' Federation to-day the high price of explosives was discussed. It was pointed out that only certain brands of explosives are allowed to be used in collieries, and the price of these had risen from £6 before the war to £14/10/, the present price. It was decided by the board to take steps to have the present list of permissible explosives enlarged by the addition of a number of cheaper brands.

PLUCKY RESCUE.

Shortly after 1 o'clock yesterday Miss Madge Tenant, aged 26, fell from the Manly wharf at Circular Quay into the water. Arthur Kiss, a wharfinger, and an employee of the Manly Ferry Company, immediately jumped into the water without divesting himself of any of his garments, and succeeded in rescuing the drowning woman. Both Miss Tenant and her rescuer were landed on the wharf, and the Civil Ambulance conveyed her to Sydney Hospital, where she was admitted suffering from the effects of her immersion.

TAX ON SWIMMING.

FEDERAL GOVERNMENT'S PROPOSAL.

ASSOCIATION'S PROTEST.

At last night's meeting of the council of the New South Wales Amateur Swimming Association, a strong protest was entered against a proposal to include swimming in enclosed swimming baths in the list of amusements under the proposed amended Amusement Bill. Mr. J. Taylor (president of the New South Wales Amateur Swimming Association, and chairman of the Amateur Swimming Union of Australia) said he desired to raise an emphatic protest against any such proposal. In dealing with the matter he entirely dissociated galas or displays to which the public were admitted by payment from the instructional, humanitarian, and hygienic aspect of swimming generally. Also, while protesting as a representative of the amateur swimming world in Australia, and New South Wales particularly, his remarks were intended to represent all phases of swimming, whether amateur or professional. He would not be exaggerating if he stated the number of children taught to swim throughout Australia during each year would be in the vicinity of 50,000. The proposed legislation was to rob these children, or rather those who did not live near safe rivers, or the seaside, but whose swimming was confined purely to enclosed baths, of all benefits, except they were prepared to pay a tax. This was surely class legislation. Why should the lad living in the metropolitan area be penalised, whilst the lad at Bathurst, for instance, would be immune? In conclusion, he said, why, then, in a country such as this, with tropical climate conditions, should a tax be placed upon the public for: (1) Keeping themselves physically fit as a barrier against disease or epidemic. (2) For maintaining a sanitary condition of life. (3) For becoming proficient in an art which was not only a recreation, but a necessity, should an occasion arise, so that they might be able not only to save their own lives, but those of their fellows. (4) For endeavouring to become proficient in life-saving.

Mr. Taylor asked if the Government would be so mad as to penalise first-aid work or ambulance work.

It was decided that a letter of protest should be written to all New South Wales Federal members of Parliament by the association. It was further decided to write to the Australian Amateur Swimming Union, directing that body to bring the matter before the Federal Government. A sub-committee was also formed for the purpose of co-operating with other swimming organisations, with a view of bringing about a remission of the proposed tax.

LORD MAYORALTY.

DEADLOCK LIKELY.

A COMPLICATED SITUATION.

Next Monday the contest for the Lord Mayoralty is to take place, and already the election is exciting considerable interest on account of the complicated situation.

There are, if Alderman Meagher—the solitary Independent as he prefers to be styled—votes with the Civic Reformers, as he is expected to do, 12 aldermen on each side; and, therefore, if they vote openly, a deadlock must occur. Of course, if they vote secretly, which is the course some favour, anything may happen.

It will be recollected that there was a deadlock three years ago. The council being unable to agree among themselves, the then Labour Government stepped in and solved the difficulty by appointing Alderman R. D. Meagher, then the Labour leader in the council, to the office under a special Act of Parliament. That Act is still in force, and presumably if it becomes necessary for the Government to step in again a Civic Reformer will be selected, in accordance with the rotatory system which it was expected would be followed when on the first occasion a member of the Labour party was designated by the Government. The question is, who will the reformer be? The names of Aldermen Sir Allen Taylor, R. C. Hagon, T. H. Kelly, Milner Stephen, and R. W. Richards are mentioned. The last-named is keenly desirous of the honour; but it is pointed out that he has already had his turn, and that men like Aldermen Hagon, Kelly, Stephen, and others have superior claims. Alderman Meagher may upset calculations. It is quite on the cards that if the Labour party cannot win the chair for its nominee it may be disposed to give a block vote for Alderman Meagher as the most acceptable man on the other side.

The present Lord Mayor, though no longer an alderman, remains in office till the end of the year. He will not be able to preside at the election of the new Lord Mayor. The legal position is clear. The clause of the Act concerned with the election says, in effect, that the "aldermen shall assemble (on a given date) and appoint one of their own number to be Lord Mayor for the ensuing year." Mr. Smith has ceased to be an alderman, and, therefore, can take no part in the proceedings.

WAR SKETCHES.

Mr. Julian Ashton (president Society of Artists) delivered an opening address whilst introducing his Excellency the Governor (Sir Walter Davidson) at the exhibition of Bombardier M. N. Waller's war sketches at Messrs. Anthony Hordern and Sons' art gallery yesterday afternoon. He referred to the graphic character of the work done as making it worth while, and to the change to the left hand on the part of the young soldier-artist (on the loss of his right) as a great achievement. He doubted whether war pictures would ever possess an enduring vogue, all true art aiming at the perpetuation of the beautiful, and the experience of the past not justifying any such conclusion. Mr. Waller's brilliant drawings, however, were vital to the stirring times we lived in, and the collection before them, equally with the artist himself, would be warmly welcomed on all sides. (Hear, hear.)

The Governor, in declaring the exhibition open to the public, paid a tribute to the life's work of such men as Mr. Ashton, whose enthusiasm and talent as teachers, in combination with their executive ability, enabled them to form and inspire an Australian school of art. Whilst agreeing with the previous speaker that the beautiful should be paramount in art as a rule, he felt that exceptions must be made whenever the great landmarks of history could be re-presented for the inspiration of youth. It was a strange fact that the great battle pictures of the Peninsula, Crimea, and other wars had been generally painted nearly a generation after they took place. But this, the Great War, had taken such hold upon the world's imagination that tragic scenes and historical episodes had already been transferred to canvas to remind us that the souls of the Allied nations had united in the cause of liberty. When the Royal Newfoundland Regiment paraded before him as its colonel last September in France, reduced from 1000 men to 250 after their splendid fighting at Cambrai and elsewhere, war-worn and weary, they yet marched with the alert, unconquerable spirit of the British race. (Hear, hear.) It was a glorious reflection that Great Britain and her dominions had proved that they were as stanch as ever before the foe, and determined to keep what they had won. (Cheers.) These sad yet soul-stirring times of war would pass away, but they would, he hoped, possess many a picture of them that would make the blood of their children's children leap in their veins. (Applause.) Mr. Waller was drawing such pictures with his left hand, brave fellow that he was, and he was showing that the left hand had not forgot the cunning of the right, but was still to delight them all with the skill and vital feeling for character which the public would admire now that he declared the Waller exhibition duly open to them. (Applause.)

ORCHARDIST WORKERS' CLAIMS.

MELBOURNE, Tuesday.

The A.W.U. suit against the orchardists of New South Wales, South Australia, and Victoria, for increased wages and better conditions, was continued before Mr. Justice Higgins, sitting as President of the Arbitration Court. Mr. Grayndler, general secretary of the union, said that under the last award made six years ago, no provision was made for pruners. For them, the union was asking £4 8s per week, or 1/10 per hour; for female pickers over 16 years of age, an increase from 9d per hour to 1/3, or £3 per week, and for pickers under 16, an increase from 7½d per hour to 1/; for horse drivers permanently employed, an increase from 52s per week to £3 10s per week, with 10s per week extra where drivers have to feed their horses, and for casual drivers, an increase to £4 10s per week, respondents to provide housing accommodation.

Mr. Cutlock, for the orchardists of Renmark, S.A., said a further attempt should be made to arrive at a temporary agreement. His Honor suggested the adoption of the Court's basic living wage of 10s 6d a day for unskilled labor, with proportionate increases for skilled labour, as a temporary agreement, leaving the case to be proceeded with later, the award then given to be retrospective.

Mr. Grayndler objected, but said he would like to telegraph to members of the council to ascertain their views before answering.

The union's evidence was proceeded with.

MONETARY AND COMMERCIAL.

STOCKS AND SHARES.

A fair turnover was effected in investment scrip on the Stock Exchange yesterday, and firm prices prevailed. The feature of dealing was the sharp advance of 2/ to 38/ in Burns, Philp.

Variations on late rates were:—

FINANCIAL.

THE STATE ACCOUNTS.

Yesterday we gave the principal totals of the State accounts over five months. To-day we give expenditure on all accounts. It will be seen that there is a small increase compared with the same period for 1917-18. Public works expenditure compared with the total shows a moderate decrease. Closer settlement expenditure has almost doubled, which is only to be expected in view of the soldier settlement schemes. The details are:—

EXPENDITURE ON ALL ACCOUNTS.

	Five months, 1917-18.	1918-19.	Increase.
Revenue	£8,608,174	£9,386,316	£778,139
Closer Settlement	19,498	37,356	17,858
Public Works	271,023	196,391	*74,642
Loans	2,659,602	2,042,673	*616,929
	£11,558,307	£11,662,736	£104,429

* Decrease.

RAILWAYS AND TRAMWAYS.

The accounts of the Railway Commissioners show increases on both sides of the ledger. Revenue of the railways has increased by over a million, and of the tramways by over a quarter of a million. Of course, the strike of last year has still to be taken into account. If we compare the figures for November we find that there has been an increase in the railway revenue of £81,000, and in the tramway revenue of £40,000. The figures for five months may be given thus:—

RAILWAY COMMISSIONERS' REVENUE.

	Five months, 1917-18.	1918-19.	Increase.
Railways	£3,105,418	£4,154,690	£1,049,272
Tramways	677,370	942,175	264,805
Total	£3,782,790	£5,096,865	£1,314,077

The expenditure in five months has increased by £677,713. In the month of November railway expenditure went up by £96,000, and tramway expenditure decreased by £36,000. It will thus be seen that taking the month alone the tramways are in a much more favourable position than the railways. A comparison of expenditure over five months is as follows:—

RAILWAYS COMMISSIONERS' WORKING EXPENSES.

	Five months, 1917-18.	1918-19.	Increase.

THE COST OF PAPER CONTROL.

A "User of Paper" asks:—

What was the cost of paper control to the Commonwealth Government?

According to a reply by a Minister to a question in the Senate, the cost of the Paper Board's operations was £1172, distributed as follows:—Salaries, controller and staff, £399; travelling expenses, controller and staff, £99; advertising, £38; cost paper conferences, £631; miscellaneous, £5.

COMPANY NEWS.

The directors of Goldsbrough, Mort, and Co., Ltd., have decided to recommend the payment of an interim dividend at the rate of 10 per cent. per annum for the six months ended September 30.

COMMERCIAL.

THE MARKETS.

The Christmas trade in groceries, although brisk, is not nearly so good as last year. That is no doubt accounted for by the high prices ruling for all seasonable commodities. The absence of new season's dates and prunes was a feature of the market yesterday. Indeed, stocks of all classes of dried fruits appeared to be light. Evaporated apricots and nectarines were especially scarce. Sultanas, currants, and lexias met with excellent inquiry at full rates. Muscatels commanded from 1/ to 1/3 per lb. Very little season's fruit was available, as the crop in America this year was practically a failure, and many orders had to be cancelled. The market was bare of figs. Canned fruit of all descriptions continued to sell freely. Supplies of peaches and pears were light, and 12/ was paid readily for the best peaches. There was a strong demand for nuts. Walnuts changed hands at 1/3, Brazil nuts at 1/7, and soft-shell almonds at from 1/7 to 1/8. Candied peel was firmly held. Lemon peel commanded /7½, orange peel /8½, and citron peel 1/. There was a fair amount of business in tinned fish, although there was an unmistakable feeling of weakness in the market. Canadian herrings were dull, and buyers were looking for lower levels. Sardines were fairly steady, and stocks of Norwegian brands were light.

There was an improved demand for sheeps' tongues at from 21/ to 24/. Ox tongues brought from 37/6 to 55/. The price recently gazetted for salt does not meet with the approval of many merchants, and unless the price-fixing authorities allow an advance it is probable that supplies from the local market will be kept short.

Other classes of general merchandise sold steadily at previous prices.

Paw-paws, to 10/ a bushel-case.

VEGETABLE MARKET.

Due to the hot, dry weather conditions which have been prevailing for the last few days, supplies of green vegetables are becoming limited. At the Vegetable Market yesterday business in bunch stuff was brisk, and prices were very firm. Peas advanced 2/, and odd lots were sold as high as 11/ per bushel. Supplies of marrows were poor, and, in consequence, prices were much firmer.

Ruling quotations were:—

Cabbages.—Local, 5/ to 11/; lettuce, /9 to 2/ per dozen.

Tomatoes.—Local, 7/ to 8/6; cucumbers, 6/ to 8/ per half-bushel case.

PIG SALES.

A heavy supply of pigs was forward at the abattoir saleyards yesterday. The pennings totalled 2789. All descriptions were in evidence, but the major portion of the offering consisted of porkers. The general quality of the penning was fairly good. The usual buyers were in attendance, and operated freely for backfatters and baconers at the best of late rates, but the supply of porkers proved more than sufficient for requirements, i.e. at late rates, as the market was irregular and generally weaker. Prime backfatters made to £8/10/, odd to £12/10/, good to £7; prime baconers to £5/2/6, good to 87/6; prime heavy porkers to £3, (odd higher), good to 52/; prime light to 44/.

MINING.

An easier market ruled for mining shares generally on the Stock Exchange yesterday. North Queensland copper stocks were lower, consequent on the announcement that the Hampden mines were closed down on account of the miners refusing to continue contract work. The smelters were reported to be closing down at the end of last month. Hampdens, after selling at 14/7½, were offered at 14/4½, but without buyers. Mount Cuthbert, after "forward" disposal at 4/, failed to locate buyers at above 3/. Silver-lead stocks figured quietly at lower rates. British fell to 45/6, and Junction eased to 7/2, while Hillis sold lower, at 58/3 forward. New Burragorang, for prompt delivery, realised 3/, with an unsupplied cash buyer at 2/7.

Considerable interest attached to gold issues in connection with the announcements of the monthly yields. The Edna May Deep Level's return was announced as 765oz of bullion, which was obtained from 830 tons of stone. Sands were valued at 3dwt. The short tonnage was due to the holidays. The estimated working costs amounted to £1670, and capital expenditure absorbed £500. Development work during the month involved £1630, making a total expenditure of £3800. The month's mining operations thus resulted in a deficit of about £1000. Deeps sold lower for forward delivery at 14/9. Other Westonias figure at steady prices. Fractional fluctuation followed the announcement of the Mount Dudley return, which some operators did not regard as wholly satisfactory. The details of the clean-up are given elsewhere, and an item of the clean-up received last night adds to the return. The shares closed /2 lower, at 5/1. Tin stocks were irregular. White Crystal and Carpathias were dealt in on a firmer basis, but Malayan stocks were inclined to waver. Mammoth Molybdenite received further attention, and improved to 6/1½.

STOCK EXCHANGE SALES.

The following mining sales were listed:—

Copper: Mt. Cuthbert, 6 weeks, 4/; Hampden, 14/7½.

Gold: Mt. Dudley, 6 weeks 5/3, cash 5/2, 6 weeks 5/2, cash 5/3, 6 weeks 5/3, cash 5/4, 6 weeks 5/1, 6 weeks 5/, cash 5/2, 6 weeks 5/1, cash 5/3, 6 weeks 5/, cash 5/1, 5/, 6 weeks 4/10, cash 5/1, 6 weeks 4/10; Hawkin's Hill Central, paid, 2/5; Edna May Consolidated, 13/3, 13/3, 6 weeks 13/6; Edna May Deep Levels, 6 weeks, 14/9; Edna May Central, 18/9.

Silver: B.H. Proprietary, 6 weeks 58/3, odd lot 27 shares, prompt, 59/, ord. parcels, 6 weeks 58/3; British B.H. (old), 45/3, 45/6; B.H. Junction, con., 7/2, 7/2; New Burragorang, prompt, 3/.

Tin: Carpathia, paid, 13/8, 3 months 13/9, cash 13/6, 3 months 13/9, cash 13/6, 13/9; ditto, cont., 6 weeks 12/, cash 12/; White Crystal, 1/7½, 1/8, 1/8½, 1/9; Tongkah Harbour, 46/6; Trong, 6 weeks, 19/3; Tupai, 24/; Kampong Kamunting, 6 weks, 50/.

Miscellaneous: Mammoth Molybdenite, paid 6/, prompt 6/1, cash 6/1, 6 weeks 6/1, cash 6/1½.

NOTES.

The King Island Scheelite Company's mill ran 122 hours during the week ended November 30, and crushed 501 tons of ore, assaying .89 per cent. tungstic acid, which yielded 5 tons of concentrates, assaying 71.9 per cent. tungstic acid.

During the fortnight ended November 28 the North Mount Farrell Company milled 656 tons of ore, producing 7 tons of firsts ore and 83.9 tons of concentrates.

The directors of the Kampong Kamunting Tin Dredging, Ltd., have declared an interim dividend (the 9th) of 2/, and a bonus of 1/, making a total of 3/ per share, payable on December 23. Transfer books close from December 16.

The Junction North mill ran 84 hours during the week ended November 30, and treated 1336 tons of crude ore and 764 tons of dump material, producing 220 tons of lead concentrates, assaying 59.5 per cent. lead, 37.9oz silver, and 10 per cent. zinc, and 294 tons of zinc concentrates, assaying 8 per cent. lead, 10.1oz silver, and 43.9 per cent. zinc.

The Pioneer Tin Mining Company reports an estimated yield of 44½ tons of stream tin for the past six weeks.

MOUNT DUDLEY GOLD-MINING CO.

The result of the Mount Dudley clean-up, which took place on Monday, was officially announced in Sydney yesterday morning. The battery ran 200 hours, crushing 204 tons of stone for 160oz 7dwt, of which 127oz 7dwt was taken over the plates, and 33oz was held in concentrates residues. Included in the crushing was 50 tons of ore going 7dwt, which had been rejected by the vendor of the mine. Owing to delays in installing the rock-drilling plant, the drills were only in use since Thursday. The mine manager added: "Battery plates having been scaled, absorbed large amalgam, are now opening up of the best." An additional message stated: "Pump breakdown caused delay; finished retorting at 10 o'clock Monday night. Believe battery plates absorbed 25oz to 30oz gold."

Official advices arrived in Sydney last night to the effect that the "skimmings" were not included in the clean-up. The "skimmings" are reported to have yielded 32oz 4dwt, making a total yield of 192oz 11dwt. The average recovery, which on the early announcement was indicated to be 15.72dwt, was thus raised to 18.87dwt per ton.

HAMPDEN-CLONCURRY COPPER MINES, LTD.

MELBOURNE, Tuesday.

From its net profit of £51,107 for the half-year ended August 31, the Hampden-Cloncurry Copper Mines, Ltd., transferred £11,664 to reserve for depreciation, while £850 was appropriated for expenditure on the Hampden Queen option, leaving a balance of £38,593, of which £35,000 was absorbed recently in the payment of a dividend of 2/ per share, and £3593 was appropriated for expenditure on new plant. During the year the expenditure on new plant, comprising machinery, tramway, and buildings, has been paid out of the profits to the extent of £42,374.

PRICE OF LEAD.

MELBOURNE, Tuesday.

Mr. F. G. Nicholas, secretary of the Australian Metal Exchange, advises that the secretary of the London Metal Exchange has cabled that the reason for recent rises in the market quotations for lead is to restore the price to the parity of other countries. Latest quotations from New York give the price as £38 a ton, New York.

W.A. GOLD YIELD.

PERTH, Tuesday.

The gold yield of Western Australia for the month of November amounted to 72,156 fine ounces, valued at £306,499, as compared with 71,439 ounces for the previous month and 80,641 ounces for November of last year.

PURCHASE OF MELBOURNE PROPERTY.

MELBOURNE, Tuesday.

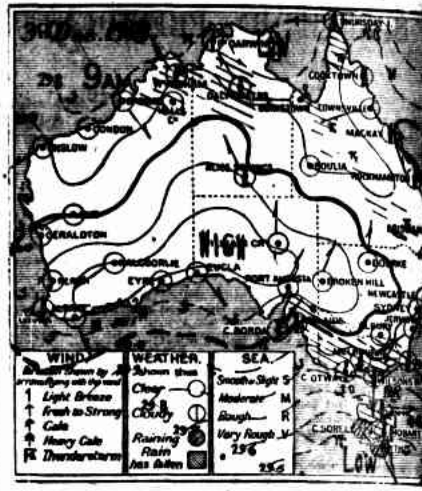
The recent visit to Melbourne of Mr. W. V. Ralston, general manager of the Queensland National Bank, Ltd., has resulted in the purchase by this institution of the premises known as the Citizens'-buildings, on the south side of Collins-street, about opposite The Block. The premises mentioned have a frontage of 51ft to Collins-street, and it is understood that the price paid was in the neighbourhood of £80,000.

ARMISTICE HOLIDAY.

At the last meeting of the Allied Printing Trades Federation Council of New South Wales the following resolution was carried, viz.:—"That this council deplores the action of certain employers in the industry for not paying their employees full time during the armistice celebrations."

AUSTRALIAN WEATHER.

THE "HERALD" MAP.



The "high" over the mainland of the continent has, during the 24 hours ended at 9 a.m. on Tuesday, worked 500 miles eastward, and with its cool southerly winds dispelled the sultry weather to the NE quarter of New South Wales. This change in atmospheric conditions has also—to a great extent—dissipated the tendency to thundery rains over the eastern half, as its influence, similar to that of the dry westerly element which preceded it, interrupted the thunderstorms developments. As a consequence, no rainfall has been recorded in the State since 9 a.m. Monday. There is, however, still a likelihood of the sultriness in the NE districts being broken by some scattered thunder and strong local blows, but otherwise cooler and fine weather should predominate, with southerly winds, strong and squally on the coast, and with probably occasional showers. Monsoonal inclinations, but of weak character, are still in evidence over Queensland, and there are manifestations of energy in a depression over the far NW corner of Western Australia, co-operating with the "high," which are indications of unsettled, squally weather there. As the "high" makes further easting, it should be associated with squally SE winds, and rising sea on the North Coast of New South Wales, extending to the Queensland coast.

Ocean Forecast.—Squally west to south between Eclipse and Brisbane; strong south-east shortly on the Queensland coast; elsewhere smooth to moderate.

QUEENSLAND STRIKES.

Mr. W. H. Carbould, general manager of the Mount Elliott mine, yesterday stated that employees at the mine left work at midnight on Saturday without notice, leaving the furnaces in full blast. The management has therefore closed down until after the new year. "Mount Elliott," he says, "expends about half a million sterling per annum, and the freight paid to the Queensland railways is over £100,000 per year. All coke shipments from New South Wales for the smelters have been stopped. The I.W.W. element in the Townsville-Cloncurry district is fast killing al industries and crippling the State railways."

SPORTING.

THE TURF.

The December meeting of the Gosford Racing Club takes place this afternoon, and the programme to be gone through promises good sport. Visitors can reach the scene of action by the special trains leaving the Central Railway Station at 9.50 (horses), 10.20, 10.35, and 11.20 a.m., while the ordinary train at 9.20 a.m. will also be available. The track is reported to be excellent going, and the first race is timed to start at 1.40 p.m.

Messrs. H. Chisholm and Co. report that they have sold the imported horse Negro, foaled in 1913, by St. Frusquin from Fanager (dam of imp. Chanterella, etc.), by Ayrshire from Dame Heron, by Lowland Chief, to Mr. E. Keys. It is understood the son of St. Frusquin is intended for stud duty in Queensland, and will shortly be sent to that State.

Argument (Redfern).—Houri was not a starter in the fourth division of the Encourage Stakes at Ascot on Saturday last.

The general entry for Tattersall's Club annual race meeting on the 28th inst. and January 1, at Randwick, closes with the secretary, Mr. J. B. Olliffe, on Monday next, the 9th inst. at 4 p.m. The programme is a varied one, and comprises a couple of races for two-year-olds, and a contest over the battens, and for the 13 secure events for which entries are invited the prize money totals 2500 sovs.

K.E.S. (Little Coogee).—Mairp, who won the V.R.C. Newmarket Handicap, 1904, was owned and trained by Mr. E. Kelly, then a member of the Victorian ring. He was ridden by C. Cooper, and started at 25 to 1 against.

The adjustments for the principal handicaps in connection with Tattersall's Club annual race meeting on the 28th inst and the 1st prox. saw the light yesterday. Balarang heads the long list for the sprint race—the Carrington Stakes—with 10st 1lb, an impost that is quite within his ambit. Colugo follows with a pound less, and, in turn, concedes 2lb to Poitrina. Greenstead, with 9st 6lb, Whitefield with a pound less, and Dame Acre with 9st 4lb, read nicely, and the same may be said of Delinacre, Bimeter, Faithful Laddie, and Wedding Day at their respective imposts. In the 7st division, Princess Lucy, Fight Ever, Coolstone, Slake, and Goonanawa appear to have been treated with a shade of leniency, and, among the lightweights, Glittering Gold, Stanway, and Stitching seem to have been left with fair chances. Bursar has the pride of place in Tattersall's Club Cup, and Rebus, Lingle, Estland, Celigne, and Gadabout, who follow, are fully entitled to their respective imposts. Finmark, Arch Marella, and Kenilera seem the best treated of the 8st division, and in the 7st section Wedding Day, Two Blues, Fight Ever, The Destroyer, and Garibaldi appear to have slightly the best of the fixtures.

TATTERSALL'S CLUB.

ANNUAL RACE MEETING.

Subjoined are the weights for the principal handicaps in connection with the annual meeting on December 28 and January 1:—

AMATEUR SWIMMING ASSOCIATION.

An important proposal was discussed at last night's meeting of the Council of the N.S.W. Amateur Swimming Association regarding the amateur status of certain persons who had played under the auspices of the New South Wales Rugby League.

Mr. A. E. Vesper, of the Northern District of the Amateur Swimming Association, moved the following be added to rule 4:—"Any person who has played football under the auspices of the N.S.W. Rugby League and who shall make a statutory declaration that he has not received any monetary consideration for his services, shall be considered an amateur, no fee to be charged for reinstatement."

An amendment was moved to the effect that delegates to the Amateur Sporting Federation be asked to obtain a fresh ruling in connection with the status of league footballers, especially in regard to the junior portion of their membership.

Both proposals were defeated.

AMUSEMENTS.

LIEUTENANT L. G. SMITH'S CONCERT.

Fortunately for Sydney audiences, Lieutenant Laurence Godfrey Smith lost no time in re-establishing the harmonious relations with them interrupted by his patriotic adventures in France. He reappeared last night at the Conservatorium, and in a programme of delightful music reasserted the magical spell arising from sentiment in alliance with a brilliant technique. The latter quality is always the making of Daquin's "Cou-Cou," so often played here by Mr. Borwick, as the reiterated cuckoo cry is supported by a continuously swift movement of the fingers over the keys. Opening with Bach's fine "Fantasie," the artist in that first classic group played also the Rameau "Gavotte and Variations," beloved of everyone, showed a sparkling buoyancy in the Scarlatti "Pastorale," and a stimulating impetus in the "Capriccio," which in its more exhilarating way bears a not too remote relationship to the exquisite grace of the other. At this point the enthusiasm was allayed by the addition of an "Old Song" ascribed to Bach, and also to Buononcini. The melody rose out of the past, with its burden of seriousness, kindly thought in the expressive sentiment and repose with which Mr. Smith gave it voice was recognised the something of reward in his career as an artist which his service for his country has left behind it.

Besides a welcome Schumann group, with a Welsh folk-song melody as encore, the artist played some new music. More especially John Ireland's "The Island Spell" should be named for the poetic conception of the "delicate sea-green solitude" between sea and sea in a fairy wood. Here the pianist superbly realised with bell-like touch the rustle of the waves forth and back on a shingle beach in support of an enchanting theme.

A welcome feature in the programme was the dramatic repetition of Henri Murger's "La Ballade du Desespere" to the music of Bembery. The artistic combination last heard "in character" on the stage of the Theatre Royal was not altered, placing Mrs. Alexander Gordon as the Singing Voice (Death), Mrs. T. H. Kelly as the Speaking Voice (the Poet), and Mr. T. H. Kelly, Miss Brenda Deloitte, and Miss Gladys Teece for Violin, 'Cello, and Piano. There were also beautiful songs in French by Massenet and Borodine, in which the contralto won the audience by the sympathy of her art; and violin solos admirably played by Mr. F. Mowat Carter, whose style is characterised by a pervading melody of tone. The violinist was perfectly accompanied by Mrs. Mowat Carter.

FAYETTE PERRY RETURNS.

After all Fayette Perry is not finished with the stage. When the dainty comedienne was married to Mr. James Allison in Melbourne a couple of weeks ago she stated that she would renounce the stage in order to proceed on a lengthy globe-trot with her husband. At the last minute, however, the comedienne has changed her mind, and has consented to take up her engagement with the Tivoli management again. Accordingly she will appear in her original part in "Everybody's Doing It" at the Tivoli Theatre on Saturday, when that revue is staged for the first time here.

UNION PICTURE THEATRES.

Norma Talmadge is the star of "The Safety Curtain," a five-act select feature now being screened at the Crystal Palace.

Mabel Normand, the snuggly sunshine girl, will be seen all this week at the Lyceum in the five-act Goldwyn feature, "Joan of Plattsburg." Nell Shipman and Alfred Whitman also appear in a Vitagraph drama entitled "A Gentleman's Agreement."

Kitty Gordon, in "Tinsel," and Alma Reuben, in "The Ghost Flower," are the current attractions at the Strand. De Groen's Orchestra at all evening sessions.

Alice Joyce, in "To the Highest Bidder," and Pauline Stark, in "Alias Mary Brown," are the features now being presented at the Empress.

Dick Rosson, in "Cassidy," and Agnes Ayres and Edward Earle, in "One Thousand Dollars," are to be seen to-night at West's Olympia. To-morrow's new programme will be "To the Highest Bidder," with Alice Joyce, and "Jordan is a Hard Road," with Owen Moore and Dorothy Gish.

Olga Petrova in "Tempered Steel" and "The Geezer of Berlin," are the current attractions at the Lyric Theatre, George-street.

WADDINGTON'S PICTURE THEATRES.

Emmy Wheelen is starred in "The House of Gold," a Metro drama, which is supplemented by "The Geezer of Berlin," at the Globe Theatre this week.

At the Grand Theatre this week the stars are "The Gunfighter," with William S. Hart, and "The Flaming Sword," with Lionel Barrymore. Chaplin in "The Bank" will also be screened.

Pauline Starke in "Alias Mary Brown" and Bert Lytell in "No Man's Land" are to-day's attractions at the Majestic. Thursday's change of programme will be headed by "The Savage Woman," with Clara Kimball Young, and Madge Evans in "Neighbours."

Enid Markey is the star of "Cheating the Public," which is to be seen to-night for the last time at the King's Cross, supplemented by Madge Evans in "Neighbours." Thursday's change of programme will be headed by "The Savage Woman," starring Clara Kimball Young and Bert Lyell in "No Man's Land."

An advertisement in this issue declares that the use of any wire netting trap or other similar device (lawful drum and gill nets excepted) for the purpose of catching fish in the non-tidal waters of this State, east and west of the Great Dividing Range, is prohibited.

BUILDINGS AND WORKS.

SELF-GOVERNMENT OF INDUSTRY.

At the last meeting of the Master Builders' Association, the president Mr. Foster, read an interesting paper on the subject of the British scheme for self-government of industry, and its counterpart in New South Wales. The writer dealt largely with the contents of the pamphlet published on the subject of Mr. J. B. Holme, deputy president of the New South Wales Board of Trade. It had been contended, he said, that Europe was saved only through the sacrifice of trades unionists of certain so-called privileges that they had secured after many years of strife, the result of these concessions being that 20,000 establishments in Great Britain produced more than double their output in pre-war days. Allowing for the fact that Mr. Foster remarked that a special effort had been made—which in turn was discounted by the fact that a large proportion of effective workers were at the front—the reflection remained, "What a vast amount of slacking and bad management there must have been before the war." Slacking and bad management were the unforgivable sins in economics, and if they were practised after the war, must surely result in the economic death of the nation practising them.

The Whitley scheme, he added, was an attempt to save the community from the great danger which threatened it. The scheme proposed by means of technical education and otherwise to qualify the employee for a greater interest in his employment—better remuneration, shorter hours of labour, better housing, etc., and it claimed from him a greater interest in his work and an intelligent co-operation with his employer. Mr. Foster pointed out further that already some of the principles of the Whitley scheme had been embodied in Mr. Beeby's new Act. The main purpose of his paper, Mr. Foster said, was to ask in what way if any could or would the Builders' Association reply to the queries of the N.S.W. Board of Trade. The board ventured to suggest that a deliberative body composed of company directors and managers on the one side, and representatives of the employees on the other, would, if it met regularly and frequently for the purpose of discussing matters of common interest, including not only grievances, claims, and complaints of all kinds, but also constructive suggestions made by the employees, achieve results of a very important character indeed; and that if it were supported by minor deliberative bodies similarly constituted, but commissioned only to handle questions of detail arising at the various shops, a permanent improvement in the relations between employers and employees in the industry might reasonably be hoped for.

The body mentioned which could be referred to as an "industrial council" would deliberate upon all matters of general principle, whether arising at several or at one of the shops, and would receive from the subsidiary body or "shop committee" references of matters which ought not, in the opinion of either employers or employees, to be dealt with in respect of a single shop. In every industry there were certain questions, such as hours of work, rates of wages, and matters of union principle, which could not be satisfactorily handled by subsidiary agencies, but there were also many other questions having reference to the details of work which were peculiar to each shop, and which might well be dealt with by such an agency. The two organisations would in effect give a constitution to the industry and make it self-governing in the interests of employees as well as employers, and would act as the parliament of the industry.

It should not be supposed that this council or committee would be used by employers in opposition to trade unions. The deliberate system now suggested could only be applied to the practical affairs of the industry if it received the earnest support and co-operation of the trade unions concerned. The council and committees must comprise representatives of all the unions whose members were employed at the shops, and those representatives might be elected from amongst the employees at a general meeting of the unions. The unions would, of course, be in constant touch with their representatives, and might be conceded the right to re-open before the industrial council any matter which had been dealt with by a shop committee in a manner or to an effect that was not agreeable to them. And they would, of course, retain their full rights under the Federal or State industrial laws. The shop committees might have regular meetings at specified intervals, as, for example, once a fortnight. If grievances did not exist the meeting should nevertheless be held in order that suggestions tending to improvement of industrial conditions or the better utilisation of the practical knowledge or experience of the employees might be discussed. As the Government Committee referred to above had said, "There was an undeveloped asset of constructive ability valuable alike to the industry and to the State awaiting the means of realisation. Problems old and new would find their solution in a frank partnership of knowledge, experience, and goodwill. Works committees would fail in their main purpose if they existed only to smooth over grievances."

AT RANDWICK.

SUNNYSIDE.

A Superb Site and a surpassing outlook, a sequestered spot, easily accessible, on the main road, overlooking the Racecourse, the Western Suburbs, the City, and Centennial Park—a panoramic wealth of variety both by day and at night.

Far back in the early days, at the beginning of settlement at Randwick, the late Walter Bradley selected for his home this and the land adjoining upon which to build his residence.

Some seven years ago the present owner purchased that portion upon which stands Sunnyside, a substantially built House of stone, containing Reception-room, dining-room, billiard or smoke room, 3 large bedrooms, dressing-room, 3 other bedrooms, servants' dining-room, kitchen, pantries, laundry, and other offices. Motor garage and stabling.

The land has an area of close on two acres, and fronts Allison-road, Bradley-street, and Wansey-road, and small Reserve.

The Grounds are laid out in Garden, Tennis Court, and Lawns, and its unique position prevents any buildings being erected destroying the magnificent views. The drive to the City is along the main Randwick-road, or through Centennial Park, which is reached by Motor in 15 minutes, or by tram, which is close by, in 25 minutes.

FOR SALE, on extended terms, owing to the owner's early departure abroad; or TO LET on Lease.

For further particulars apply to J. E. O'BRIEN, Sunnyside, Allison-road, Randwick.

KATOOMBA, MAGNIFICENT KATOOMBA, THE QUEEN OF THE MOUNTAINS.

Inspection is invited by Business or Professional Gentlemen or Others desiring a choice MOUNTAIN HOME, under the most favourable conditions.

The Home is situated in a select position, and stands in its own extensive grounds. It consists of 7 lovely rooms, together with large kitchen (gas and fuel stoves), laundry, bathroom, pantry, linen press, etc., electric light throughout.

The grounds are laid out in gardens; splendid vegetable garden and orchard, also circular drive from roadway. The whole property is in PERFECT ORDER, and though only about 15 minutes' walk from the Railway Station, it possesses all the essentials of a RETREAT from the bustle of the city, and enjoys all the advantages mountain climate affords.

The Property has been valued at £2000, but as the owner must leave the district, the selling price has been fixed at £1800, and as low as £250 deposit will be accepted from an accredited buyer, the balance can be made in payments extending over a lengthy period if required.

This is an opportunity seldom offering, and those interested should not delay to arrange to inspect. SEE US, THE SOLE AGENTS:

FACTORY SITES

THE CHEAPEST AND CLOSEST TO THE CITY ARE AT ROSEBERY MODEL SUBURB.

Manufacturing, now that peace is at hand, must go ahead in Sydney with great strides. To act in co-operation with all available facilities of transit, the factory site of modern premises must be in such a locality as to derive every convenience for transport as well as for the obtaining of labour.

ROSEBERY MODEL SUBURB is strategically the finest factory land in Sydney. It is practically on the city boundary, with several means of access, whilst the allotments offered by us for sale are CLEAN, LEVEL SITES, FROM 2 TO 10 ACRES; OR SMALLER LOTS, FROM 100FT FRONTAGE.

THE PRICES range from £3/10/ to £5 per foot, and price per acre can be quoted for any large area required.

THE TITLE IS TORRENS.

We are able to arrange convenient terms for buyers.

NOTE.—The following firms—James Stedman-Henderson's Sweets, Ltd., Parke, Davis, and Co., and W. Wrigley Spearmint Co.—have built their main factory premises at Rosebery. This will indicate the suitability of our land for the MODERN FACTORY PREMISES.

Our Representative is on the Estate at our office on Saturday afternoon and week days. Write or call on us for particulars and booklet, land list, etc.

AT RANDWICK.

SUNNYSIDE.

A Superb Site and a surpassing outlook, a sequestered spot, easily accessible, on the main road, overlooking the Racecourse, the Western Suburbs, the City, and Centennial Park—a panoramic wealth of variety both by day and at night.

Far back in the early days, at the beginning of settlement at Randwick, the late Walter Bradley selected for his home this and the land adjoining upon which to build his residence.

Some seven years ago the present owner purchased that portion upon which stands Sunnyside, a substantially built House of stone, containing Reception-room, dining-room, billiard or smoke room, 3 large bedrooms, dressing-room, 3 other bedrooms, servants' dining-room, kitchen, pantries, laundry, and other offices. Motor garage and stabling.

The land has an area of close on two acres, and fronts Allison-road, Bradley-street, and Watsey road, and small Reserve.

The Grounds are laid out in Garden, Tennis Court, and Lawns, and its unique position prevents any buildings being erected destroying the magnificent views. The drive to the City is along the main Randwick-road, or through Centennial Park, which is reached by Motor in 15 minutes, or by tram, which is close by, in 25 minutes.

FOR SALE, on extended terms, owing to the owner's early departure abroad; or TO LET on Lease.

For further particulars apply to
